SUCCESSFULLY DEFENDING his National Collegiate 100-yard crown, Villanova's Frank Budd nips Oregon's Harry Jerome and San Jose State's Dennis Johnson (left) in the 1962 meet at Eugene, Ore. All three speedsters were clocked in 9.4.

National Collegiate Championships

By HAL CHILDS

Sports Information Director, University of Oregon

Oregon's powerful Webfoots earned a niche among the great track and field powers of all time as they waltzed off with the team title at the 41st annual National Collegiate Championship meet, held at their own Hayward Field.

Coach Bill Bowerman's Ducks, scoring 85 points before an appreciative home crowd of 13,000 fans, more than doubled the score on runner-up Villanova (40 3/7 points). Defending champion Southern California (27 3/7) was third.

Oregon's title push was keyed by hurdle star Jerry Tarr, three-time mile champion Dyrrol Burtleson, sprinter Harry Jerome, and sophomore sensation Mel Renfro, who also rates as one of the Ducks' football standouts.

Tarr, who has emerged as the finest hurdler in the world, was the crowd favorite as he flashed to victory in the 120-yard high and 440-yard intermediate hurdles. It was an impressive double for the sturdy senior, known to his teammates as the "Tiger" for his tremendous competitive spirit.

He successfully defended his high hurdle crown with amazing ease. Tarr fled to a 13.6 clocking in Friday's semi-final heat and won going away in 13.5 in the championship race. Excessive trailing wind in both races prevented his name from going in the record book. Lee Calhoun holds the meet record at 13.6.

Tarr won so handily in the high hurdles that he was looking over his shoulder at the rest of the field a scant yard past the finish line. He was apparently checking on teammate Renfro, who charged to a 13.8 clocking and second place.

Tarr was a picture of power and form as he completely overwhelmed a solid field to win the intermediate hurdles in 50.3.

When Tarr circled the infield following his record-breaking performance, the partisan crowd exploded in paying tribute to a deservedly popular hero.

Burtleson won his third consecutive mile title in 3:59.8, a National Collegiate standard. He flashed by Southern Illinois' Bill Cornell in the stretch to provide the Ducks with an exciting first place finish in Saturday's initial running event.

Jerome contributed 18 points to the Webfoot cause by capturing the 220 and finishing second to Villanova's Frank Budd in the 100. Budd scored a close, but decisive, win in the century as Budd, Jerome and San Jose State's Dennis Johnson were all timed in 9.4.

Budd provided a big shock when he failed to qualify for the semi-finals in the 220. His teammate, Paul Drayton, gave Jerome a real battle in the 220, and Oregon sprint ace needed a tremendous finish to nip Drayton. Once again the first two finishers were given identical clockings of 20.8.

Jerome and Budd both equalled meet records in the preliminaries. Budd tied the 100-yard dash mark of 9.3 in the semi-finals, while Jerome tied the 220-yard record of 20.7 in both the quarter-finals and semis.

Renfro proved to be the surprise of the meet. His performance in the high hurdles bettered anything he had ever done before by two-tenths of a second. The powerful Webfoot also grabbed third place in the broad jump with a leap of 25 feet 11 1/4 inches, another career best.

Dallas Long of USC captured his third straight collegiate crown with a toss of 64 feet 7 inches. It shattered his meet record of 63 feet 3 1/2 inches set last year at Philadelphia. Villanova's Pat Traynor came up with the other meet standard as he won the 3,000-meter steeplechase in 8:48.6.

Another upset came in the high jump when John Thomas, two-time champion from Boston U., had to settle for a second place tie in the high jump at 6-9. Just as surprising was Roger Olsen's victory in that event at 6-10. Olsen hadn't won in the high jump all year, having played second fiddle to California teammate Gene Johnson. This time around, however, it was Olsen who grabbed the blue ribbon, while Johnson figured in the tie for second place.

Adolph Plummer of New Mexico and Earl Young of Abilene Christian College were upset victims in the 440. Plummer, the winner last year, finished fourth, while Young, second by inches at Philadelphia, finished out of the money. Hubert Brown of Morgan State flashed to a 46.9 clocking to win the event.

Dick Plymale, Army's soaring sophomore, failed to clear 14-6 after entering the meet as the top-rated collegiate pole vaulter in the country. John Belitz of Maryland, Fred Hanson of Rice, Don Meyers of Colorado, and Dexter Elkins of SMU shared the pole vault crown.

It was fitting that Meyers share in the pole vault title. He was the broad jump champion a year ago, but injuries limited his effectiveness in that event this year. Unable to survive the preliminaries in the broad jump, he proved his championship stature by coming through in the pole vault.

Other champions were Ed Bailey of Harvard in the hammer, Jan Sikorsky of USC in the javelin, where he won on his last throw, Tony Watson of Oklahoma in the broad jump, Jim Dupree of Southern Illinois in the 880, Dave Weill of Stanford in the discus, Kermit Alexander of UCLA in the triple jump, and Pat Clohessy of Houston, for the second straight year, in the three-mile.

GARGANTUAN GUBNER—New York University's huge Gary Gubner heaves 16-pound shot 61 feet 4½ inches for top laurels in the 68th annual Penn Relays Carnival. It was the first time anyone had ever surpassed the 60-foot mark in the historic Penn Relays.

THE EAST

By PHIL PEPE

Sports Writer, The New York World-Telegram & Sun

Eastern collegiate track and field for 1962-63 is a potpourri of individual talent rather than team strength. In defiance of algebraic principles, the East proves the parts are greater than the whole because there are no pretenses that any of its members can hope to compete with Oregon, USC and other national powers in team depth.

Instead, the East will have individual stars ready to take on all comers in man-for-man battles.

Not even Villanova, Eastern ambassador of good track last year, can hope to make a national splash. The Wildcats will be without Frank Budd and Paul Drayton, who personally accounted for half of Villanova's points in last year's Nationals.

But Jumbo Elliott's crew has won the IC4A title five times in the last six years to retire the championship cup and figures to start on new crockery this year even without Budd and Drayton.

They still have steeplechaser Pat Traynor, pole vaulter Rolando Cruz, javelin thrower Doug Kerr (235), shotputter Billy Joe (60-6), two-miler Vic Zwolak (8:58.9), hurdlers Charlie Hammock and Bob Coffil, and new blood in sophomores Tom Sullivan, Marty Ferko, Donald Webster and Noel Carroll.

Webster is a potential sprint and 440 champ, with an emphasis on the latter. A 46.8 man in high school, Sullivan holds a schoolboy 4:03.5 mile and could become the class of his division. Carroll came from Ireland, sure and he did, along with Ron Delany for last year's indoor season and stayed to enroll at Villanova. He and Ferko are half milers and good ones.

Traynor accomplished a difficult double by winning the National Collegiate steeplechase in a record 8:48.6 and finishing fourth in the three-mile.

Cruz is in the thick of a three-pronged vault attack on 16 feet and a battle for Eastern honors that could catapult the winner into a national championship. Cruz and John Belitza of Maryland tied for the IC4A title at 15-6 (a record). Belitza gained a first place tie in the NCAA with 15-8¾.

But the best vaulter of all could be Dick Plymale, a fibre glass Cadet at West Point and maybe the first 16-footer of the crewcuts. He's done 15-9¾, but faded out of the NCAA picture.

Gary Gubner of NYU is probably the best bet in the land for a title since the only collegian to beat him (Dallas Long) is gone. They'll have to go upwards of 64 feet to beat Gubner and who can do it? Gubner also holds the East's discus hopes. He was fifth in last year's Nationals.

The rest of the section is liberally sprinkled with title contenders. Georgetown boasts half-miler John Reilly (1:47.6) and sophomore Ed Duchini. Fordham comes back with Frank Tomeo (1:49.6) and newcomer Dan Shedrick.

Morgan State returns collegiate 440 champ Hubie Brown (46.9) and hurdler John Bethea and Maryland State's Russ Rogers is a hurdle threat.

Mile prospects include Cornell's Steve Machooka from Kenya, who did 4:10.6 with little training last year. Yale's Bobby Mack rates a call as does Larry Rawson, Boston College by way of merry old England, a 4:07.1 miler.

Jim Keefe from little Central Connecticut merits recognition off his 14:11.4 three-mile. Yale has a replacement for Jay Luck, they hope, in Wendell Motley, a one-man show. Dartmouth has a sprint hopeful in Jerry Ashworth and NYU hopes for 440 strength from Hamilton McRae.

THE SOUTH

By JIM MINTER

Sports Writer, The Atlanta Journal

Southeastern Conference track long dominated by the flying Bengals of Louisiana State, with an occasional burst of glory from Florida, Auburn and Alabama, is apparently in for a new era.

This year it looks like a crisp four-team race shaping up in the Dixie Dozen. Two years ago, Louisiana State was upset by always dangerous Auburn, and last year the Bengals were shocked at the finish by Mississippi State, which won its first track title in the 30-year history of the conference.

Now, Mississippi State, Louisiana State, Auburn and Alabama can be lumped together as the elite of the sprawling league and not one of the four can be established as a solid favorite.

Things are much different in the Atlantic Coast Conference, where Maryland maintains a strangle-hold on the top rung. No challenger is even in sight for the powerful Terrapins, who have both individual stars and necessary depth.

Like Mississippi State in the Southeastern Conference, Furman in the Southern Conference rose from obscurity last year, winning the loop title for the first time. Chuck Rohe, the man who put the Furman powerhouse together, has left to accept the track coaching job at Tennessee, but he left enough behind him for another championship contender. (And, incidentally, you can look for Tennessee to get moving soon in the Southeastern Conference. Rohe has signed 22 prep stars to track grants-in-aid.)

Louisiana State will pin its hopes in the Southeastern Conference heavily on Billy Hardin, fine hurdler and son of former LSU star Slats Hardin, an Olympic man. Jerry Smith of Auburn is a probable champion in the 440 and Jim Wood of Mississippi State defends his 220 crown.

Mississippi State has a fine middle distance man in Jim Wood; Charlie Moseley of Alabama could take both the broad jump and high hurdles at the conference meet, and teammate James Dillard defends his high jump crown.

Auburn, coached by old fox Wilbur Hutsell could be the nearest thing to a favorite in the Southeastern Conference family. The Tigers are strong with Gary Ray in the 100 and 220, backed up by sophomore Bill McCormick, who was well under 10 seconds as a freshman.

Furman last year won eight titles at the Southern Conference meet in outscoring defending champion Citadel by a fat 15 points. All eight champions are back, including Dave Segal, the English sprinter, in the 220, Dennis Patterson in the mile and Bill Keel in the pole vault.

The only fight in the Southern will be for second place, with Citadel, Virginia Military, William and Mary, and improving West Virginia putting up the best arguments for runner-up honors.

Maryland lost some top stars after walking away with the Atlantic Coast crown, but returns enough to take the title in a trot. Dick Smith, 880 champion and John Belitz, the pole vault king, graduated, and so did Mark Wells, the ace miler. Don Stauffer, double winner in the 220 and 440, returns.

The Atlantic Coast Conference's best bet for national recognition, however, resides with North Carolina junior Tom Clark, who won the high jump at 6-5 $\frac{3}{4}$ and has reached two inches higher in indoor competition. Duke returns Dick Gesswein, who won the shot with a heave of 55-5.

Maryland State's seven-man team, paced by triple-hurdle winner Russ Rogers, won the first NCAA College Division Atlantic Coast Regional meet last year at Virginia State, and will be favored to repeat in 1963 while acting as host.

TIME TO SPARE—Michigan's Ergas Leps earns his sixth Penn Relays watch as he anchors Wolverine two-mile relay team to stunning come-from-behind win over Fordham. Leps bested the Rams' Frank Tomco in the stretch with a 1:51.8 anchor half-mile.

THE MIDDLE WEST

By JACK CLOWSER

Sports Writer, The Cleveland Press

Just as in 1962, the Big Ten championship, both indoors and out, will find Michigan and Wisconsin as prime contenders. The sophomore-laden Badgers reached marked peaks to upset the Wolverines indoors in 1962, but Michigan made a strong comeback to capture the outdoor crown.

In the Mid-American Conference, Western Michigan has become a real powerhouse. The Broncos murdered the other teams in the 1962 Mid-Am meet.

Michigan lost Ergas Leps, a tremendous scorer for three years; Bennie McRae, an outstanding hurdler, and conference pole vault champ Rod Denhart.

But Coach Don Canham has back Charles Aquino, the league 660 victor outdoors and 1000-yard champion indoors; vaulters in Steve Overton and George Wade; a crack 880-mile man in Dave Hayes; sprinter Mac Hunter, broad jumper Dave Raimey, distance ace Jim Neahusen and weight men in Roger Schmitt and Ernst Soudek. Top newcomers include Sam Dyke, Dennis Jones and Dan Hughes in the 440-880 and 56-foot shotputter George Puce.

Wisconsin has a strong nucleus of veterans, including Elmars Ezerins, who captured both the shot and discus last spring; Bill Smith the indoor dash king; Larry Howard, who won both hurdles indoors; Don Hendrickson, indoor shotput victor, and the brilliant Elzie Higginbottom (46.7 in the 440).

Wisconsin's middle distance crew is solid with Tom Creagan and Tor Reitan, and an exceptional sophomore, Al Montalbano (1:12.6 for the 600 indoors) will help the relay team. Soph high jumper Bill Holden (6-8½) may be the Big Ten's best.

Michigan State, hit hard by injuries last year, has a potent array. If John Parker can stay whole, he's a superb 440 man and broad jumper. Bob Moreland, who ran 9.5 as a freshman, adds to the strong sprinting array led by gutty little Sherman Lewis and hurdler Wilmer Johnson.

The Spartans have a fine sophomore shotputter in Tom Herbert, a 59-foot man, and two good milers in Don Castle and Dick Sharkey.

Iowa has middle distance strength with the brilliant Bill Frazier (1:48.1), Ralph Trimble (1:52.6) and Gary Fisher (1:53.7 and 4:13.8). The mile relay will be tough with Frazier, Gary Hollingsworth, Roger Kerr and Scott Rocker. Cloyd Webb is a 170-foot discus man.

Lack of depth will plague Indiana again. Gene Graham is a 1:52.3 half-miler. Charles Umbarger ran 9:13 for two miles last year, and Ted Jackson jumped 24 ft. 4 in. Top man is high jumper Cornelius Miller, (6-8).

Ohio State has little except the great broad jumper, Paul Warfield (26-0) Purdue has Dave Adams (9.4 and 20.6) and sophomore Al Washington (9.5).

Dick and Charles Morrow, 14-6 pole vaulters, are back for Minnesota, as is shotputter Wayne Steffenhagen. Phil Renslow in the weights, and Bart Uplinger in the 440 are good sophomores. Elliott Williams, Northwestern captain, has run the lows in 23.8 and jumped 24-6. He'll be supported by Barry Townsend (9.7 and 21.6) and sophs Tom Thomas (48.4) and Glenn Cothorn (1:55).

Loaded Western Michigan has fine sprinters Joel Johnson and Gay Barham and 4:09 milers Dick Greene and Jerry Bashaw; hurdler Jim McNutt (14.7), high jumper Alonzo Littlejohn (6-9) and vaulter Dave Underly (14-6).

Fast-rising Ohio U. has Darnell Mitchell (1:49.2 and 4:12.3), Ray Fleming (9:16) and newcomers Barry Sugden (1:51.4) and Mel Orr (9.6 and 20.7). Miami's Scott Tyler is a brilliant sprinter and low hurdler—9.5 and 22.6.

Notre Dame will have more depth and in soph Bill Boyle is a genuine sparkler who will run well under 47 for the quarter mile.

KANSAS RELAYS WINNERS—Bill Dotson, Kansas All-American miler (left) and Anthony Watson, Oklahoma's collegiate broad jump king, anchor winning four-mile (1:53.1) and quarter-mile (40.8) relay teams, respectively, at 1962 Kansas Relays.

THE MISSOURI VALLEY

By BOB HURT

Sports Editor, The Topeka Capital-Journal

Pulled along in the vortex of tornadic Anthony Watson, Oklahoma won its second straight Big Eight title last year. Triple-winner Watson is back but Nebraska mounts a strong challenge in 1963. And, the level of competition should be up a notch with winners in 9 of 14 individual events returning.

Returning champions are: Oklahoma's Watson (26-½ for National Collegiate broad jump title, 9.4 and 20.1 in the sprints); Oklahoma's Richard Inman (58-10 in shotput); Nebraska's Mike Fleming (4:05 in mile) and Ron Moore (14.1 in high hurdles); Colorado's Bob Griffith (9:11.1 in two mile); Oklahoma State's Preston Holsinger (14-6½ in pole vault) and Iowa State's Larry Eilert (6-7½ in high jump).

To this assortment will be added these promising sophomores: Kansas State's Bob Floerke (234 in javelin); Missouri's Dennis Browne (171-10 discus); Colorado's Leander Durley (6-10 high jump) and Jim Miller (22.6 in lows) and Kansas' Gale Sayers (24-10 in broad jump).

Rangy (6-4½ by 202) Watson and Inman give Oklahoma a good start toward the throne room. Half-miler Richard Neff and hurdler Steve Morelock, both oft-injured last year, will help. So will rookies like Preston Bagley (9.8 in 100), Preston Smith (51-0 in shot) and Ed McQuarters (50-3 in shot).

In addition to Fleming and Moore, Nebraska has Ray Stevens (4:12 in mile, 1:53 in 880); Ray Knaub (9.4 and 20.6), Fred Wilke (14.3 and 23.1 in hurdles) and broadjumper Vic Brooks (24-8).

Shunted out of the spotlight by Olympian Ted Woods, Oklahoma State's Charles Strong (46.3 in 440) bids for national attention. So might stablemate Mickey Baller, a transfer who vaults near the 15-foot level.

Missouri lacks depth, but should be tough on relays circuit with Greg Pelster (1:49.7), Jerry McFadden (4:15.6) and freshman Harry Ray (4:17.4). Navy returnee Cal Groff (14.1 in HH) bolsters Missouri.

It appears a lean year for one-time kingpin Kansas, which has depth but few standouts. Best are half-miler Kirk Hagan and Tonnie Coane, both capable of bettering 1:50.

Area small colleges will produce at least two standouts in Omaha's Roger Sayers, a 9.4 sprinter, and Emporia State's John Camien, 4:09.7 in the mile.

Tulsa, champion the last two years in the Missouri Valley, is due to be challenged by Drake in 1963.

Among the top Valley performers back are Tulsa's Dave Smoot (14-2½); North Texas' Bill Argo (9.5 and 21.2); Wichita's Ron Groves (48.8) Drake's Marv Gilliam (24-8½). Freshman standouts include North Texas' Carl Bouser (218-0), Cincinnati's Carl Burgess (6-7), Drake's Jack Kragie (9:27) and Pat Hansel (48-7). Drake also has a sterling transfer, Jim Ashmore (14-0).

To grab its customary share of national limelight, the midlands must look primarily to Watson, swift Oklahoma junior and a veteran of Olympic competition. Seldom has the conference seen such an impressive one-man show as he put on in the outdoor meet. He equalled the conference record in the 100 and bettered marks in the 220 and broad jump. All were disallowed because of a wind just over the allowable limit. He did get in on one legitimate record by anchoring OU to 40.7 in the 440 relay.

Fame for the Oklahoma City youngster has come primarily in the broad jump. He is reigning National Collegiate champion and owns a peak leap of 26-1¼, registered in placing second to Ralph Boston in the national AAU meet.

THE SOUTHWEST

By DICK MOORE

Sports Writer, The Fort Worth Star-Telegram

Two glittering sophomores, Billy Foster of SMU and Ted Nelson of Texas A&M, should lift their teams into contention with Baylor, the defending champion, and Texas for the 1963 Southwest Conference title.

Foster, who glides along like Bobby Morrow, won the conference freshman 100 and 220 in 9.6 and 20.7, while Nelson powered to a 47.3 in the quarter. Nelson had a wind-aided furlong clocking.

Aiding SMU's cause will be SWC 880 champion, Brian Bolton (1:51.2), Jim Rorabaugh (1:51.9), SWC 440 runner-up Jimmy Langham (47.5), Paul Holley (47.4) and hurdler Bob Johnson (14.4 and 23.7).

A&M will greet three returning SWC titlists—Danny Roberts (57-1½ shot), Terry Robinson (165-5 discus) and E. L. Ener (9:17.9 two-mile).

Baylor lost heavily by graduation but has a promising sophomore in weightman Jim Lancaster (54-11½ and 160-0), SWC sprint champion Bill Kemp (9.4 and 20.4), and runner-up Glynn Fields. A question mark is Frank Mazza (57-½ shot put), who hurt his hand in the conference meet and underwent an operation.

Texas, a perennial title contender, is again shy on sprint help but strong in distance events with soph Preston Davis (1:52.7 and 4:13.0), junior Loy Gunter, SWC mile king (4:19) and a best of 1:50.0 in the 880, 400-meter hurdler James Cooper (53.4) and vaulter Steve Guynes (15-1).

No SWC team will have more outstanding field performers than Rice with pole vaulters Fred Hanson (15-6½) and Warren Brattloff (15-2½), SWC varsity and freshman champions, respectively, and javelin champion Ed Red (235-6½). TCU has two-time SWC high jump titlist Jacky Upton (6-8) and milers Marvin Silliman and Nolan Brawley. Texas Tech must rely on sophomores like Jerry Brock (4:20.3 mile) and David Bailey (22.4 low hurdles).

Outside the Southwest Conference, Abilene Christian, Texas Southern and Houston are again loaded with talent.

Sprinter Dennis Richardson, 1962 Penn Relays winner and multi-talented Jerry Dyes head AAC's returnees. Richardson had best time of 9.4 and 20.9 while Dyes was the national collegiate runner-up in the javelin at 246-0. Dyes hit over 240-5 in eight meets. He also broad jumped 25-3½. The 1961 National Collegiate Steeplechase champ, John Lawler (9:01.0) and his Aussie teammate Denis Moore (8:50.8) return along with Bobby Hargrave (4:12.2).

Bright newcomers are Lynn Saunders (47.3) and Gary Gurger (1:53.0) Ray Saddler, who ran second in the US-USSR 440, and had a best time of 46.2, will be joined by sprinters Homer Jones (9.4 and 20.5) and T. J. Bell (9.6 and 20.6) to make Texas Southern strong in the shorter races. Maurice Hobson (1:50.1) and Walter Hunt (1:51.7) are back in the 880.

Houston is loaded with top sophomores like Boyd Timmons (9.4 and 20.6), Laurie Elliott (1:53.2, 4:07.7 and 9:13.0), plus veterans like Robert Cozens (1:50.8) and Geoff Walker (9:11.8). Al Laurence, injured last season, is due back. He had best time of 4:09.6 and 8:48 in 1961.

Bill Miller of McMurry, who placed in the NCAA broad jump, is out to better his all-time best of 25-9. Howard Payne has discus thrower Larry Nettleship (170-2) and freshman Bill Thomas, a miler from Scotland who has a 4:10.

Colin Ridgway, Lamar Tech's 7-foot high jumper, is just a junior and he'll get support from Barry Boecher (4:14) and Anthony Guillory (54-11). Texas A&I has Bob Shirey, a 25-foot broad jumper and Texas Western boasts two promising freshman in hurdler Fred Brocker and broad jumper Herb Stevens.

WHICH WAY IS UP?—Apparently caught betwixt and between, Rice's Fred Hansen is really on the way up, and over, the Drake Relays' pole vault bar, 15 feet 3½ inches above the sawdust pit at the early-season meet at Des Moines, Iowa.

THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS

By DAVE SCHULTHESS

Sports Information Director, Brigham Young University

The formation of a new athletic alliance—the Western Athletic Conference—won't alter the strength of the individual Rocky Mountain schools. But the balance of power in the area, thanks to the acquisition of Arizona and Arizona State, should swing south by a few degrees.

The blending of the Arizona schools with former Skyline powers New Mexico and Brigham Young could produce an all-out dogfight for the first Western Athletic Conference championship.

A pre-season evaluation would have to give the nod to ASU, with Arizona, New Mexico and BYU pressing.

The Cougars, undisputed champions of the old Skyline, could swing it with their patented track and field depth.

Idaho State, under durable Dubby Holt, should be the top independent.

Arizona State appears to have a corner on the thoroughbred talent, with the likes of quartermiler Ullis Williams (45.8) and sprinters Henry Carr (20.1) and Hubie Watson (9.5).

Returning also is the Arizona State mile relay team which posted a 3:05.7 tour last year. In addition, the Sun Devils will have two pole vaulters of 16-foot potential, John Rose and George Davies. Coach Senon (Baldy) Castillo will have two good hurdlers in Jim Tucker and Darrell Jansen.

Top returnees at Arizona include two-time All American discus man Karl Johnstone (182-11 $\frac{1}{2}$) and mid-distance man Jack Hudson (1:50.2 and 4:11.5). Sprinter Larry Dunn will be the Wildcats' big loss. Art Gardenswartz shows potential of getting in the 47-second class in the 440 this season.

Matching Ullis Williams in the thoroughbred class is New Mexico's Adolph Plummer, 440 flash. But Plummer, even with help from broad jumper Ken Medley and pole vaulter Don Batie, both of whom placed in the conference meet, may not be able to offset losses of the weight men who graduated.

Absence of depth may keep the Lobos among the also-rans.

BYU's losses look severe each year, but coach Clarence Robinson always manages to fill in the voids with top newcomers.

Quarter-miler Guy DeHart graduated and miler Ray Smith (4:10.3) was called on a mission, to mention a few who are gone.

But Kent Nance (who leaped 24-8 $\frac{1}{2}$ in the broad jump), Ron Mickle (who hurled the discus 180-3) and a pair of high jumpers who soar 6-8 or better are back. In addition, the Cougars will have pole vaulter Jim Williams, (who set the conference record at 14-9 $\frac{5}{8}$), back in the fold.

Both Utah and Utah State will lack depth, but can field top performers in some events. Utah State's discus thrower, Glenn Passe, who had a best mark of 190-9 $\frac{1}{2}$, is among the Aggie losses. The Utes lose hurdler Blaine Lindgren, but will have returning Bob Hunter in the 440 (47.4) and Kregge Christenson in javelin (234-10) plus miler Gary Lambert.

Wyoming, the lone member of the Western Athletic Conference that needs the most up-grading, will be starting from scratch with only weight man Bud Spicer and sprinter Louis Pfrangle returning lettermen.

The Cowboys again will be without a home track this year; the new field will not be ready until after the season is completed.

At Fort Collins, the picture is about the same. Del Hessel, who ran a 1:49.7 in the National Collegiate is back, as is distance runner Gerry Clyde.

The first College Division National Collegiate Track and Field Championships will be held June 7-8, 1963, at the University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.

Oregon gave the home folks plenty to cheer about by winning the National Collegiate crown at Eugene last spring with 85 points, fourth highest score in the meet's history. The Ducks don't figure to score as many in the 1963 meet, but still have enough to be considered pre-season favorites. Coach Bill Bowerman lost only 30 points, all of them via graduation.

As usual, Oregon's strength is in the middle and long distances, where sub-four-minute miler Keith Forman is the top returnee. Helping him out are Archie San Romani (1:49.5, 4:03.1), Vic Reeve (4:03, 8:47.1) and steeplechasers Mike Lehner (8:54.4) and Clayton Steinke (9:03.1).

Lehner was third and Steinke fourth in the National Collegiate's 3000-meter steeplechase last year, while Forman was fourth in the mile.

Oregon also has extraordinary depth in the javelin where John Burns, Ron Gomez and Les Tipton all have surpassed 235 feet. Canadian Harry Jerome, collegiate 220 champion, is back along with junior Mel Renfro, who sprints, hurdles and broad jumps—all of them well.

Southern California dropped to third in the NCAA meet a season ago, but should do better under new coach Verne Wolfe. The top returnee is collegiate javelin champion Jan Sirkorsky and the Trojans also are well fortified in the hurdles with Rex Cawley, Brian Polkinghorne and Bob Pierce.

The top Trojan newcomers are sophomore Lew Hoyt, a 6-10¾ high jumper, and junior college transfers Larry Stuart, a 256-2 javelin thrower, and sprinter Dave Morris, who has run 9.5 and 20.3.

Stanford was a surprising fifth in the 1962 meet and has all of those points coming back. The big man (and he really is big at 6-7½, 270 pounds) is Dave Weill, national collegiate discus champion and record-holder.

Indian coach Payton Jordan also has back Dan Moore, who was fourth in the National Collegiate's broad jump with a leap of 25-9½.

Injuries cut deeply into Oregon State last spring and if Coach Sam Bell's men can stay healthy the Beavers will be among the best. Dale Story, who holds the collegiate 5,000-meter record, is the top man returning.

Another school hampered by injuries was Occidental, which has two of the nation's top 440-yard hurdlers in Dixon Farmer and Ron Whitney. Both missed the National Collegiate meet because of injuries. Also returning is Steve Haas, who can go with the best from 100 to 440 yards.

San Jose State lost most of its usual sprint depth through graduation, but Coach Bud Winter still has strength in other departments, especially the middle distances, where junior Ben Tucker (1:47.8, 4:03.6) leads the pack. Another good one is Jeff Fishback, second in the NCAA steeplechase.
