ME FIRST, MY SHADOW SECOND—State College of Iowa's George Mellea makes a deep impression on indoor long-jump pit as he touches down for landing. His leap of 21-8% beat everyone else entered in the event, and—heh, heh—the shadow knows it.

NATIONAL PREVIEW-REVIEW

Coaches Can't Agree On '66 Favorite From A Crowd Of National Contenders

By RICHARD M. MOORE

Sports Columnist, Fort Worth Star-Telegram

The screen clouds when talk centers on the 1966 National Collegiate track and field championship because no one team stands out strongly enough to move out of the crowd for the cameras to focus on.

Payton Jordan, personable Stanford coach and an Olympic assistant in 1964, lists defending co-champion Southern California, New Mexico and UCLA as the top three candidates for national honors.

"USC and New Mexico are blessed with depth and experience," he says. "And UCLA has top freshman, junior-college and foreign athletes."

Chuck Rohe, a dynamic young coach who built Tennessee into a national power without a track to train on, echoes Jordan's picks and adds these: San Jose State, Kansas and Stanford.

Will the next national champion come from the young but strong Western Athletic Conference? Coach Willard Hirsch of Brigham Young believes so. Though his chorus is loud and long for 1965 co-titlist Oregon, New Mexico and USC, Hirsch doesn't hesitate to include his own team in the running.

No national champion has emerged wearing the Big Ten colors since Minnesota used a 90-foot hammer thrower for one point to shade USC in 1948. And track is still down in that league.

The East has produced a more recent champion (Villanova in 1957), but this doesn't look like the year for another one.

Only Texas from the Southwest Conference, Abilene Christian from the Southland Conference and independent Houston bring representative groups from the state of Texas to the National Collegiate Championships.

The Pacific Coast, barely recovered from another glorious track and field season, will suffer no letdown.

Juniors Paul Kerry and Bill Fosdick, wearing National Collegiate blue ribbons for victories in the high hurdles and pole vault respectively, form the nucleus for another great Trojan team. They should get big help from Gary Carlson, fifth in the NCAA discus, and sophomore distance runner Chuck Schulz (9:07.2 for two miles, 14:06.8 for three).

Bob Day, the country's finest collegiate miler, and sophomore sprinter Norm Jackson head UCLA's quest for a second national trophy to go with the one the Bruins won a decade ago.

Oregon's top holdovers are National Collegiate winners Neal Steinhauer (shot-put) and Bruce Mortenson (steeplechase), along with Wade Bell, fifth in the 880. Stanford boasts sophomore quartermiler Jim Ward (47.4), returning national discus champion Bob Stoecker and the 1963 titlist in the 100-yard dash, Larry Questad, who owns a 9.3 clocking. As usual, Washington State has exceptional distance runners. This year's crop includes NCAA double medalist Chris Westman and sophomore Gerry Lindgren.

Tommy Smith's explosive anchor won San Jose State an NCAA 440 relay gold medal. Smith pulled up lame at the finish and his cramp left a crimp in Coach Bud Winter's national title ambitions. The marvelous Smith (9.4, 20.0 and 46.3) returns, as does the national triple-jump runnerup, Craig Fergus (51-8). Two 7-foot high jumpers, Ed Johnson and Gene Zubrinsky, and newcomers George Weed (9:05) and John Twomey (9.5) add support.

San Diego State still has Larry Godfrey, whose strong kick carried him to the collegiate crown in intermediate hurdles, Occidental's Vance Peterson, who chased Godfrey home, is also back.

Look for the duels between New Mexico and Brigham Young for the outdoor championship as one of the highlights of the coming WAC season.

There's a wealth of talent at New Mexico, including Clarence Robinson, NCAA, Kansas and Drake Relays broad jump and triple jump champion; Bernie Rivers, fourth in the national 100; WAC two-mile champion Web Loudat (9:10.9); Arthur Baxter, who does the unusual double of the quarter mile (47.4) and the triple jump (49.7); and transfers George Scott from Oklahoma City, Bob Neutzling from Ohio State and Burt Marks from Stanford. Scott won the Kansas Relays mile, Drake two-mile and Texas three-mile. Neutzling has vaulted 16- $\frac{3}{4}$.

Brigham Young's principal holdovers are Bob Delaney, silver medalist in the National Collegiate mile, and intermediate hurdler Mike Douglas, sixth at Berkeley. Strong support will come from weightmen Steve Fite (60-8 and 182) and Ken Patera (60-10 and 170-0), halfmilers Ron Stone and Gil Rangel and triple jumper Pete Danna (52-3).

Ample competition should be afforded by Arizona and Arizona State. Olympian high jumper Ed Carruthers has transferred to Arizona and joins national javelin champion John Tushaus. Arizona State counters with high jumper Mike Lange (7-0), Jon Cole, the NCAA discus silver medalist, and javelin thrower Glenn Wunningham, who threw 265 at the West Coast Relays.

In the Big Sky Conference, one thing is certain: Doug Brown of Montana will be unbeatable over the distance routes, as he demonstrated in setting a collegiate record for six miles and also winning the national three miles. However, Idaho State should again harvest the conference championship, building around quartermiler John Briggs and sprinters Len Frazier and John Figueroa. Idaho could be a formidable challenger, with NCAA bronze medalist Ray McDonald in the discus (177-3 $\frac{3}{4}$), half-miler Nils Jebesen and pole vaulter Dwayne Turpin.

Good sophomores in the Big Eight Conference are 7-foot high jumper Ron Tull of Oklahoma, miler Gene McClain of Kansas and sprinter-quartermiler Ron Moody of Kansas State.

Ralph Higgins, beginning his 31st season at Oklahoma State, will greet three returning members from his world record two-mile relay team—Tom Von Ruden, collegiate indoor 880 champion; John Perry, Big Eight half-mile winner; and Jim Metcalf.

The list of the Big Eight defending champions is long and impressive and headed by stubby Charlie Greene of Nebraska, the NCAA 100 winner, and John Lawson of Kansas, the NCAA three-mile runnerup. Others are Oklahoma's Bill Calhoun in the 440 (46.7), Missouri's Gene Crews in the shot (57-8 $\frac{3}{4}$), Oklahoma State's Miles Lister in the discus (177-0), Iowa State's Daryl Green in the highs (14.0) and Colorado's Lynn Baker in the broad jump (24-6 $\frac{3}{4}$).

Once again the South's finest track team will be lodged at Tennessee, which scored a record point total in the 1965 SEC without a senior on the squad. Sophomore distance runner Andy Russell, who posted the nation's second fastest freshman mile and two-mile times, will strengthen the Vols. Holdovers include three SEC champions—hurdler Pat Pomphrey, two-miler Dave Storey and miler Bob Redington.

Many look for LSU to worry the Vols with a team built around SEC winners Randy Geyer in the high jump (6-8), Delmon McNabb in the javelin (251) and Dave Eckert in the pole vault (14-9). Other 1964 SEC champions back are triple jumper Bill Meador of Auburn, sprinters Marcus Rhoden of Mississippi State (9.5) and Mac McQueen of Alabama (21.2).

GO AHEAD, GUESS who won this one. The answer is right, far right—Jim Garrett of Michigan State. He won the Big Ten 220-yard dash by nipping Ohio State's Elwin Sellers (center) and MSU's Daswell Campbell, though all three were timed at 21.7.

Brightest newcomers are sprinter Sammy Grezatt of LSU, half-miler Henry Rose of Tennessee, quartermiler Paul McGregor of Georgia and miler George Hunt of Mississippi State.

Maryland can start with a sure first place in National Collegiate high-jump champion Frank Costello, who has done over 7 feet indoors. Clemson has sprinter Fred Cone (21.4) and quartermiler Richard Greene (47.5). South Carolina still has Bob Crombie (1:51.5 and 4:06.1), Art Swartz (175-1) and Mike McGuinness (47.4).

Texas A&M's Randy Matson no longer can be listed as a remarkable teenager—just remarkable—as he attempts to surpass his world record shotput of 70-7, achieved in the Southwest Conference meet, and his national collegiate discus standard of 201-5 $\frac{1}{2}$.

A four-way scramble for championship honors among defending champion Rice, Texas A&M, Baylor and Texas looms in the SWC.

Rice, in its quest for a history-making third straight SWC title, will be aided by quartermiler Jimmy Ellington (47.1), sprinter Jimmy Epps (9.6 and 21.1), miler Gene Timberlake and soph hurdler Tommy Moore.

Texas A&M, with a "gimme" 20 points to start with in Matson, looked ready to burst through this season until the books floored sprinter James White. This reduced Matson's support to conference 220 runnerup Gil Smith, high jump titlist Mike Schrider (6-8 $\frac{3}{4}$) and freshman shotput winner George Resley (53-2 $\frac{3}{4}$).

SMU lost SWC sprint champion Billy Foster but welcomes back 1964 record-setter John Roderick (9.3 and 21.0), who regained his eligibility. Coach Glenn Gossett also has SWC frosh 100 champion Bruce Camerson and runnerup Steve Clayton. Another bright newcomer is Jerry Uteet, frosh hurdler record holder at 14.1 and 54.7.

Baylor has a great sprinter in Wayne Brandt, runnerup in the SWC 100 and overlooked in the 220, quartermiler Dick Bourland and sophomores Jerry McCullough (9.6) and Dale McDonald in the half and mile.

Texas, after slumping to fifth, will be climbing. The 1964 mile champion, Richard Romo, is healthy again after missing last season. Preston Davis, who shadowed Romo two years ago, has satisfied his profs. Up from the freshman squad is SWC frosh 220 and 440 winner Eddie Canada, miler Brian Woolsey and broad jumper Charles Clifton.

Abilene Christian has another classy group, headed by Charles Christmas in the half-mile and Gale Harrison in the 220. Quartermilers Riley Dunn and Doug Thompson and 880-man Bruce Johnson should help.

The hottest competition will unfold in the Big 10 among Michigan State, Michigan and defending champion Wisconsin. The Spartans have a fine nucleus in high jumper Mike Bowers, whose 6-10 took fourth in the National Collegiate Championships; James Garrett, Big Ten champion in the broad jump (25-4) and triple jump (48-9) and a sound junior quartet of hurdlers Gene Washington and Clinton Jones, miler Keith Coates and sprinter Das Campbell. Michigan boasts pole vaulter George Canamare (15-9%), Big Ten 440 champion Kent Bernard (46.6), high jumper Bob Densham (6-10) and quartermiler Bob Jerometta. Wisconsin retains miler Jim Weinert, pole vaulter Brian Bergomann and sprinter Jerry Beatty.

Iowa is looking to Jon Reimer, a junior who came out of nowhere and ran the fastest-ever 330 hurdles (36.1), and pole vaulter Bill Burnette. Minnesota has a two-miler of note in Tom Heinonen (9:05.9) and an able quartermiler in Mike Gillham (47.4).

Top performers in the Mid-American Conference are expected to be half-milers Ralph Stephenson (1:49.4) of Western Michigan and James Issacson of Miami (1:50.8), Miami steeplechaser Jack Bachelor, who owns the country's fifth fastest time (9:06.2) and 9.4 sprinter Henry Williams of Bowling Green. Notre Dame should be led by senior Mike Coffey with distance times of 8:56.2 and 14.20.6.

In the East, defending Heptagonal champion Harvard retains much of last year's strength, headed by Anthony Lynch, winner of the Heptagonal and IC4A intermediate hurdles and third-place finisher (51.8) in the nationals. Harvard also counts on three other Heptagonal winners—sprinter Wayne Anderson, high jumper Chris Pardee and two-miler Walt Hewlett.

Army probably will boom the loudest challenge, centering around junior miler James Warner, IC4A titlist, pole vaulter Jerry Lawrence and a sophomore trio of high jumper Karl Kremser (6-8), javelin thrower Edgar Bennett (239-4) and weightman Dan Seebart.

Navy points with pride to two-miler Gregg Williams (9:08). Top Princeton returnees are Terry O'Keefe (1:52), Mel Branc, triple jump winner in the Heptagonal and IC4A (48-6), and sophomore miler Miller Endrikot. Yale is counting on quartermiler Henry Cole (47.8).

St. John's brightest hope is Larry Furnell, the East's finest three-miler, who finished fourth in the nationals (13:50.2). Georgetown will feature Eamon O'Reilly, who also grabbed a fourth in the nationals with 9:07.3 in the steeplechase. Villanova's chief assets are IC4A 220 champion Earle Homer (20.8) and hurdler Ken Coniglio (14.2).

Boston College holdovers include steeplechaser William Norris, the IC4A champion and a strong hammer thrower in John Fiore (200-10). Penn State boasts two of the nation's top javelin throwers in Lennert Hedmark, who set a freshman mark of 268-8½ in 1964 but dropped to 248-8½ last season, and Ernest Krombolo (234-11). Alex Schulten of Bowdoin had to settle for the NCAA silver medal in the hammer after winning as a sophomore. He's back for his final year with a best of 202-11. Seton Hall figures to be strong with Herb Germann (1:52.5 and 4:05.7).

Manhattan is particularly strong in the weight events, with seniors Bob Steigerwald, Bob Mead and Pete Haffner. John Kozicki, a consistent 47-second quartermiler, and miler Joe Kearney head the runners.

AFTER THREE MILES, it comes down to this grueling finish. Phototimer ruled that Montana star Doug Brown (left) edged John Lawson of Kansas by inches in identical 13:40.2 for National Collegiate title. Brown also set record in six-mile triumph.

National Collegiate Championships

By BOB STEINER

Sports Information Director, University of California

Defending champion Oregon and perennial champion Southern Cal finished in an unprecedented tie for the 1965 National Collegiate track and field championship, but both had to take a back seat to Montana junior Doug Brown, who sparked over the long distances.

The 32 points scored by the Trojans and Ducks was the lowest winning point total in 41 years, and only seven points separated the first five teams. In fact, only 12 points separated the first 11 teams.

The competition was close from a team standpoint, from an individual standpoint and even for Brown, who set a national collegiate record in the six mile and a meet record in the three mile.

Brown set a blistering pace in the twilight on Thursday but had Washington State's Chris Westman with him most of the way. The crowd cheered Brown on as he ran his fifth mile faster than his second and his last mile (4:31) faster than his first. By clocking 27:59.2, Brown became the first collegian and third American to break 28 minutes for the distance. Westman was second at 28:33.9, Larry Furnell of St. John's third at 28:58.1.

Bob Steiner

Brown came back on Saturday and nipped Kansas' John Lawson by inches in the three mile in 13:40.2. Lawson had opened nearly 10 yards on Brown with 220 to go, but the plucky Montanan, showing a finishing kick he did not have a year earlier, caught the Kansan with 75 yards to go and the two sprinted home hip to hip as the final placing had to be decided by the Bulova Phototimer.

Southern Cal's heroes were sophomore victors Paul Kerry in the high hurdles and Bill Fosdick in the pole vault, third-place high hurdler Theo Viltz, fourth-place long jumper Wes Clayton and fifth-place discus thrower Gary Carlsen, also a sophomore.

Oregon got 10 big points from both soph shotputter Neal Steinhauer and junior steeplechaser Bruce Mortenson. Vaulteur Gerry Moro scored six points, half-miler Wade Bell, also a sophomore, scored two points and the Ducks got the first-place tie in the final event when their mile relay team broke the school record and finished fourth with a 3:11.1.

While the records were few, the competition was fierce and the heats and qualifying rounds took their toll. This was particularly true in the 880 where 1:48.5 (faster than the 1964 winning time for 800 meters) failed to qualify in one semi-final heat. The unfortunate party was Oklahoma State's Jim Metcalf, who was beaten by teammate John Perry.

One of the most spectacular races was the mile final, in which UCLA's Bob Day brought the screaming crowd to its feet with lap times of 55, 1:53.5 and 2:54.5. He opened a 100-yard lead with a quarter mile to go but then had to hang on, finally winning by less than 10 yards, in 4:01.8, over fast-finishing Bob Delaney of Brigham Young and Robin Lingle of Missouri.

It was a hard meet on defending champions (only two of six won — St. John's Tom Farrell in the 880 and the California mile relay team) and a good meet for young runners (Farrell was the only senior who won).

Champions who failed were two-time mile titlist Morgan Groth, who finished fifth, vaulter John Uelses (fourth), hammer thrower Alex Schulten (second) and discus thrower Larry Kennedy, who did not qualify.

Eleven juniors and six sophomores won titles. The first-year winners were Charles Greene (Nebraska) 100, Jim Kemp (Kentucky State) 440, Kerry (SC) high hurdles, Fosdick (SC) pole vault, Steinhauer (Oregon) shot and Maryland's Frank Costello in the high jump.

The only double winner besides Brown was New Mexico's Clarence Robinson, who took first in both the long jump and the triple jump.

Other notable performances were given by Oregon State sophomore Tracy Smith, who placed fourth in the six-mile, sixth in the steeplechase and sixth in the three-mile; California's duo of Forrest Beaty and Dave Archibald, who finished second and third respectively in the 440 and ran the final two spots as the Bears won their 25th straight mile relay victory. Archibald and Beaty ran 10 quarter-miles during the course of three days and only one, Beaty's first round 47.1, was in excess of 47 seconds.

Westman's 28:33.9 put him second on the all-time collegiate six-mile list, and his third-place 13:46.5 put him 10th on the all-time collegiate three-mile list.

Boston College's John Fiore, the hammer-throw winner, became just the sixth collegian to hurl the ball and chain in excess of 200 feet. His 200-1 came on his fourth try and moved him from fourth into the victor's spot.

Other winners were Villanova's Earl Horner, in an upset, in the 220; San Diego State's Larry Godfrey, the College-Division champion, in the 440 intermediate hurdles; San Jose State in the 440 relay; Stauffer's Bob Stoecker in the discus, and Arizona's John Tusaus in the javelin, whose 250-5½ was the fourth best winning mark ever in the National Collegiate meet.
