TUCKERED TROJAN Julio Marin is supported by Southern California teammates after winning National Collegiate three-mile race. The night before, the tiny Costa Rican won the six-mile run to become the meets only double winner.

Proving that depth, even if you have it, isn't always the answer, Southern California capitalized on the brilliance of little Julio Marin and big Rex Cawley to score 61 points to literally run away with the 1963 National Collegiate championship at the University of New Mexico.

The Trojans picked up four first places—two of them by Marin and one each by Cawley and high jumper Lew Hoyt—to win their 22nd team title in the 42-year history of the meet. They finished 19 points ahead of runnerup Stanford's 41-point total, while Orgeon, 1962 champion, finished third with 41 points, and Arizona State was fourth with 39.

George McFadden

Marin set the USC pattern early when he sprinted home first in the 24-lap, six-mile grind that closed the first night's action. The tiny, 127-pound sophomore from Costa Rica was timed in 30:32.9. It was the first time the long race was ever run in the Nationals.

The following night, Marin became the meet's only double winner, and the crowd's favorite, when he won the three-mile event in 14:24.9. Then Marin, "The Bean" to his teammates, capped his great show with a fourth-place finish in the 3,000-meter steeplechase, the final event on the card.

Cawley's performance was equally impressive, as he finished a strong second to Arizona State's great Ullis Williams in the 440 dash, then set an American, collegiate and NCAA meet record in the 440 intermediate hurdles in a blazing 49.6. Considering he had been timed in 46.1 behind Williams' brilliant 45.8 in the open quarter, Cawley's double ranks as a truly excellent achievement by one of the better athletes to appear in the 1963 Nationals.

One of the many other outstanding performances came from Washington's Brian Sternberg, who cleared 16-4½ in the pole vault to set a meet record. The lanky Husky sophomore, whose tragic trampoline accident just a few weeks later may have ended his career, was the only entry to clear 16 feet. He scaled 16-1 on his first try; went over his winning height on the second attempt, then came close on three tries at 16-9½.

Another meet record was set by Arizona State's Henry Carr, who won the 220 in 20.5, surpassing the former mark of 20.7, set by Ed Collymore of Villanova in 1958. Both Sternberg and Carr had better marks pending prior to their National Championship performances.

The fact that Carr equalled the listed world mark in the finals was somewhat anticlimatic and went relatively unnoticed. What was noticed was that Carr's greatness pulled Stanford sophomore Larry Questad to a 20.6 second place finish. His best time previously was 21.4.

Questad and Carr tangled with Purdue's Nate Adams and Pittsburgh's Bill Del Vecchio in the 100 finals which was so close the judges had to study photo-timer pictures to determine the order.

Questad was picked for first, Carr second, Adams third and Del Vecchio fourth, but all were timed in exactly 9.7.

Thus Carr and Questad were highly instrumental in the strong showings made by their respective teams. Questad's first place was matched by teammate Dave Weill's successful defense of his ruscus title with a toss of 181-2½.

Carr's first place was equalled by Williams in the 440 dash and Frank Covelli in the javelin throw to account for most of Arizona State's points.

Covelli threw the javelin 257-8½ on his first throw of the competition, then held on as everyone else took a shot at him.

The more than 20,000 fans who turned out for the three night meet—the first tri-session NCAA track program in history—were treated to many other outstanding performances, too.

The broad jump prelims provided some of the best competition in the meet. Three men, Clifton Mayfield (Central St., O.), McMurry's Bill Miller and Ohio State's Paul Warfield, all bettered 26 feet.

Mayfield (26-7) won the event, followed by Miller and Warfield.

The biggest disappointment of the meet came to Tom O'Hara of Loyola University of Chicago, who finished first in the mile in 4:04.8—a highly creditable mark at Albuquerque's 5,000-plus altitude—only to be disqualified for cutting to the pole too quickly.

Morgan Groth of Oregon State was given first place after he crossed the finish line in 4:05.3.

As far as team strength is concerned, the most aggravating disappointment came to Oregon when the defending champs' Mel Renfro injured his knee in the broad jump preliminaries and was forced to withdraw from the meet.

Other 1963 individual champions were: Robert Green, high hurdles, from Southern Illinois; Oregon State's Norm Hoffman in the 880; Villanova's Vic Zwolak in the steeplechase; Norman Tate, triple jump, from North Carolina College; New York University's Gary Gubner in the shot put and George Desnoyers of Boston College in the hammer throw.

THE EAST

By PHIL PEPE

Sports Writer, The New York World-Telegram & Sun

Someday the Mississippi River will run dry, the New York Yankees will finish tenth in the American League, Perry Mason will lose a case and Villanova will be dethroned as king of the hill in Eastern collegiate track and field. But not now, Virginia.

Phil Pepe

However, this is an Olympic year and while the Wildcats of Jumbo Elliott are odds-on to win again in the IC4A—it will be their seventh championship in eight years—their monopolistic tendencies must take a rumble seat to individual stars shooting for Tokyo.

Interestingly, Villanova could be well represented in the Rising Sun Olympics, but their best bets may be doing their firing against the U.S.

Rolando Cruz, for instance, is a cinch to represent his native Puerto Rico in the pole vault. He's a 16-footer and was runnerup to Brian Sternberg in last year's National championships. And Noel Carroll, a 1:47.5 half miler, will be doing his running for dear, old Ireland.

Off his NCAA steeplechase victory and a best time of 8:53.4, Vic Zwolak may be Uncle Sam's top entry in the Olympic steeplechase and there's chance miler Tom Sullivan will realize his high school potential—4:03.5

Otherwise, sprinters Jerry Krumeich, Marshall Uzzle and Stan Kozlowski, hurdler Larry Livers, middle distance man Marty Ferko, javelin thrower George Reynolds and distance Dave Hyland are good, but only in their own backyard.

When you talk Olympics, the East's cream is NYU's man-mountain shot-putter, Gary Gubner, who could come home with a gold medal or two.

Last year was a disappointing one for Gary, although his 62-5 was good enough to win the NCAA title. But he's done better—64-11—and the story is that he competed with a bad knee, a gift he picked up while weight lifting.

That's the rub on Gubner. Experts say he'd be a cinch for Tokyo gold if he concentrated on shot putting. But gigantic Gary has other ideas. He wants to win an unprecedented Olympic double in the shot and weight lift. If incentive is what Gary needs, he got it last year when he switched from bar bells to wedding bells.

Harvard has a sure pop Olympian in Aggrey Awori, who represented Uganda in Rome. Awori is the Heptagonal champion in the 100 and 200 and may be the greatest track man in Crimson history.

Yale's Wendell Mottley is a quarter miler of note. There may be an Olympic spot for him on the West Indies mile relay team.

Traditionally, the only thing predictable about Olympic teams is that they are unpredictable. Some unknown can come along and steal the thunder of the name boys to make a place for himself.

If that's to happen, it will most likely happen to the following Easterners:

Hubie Brown, Morgan State—a 47.7 quarter miler.

John Bethea—Brown's teammate and an outstanding hurdler.

Sam Perry, Fordham—this lad was simply sensational running indoors as an 18-year old freshman. He had a 6.1 for the 60, then did a 9.4 100 outdoors.

And let's not forget John Uelses, once king of the fiberglass vaulters. The Marine, an ex-Marine now, is eligible to compete for LaSalle College.

By JIM MINTER

Sports Writer, The Atlanta Journal

Once again, the South's finest track team will run under the red and white colors of the University of Maryland. Terrapin coach, Jim Kehoe, after winning eight straight Atlantic Coast Conference indoor and outdoor championships, will make it nine in a row despite the loss of some of last season's outstanding individuals.

Jim Minter

Among the missing will be John Belitza, first collegian to clear 16 feet in the pole vault; Chris Staffer, record setter in the 440-yard run; Dick Smith, holder of the ACC 880-yard record; and Jim Bland, the fine sprinter and high jumper.

Last year, Kehoe and Maryland soared to the heights on the performances of outstanding individuals. This time it will require more of a team effort, but Maryland has the depth to get the job done.

Top performers for the Terps are expected to be junior Mike Cole, who has done better than 24-7 in the broad jump; sprinter Rodney Lambert; ACC two-mile champion Tom Kreuger; discus thrower Olaf Drozdob; Ramsey Thomas, middle distancer; 15-foot pole vaulter Steuart Markley and shot putter Walt Samora. Bob Vermillion and Dick Sheer are a couple of solid point-getters in the hurdles.

Behind the Terrapins, come perennially powerful Duke, North Carolina and Clemson, who are expected to battle it out for second place. Duke has one outstanding javelin thrower in football fullback Mike Curtis and Clemson has a fine jumper and sprinter in Jimmy Wynn.

The SEC will once again be dominated by long-time powerhouse Louisiana State, but look out for Tennessee, which promises to be an exciting newcomer as the building program under coach Chuck Rhoe gets underway. Mississippi State is a smart choice for third place, with Alabama, Florida and Auburn fighting it out for what's left over.

LSU, however, was hit heavily by graduation. So was Alabama, where versatile Charles Mosely picked up his sheepskin. Auburn, usually a top contender, but running for the first year without veteran coach Wilbur Hutsell at the helm, also lost crack sprinters Gary Ray and Ken Winter.

One of the top men for LSU will be Billy Hardin, a superb hurdler, sprinter, relay runner and chip off the old block. Hardin is the son of former LSU Olympic champion, Slats Hardin.

Tennessee ran off with the Conference freshman championship in last year's championship meet and could possibly give LSU some fast competition if the sophomores come through as expected.

The Southern Conference is expected to produce a new champion, since defending titlist, Furman, won't be as strong as a year ago. Most of last year's powerful squad has graduated, including Englishman Dave Segal. Among the returnees is Fleetwood Loustalot, one of the better hurdlers in the nation and the defending champ in the Conference's highs and lows.

William and Mary or West Virginia may be the teams ready to step into the throne room if Furman vacates. Furman still has enough left over to make a race for the title and Citadel, also, will be in the running.

THE MIDDLE WEST

By JACK CLOWSER

Sports Writer, The Cleveland Press

Add the name of Michigan State to those who will challenge strongly for Big Ten 1964 championships, both indoors and out. Wisconsin and Michigan will remain in contention, but outdoor titlist Iowa has slipped a little.

Among the independents, Southern Illinois is strongest, and Western Michigan should continue to dominate the Mid-American Conference.

Iowa, which nosed out Wisconsin by one point for the Western Conference outdoor crown, is thin in numbers but strong in the middle distances. The Hawkeye mile relay team will be tough again, with Bill Frazier, Gary Hollingsworth and Gary Richards returning from the foursome that did 3:11.2.

Wisconsin has Elzie Higginbottom, 46.3 quarter miler; 6-10 high jumper Bill Holden; veteran hurdlers Gene Dix and Larry Howard; Don Henrickson, a 55-5/8 shotputter; Lou Holland, 9.6 sprinter and hurdler Gerald Beatty.

Michigan, which tied Iowa at 43-all for the 1963 indoor championship, has good depth as usual. Principal holdovers include Ernie Soudek in the discus and shot;

Jack Clowser

Al Ammerman, 6-8 jumper; Roger Schmitt, 56-6 Big Ten champion shotputter; Dave Hayes, 4:12 miler; Kent Bernard, 47.5 quarter miler.

Michigan State is reinforced by an exceptional bunch of newcomers. Jim Garrett has sprint times of 6.2, 9.5, 21.3 and 42 seconds. Fred McKay is a 6-5 jumper but much better in the hurdles. Dick Sharkey has run one, two and three miles in 4:14, 9:15 and 14:02. Mike Martens is a 1:52 half-miler and Eric Zemper has done the mile in 4:13. Coming back from the '62 varsity are Bob Moreland, Big Ten indoor spring champion, who has a 9.3 outdoors.

Illinois has Dave Becker in the 440 and 660; Mile Holbrook, a 1:52.5 man; Trenton Jackson, 9:5 and 21.1 sprinter.

Nate Adams, Big Ten outdoor sprint champ is set for his final year and is reinforced by Al Washington with hurdler Jim Moore another "name" entry.

Minnesota is down a bit, but still has Ray Miller, 1:52; Dick Morrow, 14-8 vaulter; Burton Ewing in the hurdles, and two fair 440 men. Ohio State should improve, with Bob Neutzling, a 15-foot vaulter, coming up from the frosh; Guntis Kalnins, a potential 9:10 two miler, a good sprinting quarter-miler in Bill Heffelfinger, and the superb Paul Warfield in the broad jump and hurdles.

Indiana, plagued by injuries last year, will be a bit better. Cornelius Miller, 6-8 high jumper, is best of the lettermen. Good sophes are John Brooks, 48 second 440 man; Art Angotti in the 880; Randy Weddle in the dashes. Northwestern's best are Tom Thomas, Jim Albrecht, Bob Picker and Jim Harris.

For the last two years, Southern Illinois has outscored all midwest teams in the NCAA championships, and should do even better in '63. Bob Green, National hurdles champion, returns as do Bill Cornell, 1:48.2 and 4:00.3; and distancer Brian Turner. Jim Stewart, 9:5 and 21.3, heads a fine sprint corps.

As usual, Western Michigan is loaded in the distances with Bruce Burston, 4:08 and 9:07; Neil Browne and Mike Gallagher.

Notre Dame has balance in all but the weights. Bill Boyle missed last indoor season, but is ready for a big year. Also returning are hurdler Pete Whitehouse and distance men Frank Carver and Bill Clark.

THE MISSOURI VALLEY

By BOB HENTZEN

Sports Writer, The Topeka Capital-Journal

A four-way scramble for honors among Missouri, Colorado, Oklahoma and defending champion Kansas looms in the Big Eight during the 1964 track and field campaign. And Big Eight athletes figure to be back in the national headlines after a so-so showing in 1963.

Bob Hentzen

One reason is the return of Oklahoma's Olympian, Anthony Watson, a scholastic casualty last year, who made up the deficiencies in summer school. His credentials are impressive—26½ in the broad jump, 9.4, 20.1 in the sprints.

Missouri picks up a miler of note in Robin Lingle, a transfer from Army, who won the Glenn Cunningham Mile at the Kansas Relays. His bests in 1963, when he ran unattached, were 4:04.8 in the mile and 1:49.1 in the 880.

Kansas State boasts of a dandy javelin thrower in junior Bill Floerke.

Greater things are expected, too, from a pair of Colorado juniors. Hurdler Jim Miller broke the NCAA record with a 36.2 in the 330 intermediates and high jumper Leander Durley soared 6-10½ for a league indoor record.

Last year was supposed to be a lean one for perennial power Kansas, but coach Bill Easton brought the Jayhawks to a peak for the league meet and they won their 12th outdoor title in 15 years. Kansas will be strong in the distances, where Harold Hedley, Paul Acevedo and George Cabrera return; the pole vault with Floyd Manning (15-2½) and the jumps with Glenn Martin, Bob Looney and Bill Chambers. The Jayhawks pick up help where they need it most—the sprints, with Bob Hanson, who clocked 9.5 as a freshman.

Missouri, runnerup in 1963, should improve with the return of Bill Rawson, a 1:50.8 half miler, and 1959 hurdle king Cal Groff, back from Navy duty. Missouri also picks up Gene Crews, a 64-foot prep shot putter.

Colorado's strength lies in Miller, who sprints as well as hurdles; dashman Dick Burns (9.6 and 20.8); and distance ace Bob Griffith.

After sagging to sixth in 1963, Oklahoma should be back among the leaders because of Watson and newcomers Arthur Younger (13.9 in the highs and 25-2 in the broad jump, vaulter Jim Farrell (15-6), 9.5 sprinter Frank Deramus, broad jumper Vincent Johnson (24-8), and 6-7 high jumper John Nunley.

Nebraska will have trouble matching its third place finish of 1963. The top returnees are Gil Gebo (47.8 in 440) and triple jump champion Victor Brooks (47-3). Oklahoma State's top hands are vaulters Preston Holsinger (15-5) and Mick Baller (15-3½) and high jumper Russ Laverty (6-7½).

Missouri Valley defending champ, Drake, appears a good cut above the field. Coach Bob Karns has four sub 4:17 milers headed by Jack Kragie (4:13.8).

Wichita probably has the best athlete in the Valley in Cal Elmore. As a sophomore, he achieved an amazing triple, winning the 880, mile and two-mile. His best time in the mile is 4:02.2. Other impressive Valley performers are North Texas' Cal Bowser in the javelin (230-2) and Cincinnati's Al Nelson and Bob Howell, football halfbacks who finished 1-2 in the dashes.

Emporia State features John Camien (4:00.7 in the mile and 1:50.9 in the 880) and Rich Viniski (9.5 in the 100); Omaha has Roger Sayers (9.4 in the 100) and Terry Williams (9.5 and 20.7); Fort Hays has Bob Schmidt (6-7 high jumper); and Washburn boasts Irwin (24-5½ broad jumper).

THE SOUTHWEST

By DICK MOORE

Sports Writer, The Fort Worth Star-Telegram

A record-setting trio of Rice's Ed Red and Warren Brattloff and Texas A&M's Danny Roberts plan return engagements in the Southwest Conference this spring but they'll likely be upstaged by last year's schoolboy sensation, shot putter Randy Matson.

Dick Moore

Now a freshman at Texas A&M, Matson brought along the enviable credentials of being the state's first 60-footer when he reached 60-6 in the United States Federation meet. He's only the second school boy to crack 60 feet and last summer represented the U.S. in meets in Poland, Germany and England.

Matson and quartermiler Ray Saddler of Texas Southern are the State's most promising Olympic candidates although SMU's upcoming sophomore, John Roderick, is a threat in both the hurdles and sprints.

Saddler faded to fourth in the NCAA finals although he owned a season best of 46.3. Roderick posted a wind-aided 9.4 and 20.5 in winning the freshman sprints and recorded a 14.3 in the highs.

After winning three Southwest Conference championships in the past four years for Baylor, Jack Patterson shifted to Texas and was replaced by his former sprinter, Clyde Hart. The cupboard is still stocked at Baylor but Rice, runner-up to Baylor, and Texas A&M will be the co-favorites and SMU a strong contender with the Bears.

For the second straight year, Texas A&M's Roberts rewrote the conference record books in the weights. He tossed the shot 57 feet, nine inches and the discus 177-10. His career bests are 59-3¼ and 180-9½.

Red's javelin throw of 249-3 smashed the league mark by 3 feet. He finished fourth in the NCAA despite a virus attack and owned a season high of 260-7½. Brattloff upset his graduating teammate, Fred Hanson, at 15-6, then achieved 16-1¼—an all-time high for a Texan.

Among the top SWC returnees are SMU's Billy Foster, winner of the SWC sprints in wind-aided 9.4 and 20.2; Texas' Loy Gunter with a 1:50 in the 880; quartermilers Wayne Windham of Rice (47.3) and Ted Nelson of Texas A&M (47.0); high hurdler Bobby May, an NCAA finalist with a best of 14.0; broad jumper Dick Perry of Arkansas, surprise SWC victor at 24-10.

Besides Roderick, from the SWC freshman ranks will come miler Richard Romo of Texas (4:06), Quartermiler Jimmy Ellington of Rice (47.4) and Texas hurdler Steve Sansom (14.3) and half miler Chuck Frawley (1:52.0).

Jerry Dyes, Mr. Do-It-All for Abilene Christian, heads ACC's usual strong contingent. He threw the javelin 254-6½, broad jumped 24-5 and triple jumped 48-9½. Sophomore Charles Christmas hit 1:50.0 in the 880.

Besides Sadler, TSU fields another potent team led by pole vaulter Gerald Pratt (16-1), broad jumper Herb Stevens (24-7), quartermiler Lester Milburn and high jumper Curtis Crum.

Three outstanding distance runners will be found among the independents—James McLatchie of Lamar Tech (4:07.9), Laurie Elliott of Houston (4:09.7), steeplechaser Ian Studd of McMurry (9:13.9). Worth watching are David Bonds of McMurry (52.1 and 14.1) and Ray Hilburn of Texas Western (51.5).

THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS

By DAVE SCHULTHESS

Sports Information Director, Brigham Young University

Maybe it's because 1964 will be an Olympic year, but whatever the reason, most of the schools within the Rocky Mountain-Southwest expect a general improvement in their track and field units.

Starting at the north end of the range and working south, the newly formed Big Sky Conference could become the track domain of Idaho State. The Bengals, however, will find ample competition in both Montana and Montana State.

Among the independents in the area, the Air Force Academy will be weaker, Denver, Utah State and Colorado State about the same.

As for the Western Athletic Conference, Arizona State, last year's league champion, remains the major power. Brigham Young and New Mexico are in the best position to dethrone the champions.

The greatest individual competition will be found in the dashes. Headed by Arizona State's world record holder (20.3 in 220), Henry Carr, there are no fewer than half a dozen other standout sprinters, including the following: Bill Harvey (ISC) 9.5 and 20.5; Dally Oliver (Utah) 9.4; Tom Hester (ASU) 9.6 and 20.8; Steve Robbins (UA) 9.5; Gary Johnson (Utah State) 9.5; and Bernie Rivers (NMU) 9.5. Half a dozen others have 9.6's.

Last year four of the top 440 clockings in the nation were turned in by WAC quarter-milers, including the 44.9 world record set by New Mexico's Adolph Plummer. Those returning include Bob Tobler (BYU) 46.0; Uli Williams (ASU) 45.6; plus a string of runners in and around 47.5. With new talent to fortify the mile-relay, it's possible ASU or BYU can threaten the world record of 3:04.5 set by ASU in 1962.

The distance and middle-distances can be rough events on Rocky Mountain runners, but these, too, should be stronger. Eric Owers (ASU) has a 1:49.8 half-mile, Art Gardenswartz (AU) a 1:51.9. Best miler in the high country could be Art Scott (ISC) who has a 4:09, followed by John Baker (NMU) 4:11.5, Ray Barrus (BYU) 4:13.3, and Kirk Hall (AFA) 4:16. Doug Brown (MSU) has a 9:18.2 for the best two-mile clocking in the high country.

The boys to watch in the hurdles are Bob Hildt (UA) 14.2; Dave Spears (BYU) 14.2; John Puster (AFA) 14.1; Lou White (UA) 14.4; and Bob Greathouse (CSU) 37.2, and John McIntosh (MSC) 37.1 in the intermediates.

The javelin will also be one of the better Rocky Mountain events. Javelin standouts are Krege Christenson (Utah) 250-6; Terry Thatcher (BYU) 241-2; and Ken Christison (MSC) 240-11½. High jumpers of note are Frank Nordyk (BYU) 6-7; Bill DeVries (Utah) 6-7; Joe Caldwell (ASU) 6-8; Bill Rice (MSU) 6-6; Jeff Brannon (AFA) 6-7; and broad jumpers Emmett Smith (BYU) 24-8; Clarence Robinson (NMU) 24-0; Henry Carr (ASU) 24-1; and Gayle Hopkins (UA) 25-0.

Pole vaulters will be going higher, and higher, the best being Fred Martinsen (UA) 15-2; Jerry Armon (ASU) 15-0; Dee Lehman (NMU) 14-6½; Lynn Fortner (ISC) 14-9; Jerry Johnson (DU) 14-6; and Jim Prichard (BYU) 14-6.

The better performers in the weights will be Roger Anderson (BYU) 57-10;

Dave Schulthess

Jim Hanley (USU) 55.9; Larry Hendershot (ASU) 55-3; Jim Green (UA) 54.7; and Jon Cole (UA) 53-10; Cole is also a standout in the discus with 166, as is Jerry Randall (CSU), a 156-footer.

THE PACIFIC COAST

By BERT NELSON

Publisher, Track and Field News

Two of the top finishers in last year's NCAA meet—both from the Far West—appear to be contenders for this year's title, with Oregon retaining the majority of its point winners and Southern California expected to pick up points from transfer track men.

Bert Nelson

Stanford, which scored 42 points for second place at Albuquerque, was hurt by graduation, losing Dave Weill's 10 points in the discus and by the suspension from school of Larry Questad, 18-point scorer in the Nationals. Returning, however, are sprinter Eric Frische (9.5, 21.1), distance men Harry McCalla (4:01.5, 8:52.7), Paul Schlicke (4:09.7, 9:05.6), Weym Kirkland (4:12.0, 14:02.0), Bob Miltz (1:50.4, 4:10.6), Bill Pratt (1:51.5, 4:11.0), and hurdler-triple jumper Steve Cortright (13.8, 36.6, 48-6%).

Oregon loses 18 of its 41 points scored in the NCAA via shot putter Dave Steen, distance man Vic Reeve, and javelin thrower John Burns. Injured Keith Forman also graduated. Seven point winners are back, including Mike Lehner (9:13.5, 9:06.8St), Paul Stuber (7-0), Clayton Steinke (9:12.0, 9:09.2St), Archie San Romani (4:04.7), Bob Watson (15-9%), Dave Blunt (9.4, 21.2t), Terry Llewellyn (6-10%), Ron Gomez (223-4½), and Les Tipton (237-10%). Add injured Ray Van Asten (1:48.6 in 1962), Mel Renfro (25-6%, 14.0), who scored 14 points in the 1962 collegiate championships and injured Harry Jerome who scored 18 in 1962, plus the home town advantage of the NCAA meet being staged in Eugene, and Oregon will be a prime candidate for the title.

Southern California was hit the hardest by graduation, losing 49 of its 61 winning points—42 of the 49 belonging to two athletes, Julio Marin and Rex Cawley. Also gone are pole vaulter Mel Hein and hurdler Brian Polkinghorne, who scored the other seven points. Injured hurdler Bob Pierce and high jumper George Fleckenstein have also used up their eligibility. Only point winners returning are Lew Hoyt (7½) and Dave Morris (9.5, 21.3). However they still have Dick Cortese (9.5, 20.8t), Mike Flanagan (15-9), Larry Stuart (267-3), and will pick up Bruce Bess (4:08.2, 9:17.0) and Mike Parker (6-7) from the frosh. Jan Sikorsky (261-3½ in '62) has returned to school. Their strength will come from JC transfers, which include Wellsley Clayton (24-2½ in '62), Gary Comer (46.6 in '61) and Charles Oakley (1:51.0).

Oregon State loses a lot in Norm Hoffman, Gary Stenlund, Steve Pauly, Frank Marsh, and Rich Cuddihy but will still have Morgan Groth (1:47.5, 4:00.8, 9:11.0), Tom Wyatt (14.1, 51.1IH), Jan Underwood (1:49.2, 48.4, 4:09.6), and Iain Colpitts (1:50.2, 4:15.0).

San Jose State will again be strong with sprinters, broad jumpers, and distances runners. Among the best are Lester Bond (25-4), Walt Roberts (24-7½, 49-2TJ), Mike Gibeau (1:49.7), Ben Tucker (1:49.1, 4:06.2), Danny Murphy (14:11.7 in the 5000 meters).

Occidental was dealt a severe blow by graduation, which accounts for the loss of Steve Haas, Dixon Farmer, John McGrath, and Leroy Neal. The squad will be built around Ron Whitney (1:48.6, 50.0IH, 47.2). California will have two stars to build around: Roger Olsen (6-11, 221-8) and Dave Archibald (46.3, 1:53.0). UCLA has a number of good freshmen from last year joining the varsity squad, including Bob Day (1:48.9, 4:05.7, 9:17.4), John Betz (1:53.6, 4:20.8), Dennis Breckow (49.0, 1:51.7).
