TRAFFIC JAM ON TRACK—Against background of Michigan State's Spartan Stadium, Minnesota takes lead at first exchange in 60th Big Ten title meet's mile relay. Anchored by George Kerr, Illinois came on strong to triumph, shading second-place Michigan by a single second in 3:17.3 on rain-dampened track. Early pace-setter Minnesota faded to fourth, Iowa was third and Indiana, fifth.

National Collegiate Championships

By BOB STEINER

Assistant Athletic News Director, University of California

The big push was on for places in the United States Olympic Trials, and the result was ten National Collegiate championship meet records broken, one tied, and twelve stadium records shattered at California's Edwards Stadium.

Led by sprinter Charley Tidwell, javelin thrower Bill Alley and 400-meter hurdler Cliff Cushman, Kansas retained its team title handily as Southern California failed by a wide margin in its "return to competition" attempt to dethrone the defending Jayhawkers.

Tidwell, the meet's only double winner, sprinted to victory in the 100 and 200-meter dashes, winning five of the six races he ran in the two-day meet. The defending 100-yard dash champion clocked 10.4, 10.3 and 10.2 in his three 100 races and 21.4, 21.2 and 20.8 in his trio of meter furlong races. Tidwell's 10.2 in the 100 final equalled the meet record.

Herculean Bill Alley took only five of his allotted seven javelin throws and heaved three over 264 feet. His longest sailed 268-9 for a meet record.

Cushman paced himself beautifully, clocking 51.9 in two preliminary races, and then completely outdistanced the field in winning the finale in 50.8.

Kansas tallied 50 points in this meet and the Trojans placed second with 37, 20 of which came on Dallas long's 61-9 meet record-breaking shot put performance and Luther Hayes' 50-11½ hop, step and jump meet record.

The most exciting race was George Kerr's successful defense of his 800-meter title. Kerr, running behind Stanford's Ernie Cunliffe and slightly ahead of California's Jerry Siebert, outlasted the former and outkicked the latter. Cunliffe hit the quarter in 52 seconds flat and then opened up with a blistering third 200 in an attempt to burn the famed kick out of Kerr and his nemesis Siebert. He failed, but still ran 1:47.6 for third place with Siebert, looking for just a moment like he could take Kerr in the final straightaway, placing second in 1:46.9. Kerr's winning 1:46.4 was a new National Collegiate record as well as a meet and stadium mark.

Yale's Jim Stack clocked 1:48.4 for fourth, followed by Joe Mullins of Nebraska, 1:48.6, and Lee Martin, Morgan State, 1:48.7, in what must have been the fastest collegiate 800-meter field ever.

The meet's biggest surprise came in the 400-meter dash, as the name runners failed, for the most part, to gain the finals. Pre-meet choices Ollan Cassell, Earl Young, Dave Mills and Willie Atterberry all failed in their semi-final heats. Powerful Ted Woods showed why, however, when he sprinted the first 200 in the final and muscled home in 45.7, a new meet record and one-tenth off the collegiate record. Cal Poly's Vic Hall placed second in 46.1, followed by North Carolina College's Walt Johnson, Central Michigan's Dave Myers and Dick Edmunds of Princeton. Only Jack Yerman of California, among the more famous quarter-milers, scored, placing sixth in 46.8.

Favorites came through in fine form for the most part, but another exception was U.C.L.A.'s Jim Johnson and his 110-meter high hurdle win. The younger brother of decathlon star Rafer had never clocked better than 14.2 and had run behind teammate Bill Wells until the latter was injured late in the season. Johnson won his heats in 14.1 and 13.9 and then held on to edge fast-finishing Dave Odegard, Minnesota's Big Ten champion, in 14.0.

Oregon's brilliant sophomore Dyrol Burleson, forsaking his usual "come-from-behind" style, took command of the 1500-meter race midway and won by better than 15 yards in meet record-time of 3:44.2. A pair of U.C.L.A. Bruins finished second and third: Bob Holland beat sophomore teammate Milford Dahl, 3:47.5 to 3:47.9. Dahl had never previously broken 4:10 in the mile.

Boston University made the most of its two entries, John Thomas, the phenomenal sophomore, and John Lawlor, the veteran ex-Dublin policeman. Thomas soared 7-0 for the 28th time to establish a meet record in the high jump, and Lawlor whipped the hammer 209-2 to break his own meet mark.

All told, four sophomores cracked meet standards, the fourth being San Jose State's Charlie Clark in the 3000-meter steeplechase. Clark, despite falling at the last water jump, finished in 9:02.1—fourteen seconds under the meet record.

Al Lawrence, the methodical little Australian, led teammate Pat Clohessy to the tape in the 5000-meter run to give Houston a one-to-two in that event. Lawrence timed 14:19.8 for still another meet record.

Five of seven meet champions defended titles successfully. San Jose State's Errol Williams, co-champion in the high jump last year, could do no better than a tie for third place, although he jumped 6-8. Houston's John Macy, running just three seconds slower than he did last year to win the steeplechase, finished fifth as Clark set a torrid pace.

J. D. Martin moved the pole vault title from Oklahoma State to Oklahoma. After nearly five hours the field was whittled down to eight men over 14-6. Only Martin, a consistent fifteen-foot vaulter, was able to clear 14-9, and he could do no better, failing three times at fifteen feet.

Probably the finest pressure performance came in the broad jump where Ralph Boston, the NAIA champion from Tennessee A&I, edged Henk Visser on his final jump by just one-half inch, with 25-5 $\frac{3}{4}$ .

Missouri's Dick Cochran retained his discus championship with a stadium record of 188-3 $\frac{1}{2}$ . Cochran had two throws over 184 feet.

Another notable performer was Morgan State's Paul Winder, one of the East's outstanding indoor sprinters, who, it had been said, was great up to 60 yards, but in trouble at anything longer. Winder placed second to Tidwell in the 100-meter final, but beat the great Kansan in the semi-finals, running 10.2 to equal the meet record. Winder also equalled Tidwell's best time of 20.8 in his 200 semi-final, but had to settle for third in the final.

THE EAST

By PHIL PEPE

Sports Writer, The New York World Telegram & Sun

Get set for an invasion of Wildcats. Villanova coach Jumbo Jim Elliott has put together a track and field team reminiscent of the Delany-Jenkins-Reavis-Bragg-Collymore powerhouses that dominated the East in the mid-fifties.

So potentially powerful is Villanova that Manhattan coach George Eastment, asked to appraise the Mainliners' IC4A chances, replied only, "unbeatable".

This appraisal is based on simple arithmetic. Take an IC4A championship team, subtract one athlete, multiply by a year's experience, add several promising freshmen and you have an IC4A favorite and National Collegiate contender.

Most of the group are juniors and, with a freshman squad considered "the best in the school's history", Villanova figures to have another long reign. Included on the freshman team is Rolando Cruz, sensational Puerto Rican pole vaulter.

As for this season, the 'Cats have potential point getters in just about every event. Only broad jumper John Buckley is gone from last year's indoor and outdoor IC4A championship squad. Here's how the Wildcats shape up:

Sprints—Olympian Frank Budd, IC4A 100 champ, and Paul Drayton form the East's best one-two punch. Hurdles—Leon Pras is defending IC4A champ. Bob Coffi and sophomore Charles Hammock are possible scorers. 440—The 'Cats' strong point, Elliott is loaded with crack quarter-milers, including Bob Raemore, Joe Manion, Nick DeAngelis, John Mannion, Carl Wagner and sophomore Alan Jackman. 880—Another stronghold, with John Dante, Frank Hegarty, Pat Nicastro, Gerry Hackett and Bob Collins. Distance—Angelo Sivieri and Lance Hugelmeyer are the best bets.

If the 'Cats have a weakness, it's in the field events. But Hubie White, the basketball player, is a threat in the high and broad jump and Gerry Donini is a shot put possibility.

Who can beat Villanova? There are many challengers.

At Yale, Tom Carroll (880) and Jim Stack (440) are standouts. The Elis have a host of quarter and half-milers in Bill Legat, Don Metz, Ned Roach, Chris Brown, Dave Bain and sophomore Bob Mack. Weight man Mike Pyle and hurdlers Bill Hippin and Jay Luck are other scorers.

For Manhattan much depends on three sophomores—sprinter Phil Minardo, miler John Keraghty and shot putter Mike D'Amico. Joe Armstead, Frank Carroll, Dan Corry, Gye Courtney, Artie Evans, John Fernandez, Dennis Healy and Larry St. Clair are seasoned performers.

Sprinter Bobby Brown, IC4A 220 champ, miler Steve Moorhead and shot putter Harrison Rosdahl, a sophomore, are the big hopes for Penn State.

Maryland also has three standouts—hurdler Bill Johnson, pole vaulter Bjorn Anderson and javelin thrower Nick Kovalakides.

NYU is strong in the sprints (Cliff Bertrand, Steve Damashek, Ken Hendler) and middle distance (Jim Wedderburn, Jimmy Brown, Gene Bennett). Bill Urban does everything—hurdles, high jumps, sprints.

Four good milers—Mark Mullin, Jared Fitzgerald, Fred Howard and Ed Hamlin, three good weight men—Stan Doten, Ed Bailey and Roger Wilson—and all-around man Tom Blodgett make the Crimson of Harvard a threat.

There are plenty of good individuals. Shotputter Bob Batdorf and miler Ernie Tracy at Penn; Bobby Lowe, steeplechase and three-mile, at Brown; miler Eric Groom at Cornell; Doug Tynan and soph Frank Tomeo ("another Tom Courtney") at Fordham; Dick Edmunds at Princeton; Glen Shane, Art Crichtow and sophomore pole vaulter Chuck Barr at St. John's; Joe Cloidt at Seton Hall, and at Boston University, a junior high jumper named Thomas, first name, John.

The 40th annual National Collegiate Track and Field Championships will be held June 16-17, 1961, at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pa.

THE SOUTH

By JIM MINTER
Sports Writer, The Atlanta Journal

Again blessed with quality and quantity, Maryland is an odds-on favorite to win its sixth straight Atlantic Coast Conference championship this spring. No other team in the Southland appears capable of matching the mighty Terrapins.

Louisiana State, fresh from winning its fifth straight SEC crown, also has enough ammunition to finish on top again, but not with the ease which has marked Dogal domination in the past.

And in the Southern Conference, experts see The Citadel leading the pack down to the wire, chased by VMI and Furman.

Maryland, according to rivals, suffers not at all from graduation losses since a stout platoon of reinforcements are on the way from an outstanding freshman crop. The Terps should leave Duke, North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia to fight among themselves for the runner-up position, and the best the challengers can hope for is to trim the usual margin of the Terp runaway.

Leading the championship charge for the Terps will be Bill Johnson, one of the best hurdlers in all of Dixie, and backing him up will be Mike Kovalakides, a one-man gang who last year marched off with first places in the shot put and javelin plus a fourth in the discus.

If these aren't enough, Dick Estes can clear the high jump bar at 6-5½ and Bjorn Andersen and Tom Glass are a pair of 14-foot pole vaulters. Butch Spiegel and Don Whittaker headline the sprinters and Guy Harper and Frank Colavita provide the answers in distance runs.

In the shot and discus, Duke counts on Tee Moorman, the lonesome and famous swinging end of the Blue Devil football team. A flock of young distance prospects make up for the loss of three key men for last year's team.

Grover Everett gives North Carolina a top performer in the two-mile and South Carolina's best point-getter appears to be hurdler Charlie Bradshaw.

But all of them again will be chasing Maryland.

Florida comes on strong in the Southeastern Conference, which is getting better down the line. Junior Gator Tommy Michels last spring equalled the oldest conference record when he cleared the 120-hurdles in 14.1. Florida also boasts Henry Wadsworth, who as a soph exceeded 15 feet in the pole vault.

LSU, well stocked with such notables as hurdler Dickie Durham and weightman Lud Bandaries, rules the favorite on weight of numbers.

Auburn, always a threat, and brought along steadily but slowly by Coach Wilbur Hutsell, returns shot put and discus ace Richard Crane, dashman Jimmy Morrow and javelin champion Joe Leichtnam, who pulled one of the major upsets of last year's meet when he won the title with the best throw of his career.

Georgia Tech comes back with shot record-holder Ed Nutting (57-1½) and Georgia expects to raise some eyebrows in the broad jump with defending champion Mark Carr. Kentucky joins Florida and Auburn as a contender, and look out for soph distance star Keith Locke.

Faced by defending champions Jim Pew (100, 220), John Rivers (440) and Bob Diederich (high hurdles), plus fine sprinter Dale Bickert, The Citadel rules a solid favorite to capture a third straight Southern Conference crown.

Furman should challenge with sprinter Dave Segal and Thad Talley, a top pole vaulter, miler and half miler.

VMI returns defending mile and half mile champ Larry Williams and outstanding two-miler Bill Braithwaite. Virginia Tech expects Keith Hardwick to dominate the low hurdles competition.

THE MIDDLE WEST

By JACK CLOWSER

Sports Writer, The Cleveland Press

An act of Congress may be required to prevent Michigan from returning to the Big Ten outdoor track throne this year. On paper, at least, Coach Don Canham's Wolverines are clearly superior.

Michigan took the 1960 indoor championship easily, with 57½ points to 45½ for runner-up Illinois. Outdoors, the great George Kerr, with a double in the 440 and 880, led Illinois in a tremendous rally to win with 61½ to Michigan's 45.

The situation this time finds Michigan with all its important men returning except Tony Seth, the indoor 600-yard victor from British Guiana.

On the other hand, Coach Leo Johnson of Illinois has lost through graduation not only Kerr, an Olympic finalist and Pan-American Games champion, but sprinter-hurdler Del Coleman and miler Jim Bowers, important factors over the last three seasons. Bowers was the indoor mile champion. About the only help from last year's freshmen will be 14-foot pole vaulter Dave Rudolph.

Michigan's Canham has great sprinting strength in Tom Robinson, senior from the Bahamas who ran well in the Rome Olympiad; John Gregg, out much of last year with a bad leg; and Dick Cephas, who also flies the low hurdles and runs a fine relay leg. Robinson won the Big Ten indoor 60 and 300 in 1960, and the 100 and 220 outdoors, clocking 9.4 in the century.

Ergas Leps, junior and another Olympic veteran who represented Canada, is back again for anything from the 440 to the mile. Another holdover is Ray Locke, the league's shot put champion. Bennie McRae in the hurdles, Steve Williams, who took the outdoor high jump crown in the conference meet, and lanky Les Bird, a former Penn Relays broad jump winner, are other important returnees.

Michigan also has good help coming up from the frosh ranks. Foremost are Dick Thelwell, a 24-foot broad jumper from Jamaica; Steve Overton, a fine pole vaulter; and 440 man Carter Reese.

For several seasons, there has been rather an abrupt drop-off in team strength behind the big two. Somewhat the same situation seems likely again, with Michigan State, Ohio State, Indiana, Iowa and Minnesota contesting for third place and having a faint chance to overhaul Illinois.

The Illini can start with Paul Foreman, who won the indoor and outdoor broad jumps last year; Ken Brown, fine two-miler who will double in the mile; and Bill Brown, conference shot put winner indoors. Ted Beastall will be a top middle-distance man if his eligibility for another full season is established.

Certainly, Illinois will lack balance. There is only one hurdler, Armand LeCrone, no good sprinters, and no tough quarter-miler.

Ohio State, because it has good discuss men in conference champ Larry Schmalenberger, George Mirka and Bill Fields, probably will be stronger outdoors than inside. Bill Fry in the 440 and 880, Dick Strayer in the 880 and Jim Massey in the mile are other good Buckeyes.

Indiana has a crack sprinter in Eddie Miles and the league's indoor high jump victor in Reggie Sheppard. There are also Reggie Laconi in the 440 and Russ Lash in the distances.

Purdue begins with 440 ace Dave Mills, the first American home in that event at the 1959 Pan-American Games.

Biggest splash among midwest small colleges is the fact the famous Styron twins, Dave and Don, have transferred from Northeast Louisiana to Southern Illinois. Don shattered the world 220-yard low hurdles record last spring with a blistering 31.9.

THE MISSOURI VALLEY

By BOB HURT

Sports Editor, Topeka Capital Journal

Kansas is expected to yield the National Collegiate Championship it has won for the past two years, without a whimper, and also will receive a stern argument over the Big Eight outdoor crown it has won for nine straight years.

The heart was sliced out of the Jayhawker track forces when three Olympians (Bill Alley, Terry Beucher and Cliff Cushman) and Charlie Tidwell, three times a national sprint champion, walked the graduation plank. That quartet collected 46 of the 50 points Kansas needed to win the national title. Only returning point winners are Bill Dotson (fifth in the 1500) and Bill Mills (fifth in the 5,000).

Sophomores will add depth in the distance races and coach Bill Easton has a pair of 9.5 sprinters in Paul Williams, a returnee, and Larry McHugh, a junior college transfer.

The strongest challenge will come from Oklahoma. The Sooners, conference indoor champions, have pole vaulter J. D. Martin (15-9¾), weightman Mike Lindsay (58-4¾ and 181-6) plus a youngster who made the Olympic team as a freshman. That would be Anthony Watson, who has peaked at 25-5½ in the broad jump. Added to that fine trio will be Mark Brady, who is capable of 6-8 in the high jump, and Dick Dorsey, an ineligible last year who has recorded times of 9.5, 9.8 and 47.1 in the sprints.

Like Watson, Lindsay, too, is an Olympian. He finished fifth in the shot put in London for Great Britain.

The conference's only other Olympian is Colorado's Ted Woods, the National Collegiate 400-meter champion. The stocky footballer has run the distance in 45.8. His teammates, Don Meyers and Bill Toomey, are 25-foot broad jumpers.

Perhaps the conference's best sophomores will be running in Nebraska silks. They are Steve Pfester, 9.6 in the 100; Ron Moore, 14.1 in the high hurdles; and cowboyman Ernie Gunter, 14.4 and 24.4 in the hurdles and 9.7 and 22.3 in the sprints.

Missouri will toss a couple of able shot-putters into the ring in Don Smith (56-5½) and Danny LaRose (55-4½). Bob Hannekan, fourth in the National Collegiate 4000, also returns. His best two-mile is 9:17.2.

Elsewhere around the conference, Kansas State has a good hurdler in Rex Stucker (25-5) and Oklahoma State a good half-miler in Bill Stone.

The Missouri Valley Conference lost a little luster when Houston and Archie Roman, Jr., both defected. Houston turned independent and San Romani, a national freshman miler at Wichita last year, turned to Oregon.

North Texas State, runner-up to Houston in the Valley, is the team to beat—and Wichita and Drake are the most likely to do it, if it can be done.

North Texas has the first Texan 15-foot vaulter in David Clark. He cleared 15-3 in making the Olympic team but missed competition in Rome because of an injury. Other North Texas standouts are half-miler Richard Menachaca (1:51.0), miler Mike Cooper (4:10.5) and sprinter Richard Bothmer (9.7 and 48.1).

Wichita's hopes rest in the weights with John McCarrier (52-10 and 155-7½) and Walter Cockreham (230.0). In the distance races, the Shockers can call on Jerry Kraus (4:17.5) and Ray Wilson (9:37.0).

The Drake squad is hubbed around half-miler Charles Durant (1:51.5) and quarter-miler Ed Lundford (47.3). However, the top quarter-miler might be Leroy Sanders. He won the national junior college championship last year at 48.2.

Fulsa launched a building campaign last year and has some fancy sophomores but not enough depth to contend for the title. Best of the sophomore crop is weightman George Wallace.

THE SOUTHWEST

By DICK MOORE

Sports Writer, The Ft. Worth Star-Telegram

Picking Texas to win the SWC track championship the past six years had become an routine as choosing New York to rule the American League.

But along came Baylor last year to unknot Texas' strange-hold on the title and give the Baptists their first track championship in the school's history.

Baylor's rule isn't likely to be a one-year affair, either. Coach Jack Patterson lost only sprinters Billy Hollis and Ray Knaub and javelin thrower Gary Weisner from his winning squad.

Patterson borrowed Texas' past strategy in outdistancing the field by dominating the sprints, winning the relays and piling up points by placing.

Baylor's returnees include quartermiler Roy Smalley (47.0), distance runner Bob Mellgren (4:15.0 and 9:13.9), high jumper Eddie Curtis (6-7) and weightmen John Fry (55-10½) and Buddy Tyner (161-8¾). Up from the freshman squad are sprinter Bill Kemp (9.5, 20.6) and quartermiler Glynn Fields (47.8).

In the unfamiliar role of challenger, Texas counts on SWC record-breakers Ray Cunningham (13.8 and 22.6 in the hurdles) and Ralph Alspaugh (9.4 in the 100) to lead the breakthrough. A pulled muscle prevented Alspaugh from sweeping the sprints in the SWC meet. He was well in front when forced to pull up.

Other top Longhorns are pole vaulter Baylus Bennett (14-½) and weightman Jim Allison (55-6½ and 160.0). Up from the freshman ranks are miler Steve Erickland (4:19.6), half-miler Denny Taylor (1:56.6), shot putter Emery Martin-ale and javelin thrower Charles Giesey.

Undoubtedly, Rice will be greatly improved, with Mickey Hollingshead, Norman Charlton, Taylor Jones, Ron Weber and Dave Edwards still around. Hollingshead tied the SWC mark of 46.9 in winning the 440. Charlton chased Cunningham home in the highs and Jones tied Hollis for first in the 220.

SMU can point with pride to its trio of Jan Ahlberg, Jim Parr and Dexter Elkins. The latter set a SWC pole vault mark of 14-6½. Ahlberg and Parr strided across together in the SWC mile, and the Swede repeated in the two mile.

Texas A&M, Texas Tech, Arkansas and TCU will be thin. The Aggies rely on freshman miler E. L. Ener and sprinter Ed Williams (9.6) to go with lettermen Chad Crooks, 1:52.2 in the 880, and Jim Brewer (220-11½) in the javelin.

Texas Tech will build around half-miler Charles Draper (1:52.5), quartermiler Curtis Hart (47.8), hurdler Bob Swafford and half-miler Ken Weaver.

Jack Nelson, second in the SWC two-mile, and freshman half-miler Haydn Hicks head Arkansas' squad, while TCU looks to high hurdler Bobby Bernard (14.0), sprinter Sam Ketcham (9.6) and half-miler Reagan Gasaway, along with freshman high jumper Jacky Upton (6-7), for points to climb out of the cellar.

Abilene Christian and Houston, blessed with aid from overseas, will contest Baylor and Texas for headlines in the Southwest.

The Wildcats have brilliant quartermiler Earl Young. As a sophomore, he ran sixth in the Olympic Games 400 meters and did a splendid job on the second leg of the U.S.'s winning 1600-meter relay team. Earl turned in times of 46.2 in the quarter, 45.7 in the 400 meters and 45.5 in the 400-meter relay leg.

Lending assistance will be hurdler Calvin Cooley (14.1, 22.2), pole vaulter Leroy Culver (14-6) and a freshman crop including Australian distance runners John Lawler (4:14.4, 9:17.9) and Denis Moore (4:20.2). Frosh graduates, sprinters Dennis Richardson (9.6, 20.9) and Bud White (9.7) will help.

Houston has five outstanding returnees in quartermiler Ollan Cassel (46.2t), and Australians Barrie Almond, Al Lawrence and Pat Clohessy and Pole Jon Macy.

THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS

By DAVE SCHULTHESS

Sports Publicity Director, Brigham Young University

The calm that generally settles over track and field after an Olympic year will not be felt this spring in the Rocky Mountains, where the sport is riding the crest of new-found interest and enthusiasm.

Unless something radical takes place, the balance of power in the Skyline (Mountain States) and Rocky Mountain leagues will continue to rest with Brigham Young University and Idaho State College, the perennial king-pins. Depth, layers of it, preserved B.Y.U. Coach Clarence Robison's championship reign in the Skyline for another year, and the Bengals at Pocatello, Ida., appear to be just as deeply entrenched as in seasons past.

Looking first at the Skyline, only two schools, Utah State and New Mexico, have seriously threatened B.Y.U. in recent years. And since both will have about the same strength this spring, the Cougars remain favored.

Robison's losses (pole vault champion Marcus Nielson and distance titlist Gary Griffith), will be offset by a group of newcomers who should give the Cougars their usual depth. Broad jumper Glade Nixon (23-11), high jumper Ed Costa (6-11) and quarter-miler Guy DeHart (47.6) should be the standouts. Soft spots in the Y's overall strength will be the half-mile and weights. There's a good chance the Cougars will also put together a formidable mile-relay team.

At Utah State the Ags will be counting on several super-stars to pick up most of their points, with the strong events being the middle distances, distances, hurdles and field events. Richard and Odell Rice will team in the distances again, Charles Decker has a 1:51.9 in the 880, Glen Passey a 175-5 throw in the discus and Joe Hollis a 14-2 in the pole vault. Jim Swindle, all-arounder, accounted for 93 points last spring in hurdles and broad jump.

New Mexico will be without the services of Olympic medal-winner Dick Howard and half-miler Jim Dupree. The latter ran a 1:50.6 in the 880 for a new mark. The Ags will be counting on Adolph Plummer, league 440 champ (47.4), and R. P. Waters and Andy Sinclair in the weights for a better balanced squad.

Sprint champion Fred McCoy (9.4) will not be back at CSU this season. But the Ags will have Jerry Glade and Dick Peckham in the distances and Jerry Morgan in the javelin.

Utah, once again, will have most of its strength concentrated in a few performers: hurdler Blain Lindgren (double winner in the Skyline meet); Jon Johnson in the sprints and 440; all-eventer Dave Cunningham; and Craig Smith and Craig Christensen in the javelin.

Montana lost one of the loop's top weight men, Ken Wersland, through graduation, but Harry Adams' team will have two good milers in young Gary Wojtowick and Glenn DeVries, plus a fair sprinter in Pat Dodson.

Denver and Wyoming may improve some, but will not have the depth or star power to pose much of a threat. DU will have a hard time replacing sprinter Paul Collins, and the report from the Air Force Academy indicates the Falcons will be somewhat stronger than during the last campaign.

As for the Rocky Mountain Conference, Idaho State still has Tom O'Riordan (9:07.4 two-mile) and some new talent has made an appearance that should make them stronger in 1961.

THE PACIFIC COAST

By BERT NELSON
Publisher, Track & Field News

FOUR MEN IN A HURRY—San Jose State's Bob Poynter edges Bobby Brown of Penn State with 9.9 clocking in Penn Relays 100-yard dash. Poynter's teammate Willie Williams (hidden behind Brown) was third and Indiana's Al Phillips (far right) placed fourth.

Pacific Coast teams did very well in the 1960 National Collegiate Championships, taking four of the top five team places. Southern California was second, UCLA third and Oregon and Oregon State tied for fourth. Despite this fine showing, it looks as if the area should do just as well or better in 1961.

Southern California, a perennial title contender, will have another strong team but probably will have to battle Oregon for both national and sectional honors. Returning are sprinter Jim Bates, Luther Hayes in the hop-step-and-jump, pole vaulter Jim Brewer, shot putter Dallas Long, javelin thrower Bob Sbordone and discus man Jim Wade. And the addition of all-around sophomore Rex Crowley in the sprints and hurdles isn't going to hurt the SC cause.

Deathlon man Dave Edstrom was the big loss for Coach Bill Bowerman's Oregon team, but there are plenty of experienced men back to make the Ducks a contender. Top returnees are middle distance runner Dyrrol Burleson, sprinter Roscoe Cook, half-miler Sig Ohlemann and pole vaulter Phil Paquin. A welcome newcomer is Canadian Harry Jerome, who ran 10 flat for 100 meters as a freshman last year.

UCLA also has plenty of talent returning, but sophomore deathlon man C. K. Yang, who does most everything well, could change the Bruins from a challenger into a champion. Aiding Yang will be National Collegiate high hurdles champion Jim Johnson, shot putter Clark Branson and discus thrower Gerald Carr.

Oregon State also can't be overlooked. Coach Sam Bell didn't lose an important man and he picked up some good athletes, including middle distance man Dale Story, a transfer from Santa Ana, Calif., J.C. Returning are broad jumper and hop-step-and-jump standout Darrell Horn, javelin man Gary Stenlund, sprinter Amos Marsh and middle distance and steeplechase performer Norm Hoffman.
