

1972 AAU Girls NATIONAL TABULATIONS

Indoor Highlights and Summary

THE DEBATE GOES ON

The ongoing dialogue about Mary Decker and her competing out of her age bracket really is sort of absurd in some instances. First of all, what makes us so sure that a girl of 13 is not ready to compete against girls older. Does some magical thing happen at age 14, the exact minute, instant, and breath taken at that point?

The obvious answer is no. The truth is that girls develop at staggered rates and some certainly are ready for any level competition at 13 or even 12. Some kids are simply mentally and competitively mature at earlier stages than others.

I have a case in point, Robin Campbell (see pages 4 and 5, ed.). She has been competitively mature since I first saw her at age ten!! She has no innate fear of anyone, and if the devil put on a pair of spikes and took the lane next to her he would be in for one hell of a race.

I have had other girls who were ready for all levels of competition mentally at earlier ages than the AAU rules permitted. Conversely, I have had girls that were not ready, and would not be ready for several years after the rules said that magically they would be ready.

The upshot of what I'm saying is simply this: First, the AAU Rules regarding age group is too rigid, and is not always consistent. For example, Donna DeVarona made the Olympic team in swimming at age 13. No one for an instant is going to suggest that swimming on that level is less strenous physically and mentally than running.

Second, the "powers that be" really are out of touch with the simple realities of the rapid growth and development of young ladies in the sport today.

Third, that when a girl gets to be advanced as Mary Decker was/is, some one obviously knows what they are doing, and perhaps they, not some remotely involved AAU official and/or rule, know what the athlete is really capable of. I think that no coach in his right mind with such a talented athlete is going to expose them to pressures they can not reasonably handle.

Even if errors in judgement occur, I would think that is less of a cross to bear than having the decision made at a National Convention, by people two or three degrees removed from the front lines of what is really going on in the sport. Let us have more faith in the common sense of a coach who has proved his merit by developing a girl to the point where she can reasonably challenge older girls in her specialty.

If we really were concerned about the girl's welfare, we would sit back, mind our own business, let those who know her best make the decisions, and heartily cheer her on!

Brooks Johnson, Coach, Sports International Washington, D.C. There are proposals to have longer distance runs and more skill events introduced into the lower age groups, perhaps under the notion that if these events are introduced earlier then we will produce more and better athletes in these events at the National and International levels later on.

I think that we must take a hard look at our program as it is presently organized and realize that participation in the 9 and under and 10-11 Age Groups probably is not (I emphasize NOT) the great spawning ground for our Girls and Women's programs that we have supposed it to be, or as is purported to be the case in Age Group Swimming. Certainly it is hard to document this, and I always believe in trying to back up my statements with some evidence. Here are some examples:

l - Since 1967 I have tabulated the participation of each girls in the California State Cross-Country Championships. While this is admittedly an imperfect barometer, I have found that in the age group runs there is a drop-out rate of approximately 50% each year, so that after three years only 15% of the original group are continuing to participate. Although the drop-out rate is higher among the lower-ranked runners, the best are not immune.

2 - In 1968-69 we studied twelve randomly selected volunteer age group cross-country runners and used eight sprinters as controls. Last fall we wanted to re-test some of these athletes but found none of the cross country runners were still active, and only two of the sprinters are still in competition.

This situation is not unique to distance running. In our own community-based track club there is a turnover rate of about 40% each year among the age group participants.

I think that the message is clear. In our present Age Group program may are called, but few choose to stay. It is up to us to find solutions to this inordinate drop-out rate, and I don't believe that adding longer runs or more complex events is the answer.

Most track distance runs in high school and college programs are half of the distance of their cross-country event, and I believe that the Age Group program should also adhere to that principle.

- When two talented runners of the class of BARRIE WILLIAMS, from North Torrance, and TERRY WILLIAMS, from Lompoc, get to gether in a race, one can expect some fireworks. The boys credentials are impressive. Barrie ran 4:06.7 in the mile last year, surpassing Jim Ryan's age 16 all-time best and Terry is simply the nation's best two miler. The two 17 year-old high school seniors ran shoulder to shoulder for 22 laps at the Times Invitational Indoor meet, with Terry outlasting Barrie in the end. The duel, however, produced the two best 2-mile marks in the nation this year, 8:55.0 and 8:56.2 (Barrie , at left and Terry at right)
- At the Albuquerque Olympette Track Club Invitational, the highlights came in the open 880 yard run. Seventeen year-old CAROL HUDSON, in the lead, outdueled ANNE GALLAHER of Phoenix (right behind) in the fine time of 2:11.2 to 2:12.6. BARBARA LAWSON finished in third position.
- fourteen year-old ROBIN CAMPBELL (at right) from Sports International TC, placed second at the U.S. Olympic Invitational meet in the outstanding time of 2:09.5, the second best mark on the all-time age 14 list. Carol Hudson, mentioned above, holds the number one spot with a 2:08.7 made in 1970. At left of Robin is GAIL OLINECK from Canada.

Starting Line's most recent contributor is CHRISTRINA (with two R,s) A'HARRAH. In addition to her writing talent, as you can tell by the article on page five, she also runs pretty well, as you can tell by the results any old place.

She can also claim to being the champ in our Olympic Games Prediction Contest, for which she won a mammoth full color picture of the opening ceremonies that now decorates her wall.

At age 17, Chris says she would like to use track, eventually, as a basis for encouraging inner-city youth to improve their lives.

GIRLS and BOYS TRACK SCENE

CAMPBELL and "KIDS" lead USA over USSR Women Indoors
RICHMOND, Virginia - March 16 - from LYLE KNUDSON

In the first decade of track and field competition between the world's two biggest powers, the Soviet Union could never defeat the USA Men and the American Women were always trounced, as a team, by their Russian counterparts. Recently, for one reason or another, the situation has often been reversed. The second year of of USSR versus USA Indoor Dual Meet was one such case.

While the US Men's team was missing many "stars" and was beaten by the visitors, the US Women, largely with the services of the 14-17 corps, edged the Russian Women by a score of 55 to 52. In international duals, two members from each team score on a 5-3-2-1 basis, according to their finish in the event. Non-finishers score nothing, so every member is important for their team in a close match.

The red, white and blue's youngest member, ROBIN CAMPBELL, stole the show. Having the eldery class (14 years and almost two months) and relying on her great backlog of experience in international meets (the first lap), the lanky D.C. lass toughed her way to a mere centimeters victory in 2:11.1 for 880 yards. Though her youthful teammate, CAROL HUDSON was only fourth (2:12.3) the event proved to be a turning point as the hosts hung on for a big upset win. Robin returned to anchor the American squad to victory in the 4 by one lap relay.

Also scoring important points were second placers DEANNE WILSON (high jump) and CHRIS A'HARRAH (440). Deanne "flopped" 5-74 to combine with winner Alice Pfaff for a sweep of the way-below-par Europeans. Chris followed Kathy Hammond in nosing out her hammer-and-sickle rivals in 55.6 seconds, for another sweep.

Though they were outlegged in the two long distance events by the unexcelled Soviet duo of Bragina (Olympic 1500m champ) and Pangelova, USA teenagers acquitted themselves well. MARY DECKER returned a 4:50.1 mile in third place, while DEBBIE HEALD (10:34.2) and DEBBIE ROTH (10:59.0) gave it a good try in the two mile.

To finish out the efforts by the younger set, SUSAN McLALIN of Michigan leaped $18-9\frac{1}{2}$, but had to be satisfied with a distant fourth in the long jump. Since the team score difference was only three points, the USA advantage in youth was a most important factor.

BY CHRIS A'HARRAH

Indoor action for the young ladies began early in December, reaching a climax at the AAU Championships in New York. A few of the girls who achieved the national spotlight earned positions on the National Team which competed against the Russians on March 16 (see story opposite page).

In the shortest sprint, the 50y/60y, ALFREDA DANIELS led with an early season 5.8 win over Kathy Lawson in Vermont. She backed the speedy 50 time with a handful of sub-seven second 60s, which were highlighted with a 6.6 heat in Champaign. The seventeen year-old sprinter from Detroit soundly trounced some of the country's veteran speedsters, winding up her season in New York as the only sub-eighteen finalist. JACKIE TAYLOR of Washington, DC, was restricted to the short sprints when none of the east coast meets in which she competed had her specialty, the long jump. Her best time was run in early January - 6.9 - and she was the surprising Region II champ.

sprints belonged to CAROL HUDSON, WENDY KOENIG The middle sprints belonged to CAROL HUDSON, WENDY KOENIG and CHRIS A'HARRAH. The New Mexican lass, Carol, came into the Nationals with the fastest time in the country in the 440 (55.7). However, she was far off that time in her heat as she finished a trailing last. Only hours later, with a more competitive spirit, she finished third in the 880 and qualified for the US versus USSR meet. Chris had early season marks of 6.8, 25.4, 36.1 (300y) and 56.0y but sat out a few weeks, right before the Championships, due to an injured hamstring. She eventually finished fourth (second American) in the Nationals "quarter", also qualifying for the International Team. Wendy Koenig, looking stronger and smoother than ever before, was the sensation of the west with her impressive 300y, 500y and 600y wins. The versatile seventeen year-old also long jumped consistently well.

RGBIN CAMPBELL turned 14 in January, after two respectable age group races in Columbus (Ohio) - 57.6 and 2:20. Only days after celebrating her eligibility for the Women's competition, the Washington, DC, sensation dipped under the best all-time global 1000y mark as she followed the Canadian distance ace, Glenda Reiser, into the tape. Then, the week before the Nationals, Robin blasted through an eye-opening 2:09 half, defeating many top east coast runners, in the Olympic Invitational. Facing a top notch field in the Nationals at only fourteen is certainly an experience of a lifetime and Robin dealt with it as such. After an eventless first quarter, Robin jumped the field and with two laps to go she had complete control of the race...almost. Cheryl Toussaint came on with her breathtaking, tape-diving acceleration and caught the youngster in the final strides as both were credited with 2:08.8. Robin joined Carol in the 880 vs. USSR at Richmond.

Another fourteen year-old sensation, from the opposite coast, represented the USA on March 16th. MARY DECKER, a petite miler, had a sparkling distance season, almost flawless timewise. She dipped beneath the 4:50 mark and had a handful of effortless appearing 4:50-5:00 times. Pushing Olympian Francie Larrieu frequently and exchanging places with such aces as Kathy Gibbons, DEBBIE ROTH and DEBBIE HEALD highlighted Mary's season. In New York, both Debbie's and Mary got places on the US team (Roth in the two mile) though they took a back seat to older -.but not much bigger - foreigners in the Nationals. the Nationals.

SUE McLALIN, runner-up in the Girls' Outdoor Nationals leaped over eighteen feet for the fourth spot in the long jump at New York. She was the second American (another qualifier for the US team); as in the past, foreigners proved superior in this field event. Her Michigan mate, SUE PARKS, superior in this field event. Her Michigan mate, SUE PARKS, turned in some respectable, sub 2:12 halves during the season; New York's DIEDRA WILSON (15) ran some sizzling relay legs and may-be one to watch in the future (in both the sprints and long jump); LaVONNE NEAL, Philadelphia's hurdle queen, turned in a good 7.7 and finished fourth in the Nationals; unknown high jumper from New England, JANET LYNCH, has reportedly jumped 5-8 (??!!). The springy high schooler was consistently over 5-4.

Fifteen year-old TRUDI REBSAMEN turned in a respectable 57.0 in Champaign, Illinois in defeating some of the "big" names. The midwest furlong was dominated by Chicago's ROSLYN BRYANT, a smooth, graceful runner who won repeatedly in sub 25 second times. Two 24.6s highlighted her season. PAT HELMS, the 1972 surprise, had a good season in the 440 with 56 7 tonning her was 150.17 wides 150.14 and with 56.7 topping her runs. Top 17-unders in NAAU included:

60-Daniels (Motor City PAL) 7.0, sixth in final and 6.9h, Mable Fergerson (West Coast Jets) 7.1h; 220-Bryant (Murcherettes) 24.6, first; 440-A'Harrah (Delaware Sports Club) 56.3, Maeoper West (Illini TC) 57.2h, Hudson (Albuquerque Olympettes) 57.9h, Trudy Rebsamen (NW Suburban YTC) 59.3h; 880-Campbell (Sports International) 2:08.9, 2nd, Hudson 2:11.1, fourth, Parks (Golden Triangle TC) 2:12.3, sixth, Anne Gallaher (Phoenix TC) 2:13.8, fifth; Mile-Heald (La Mirada Meteors) 4:46.7, third, Decker (Blue Angels) 4:47.7, fourth, Roth (Oregon TC) 4:53.0, fifth; 60H(33in)-Neal (Philadelphia Hawks) 7.9, fourth & 7.8h, Cheryl Poirier (Frederick T&FC) 8.2h, Bobbette Krug (San Diego St Univ) 8.3h; HJ-Deanne Wilson (So Coast TC) 5-8, second, Joni Huntley 5-7, third, Cheryl Friesen (Topeka Cosmos) 5-6, fourth, Cindy Gilbert, 5-6, fifth, Katie Solon (AO) 5-6, sixth, Lynch (Green Mountain AA) 5-6, seventh; LJ-McLalin (Wolverines) 18-64, fourth

BY JIM HANLEY

As we reported in our last issue, the AAU has revised the format of its national championships; a Junior National Championship has now been included. Just as the name implies, it is open to Junior athletes, meaning any walker from 14 to 19 years of age.

Formerly, Junior National Championships were open to any athlete who had not won an individual National Championship or been a member of an Olympic, Pan American Games, or other international team. It was not uncommon to see "old men" or 25 year-old national class race walkers competing in Junior meets.

With only a dozen or so serious Junior race walkers in the country, the move will make the sport "wide open". Any young man willing to put in a year or two of hard training should be able to place high in any of the National Championships.

Opponents of the move argued that there would not be enough Junior walkers to go around since SIX national championship medals and team prizes (three-man team) are awarded in each race. Hear that kids? There are a lot of medals up for grabs!

For years, Race Walking has been stagnant in terms of new talent. Meet after meet, one would see the the same veteran walkers. Young kids who tried to crack in to the National Championships placings were generally soundly thrashed and lost interest...despite the fact many had great potential.

With the National Championships really Junior in scope, such things should never happen again. And as more and more athletes get into race walking, the quality of the sport as a whole is bound to improve.

Of course, for true progress to take place, it will be necessary for coaches and physical educators to follow through and promote the sport of race walking. Otherwise these rule changes will be in vain. Certainly, no group of athletes has ever had a better opportunity for national recognition and international trips than 1973's crop of young walkers

For athletes and coaches interested in race walking, I would suggest reading Ron Laird's excellent book, COMPETITIVE RACE WALKING (available from STARTING LINE for $3.00). Laird has won more championships than any athlete in any sport, so he knows what he is talking about. The sequence photos alone are invaluable in learning form and technique. Specific questions directed to the Race Walking Editor of STARTING LINE will be promoted. will be promptly answered.

At its convention the the AAU passed a videotape rule which, though not affecting young walkers in most meet, will greatly improve the sport in big meets. Now, walkers will be able to be disqualified up to one hour after the conclusion of their event if a review of videotapes by officials shows violations of legal walking form. This should eliminate much squabbling over poor judging, etc. and bring the walk up to the objective level of other track & field events, where the subjective judgement of men is minimized.

The new AAU president is DAVID RIVENES, a part-time race walker. In his acceptance speech, Rivenes promised to do everything possible to improve the so-called minor sports like gymnastics, luge and race walking. The new race walking chairman is BUTCH HAMMER, an active athlete from Des Moines, Iowa. With knowledgable people like Hammer and Rivenes in key positions, it is easy to see why the sport of race walking is moving ahead.

In the year's first Junior Championships, a dozen athletes were attracted to the starting line for the 1973 National AAU Junior One-Hour Race Walking Championships.

Held in 30 degree weather (snow had forced many cancellations) on the 440 yard all-weather track of the University of Nevada, the SIERRA RACE WALKERS, led by JIM BENTLEY took the team award.

The judges for the competition were Fred Young, Bob Whitman and Frank Hagerty. Top placers:

FEATURE MEET OF THE MONTH

PITTSBURGH GULF INDOOR TRACK CLASSIC

PITTSBURGH, PENNSYLVANIA - FEB 10/11 - FROM JOHN HARWICK

This event has to be track's most successful indoor age group meet. This year drew boys and girls from 35 teams from 8 states in the 13-under events alone.

The two days of events included a complete schedule of individual events for all age groups on Saturday at Schoonmaker hall's 12-lap-to-the-mile dirt track, and two relay events for each age group on the all-weather 220 oval of Pitt Field House on Sunday.

Philadelphia area teams dominated the relay events. Ambler Olympic Club alone won six of the twelve relays (four boys, two girls), with one each to neighboring Southside and Padukies Track Clubs. Motor City Track Club from Detroit, copped three relays and the other went to the Buckeye Track Club of

Among the many multiple winners in individual events, the standout may have been SCOTT (DYNAMITE) GREENWALD from Louisville, Ky, who took three 9-under events with good marks and SCOTT DAHM (Ohio) who did the same in the 10-11 division.

LOUIS McCLENDON (Detroit) and Greenwald's teammate DENNIS CONNELL had nice double wins too. The outstanding performance could very well have been the 2:16.1 half mile win of ALFRED DEL ROSSI from New York in the 12-13 group. The top girls were MICHELLE SMARTT and CYNTHIA BANKS from Detroit and BRIDGET CALLAHAN.

A very informative program accompanied the summaries of this important meet, which also included women's, men's and Masters events. Results:

ROCKY MOUNTAIN AAU GIRLS INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

BOULDER, COLORADO -

FROM EVIE DENNIS

Red hot KELLY CURRAN edged ever closer to the first 50 foot Shot put in the history of the 12-13 age group, by pushing the 6 pound ball 49-5 in the University of Colorado Field House. She was over 20 feet (!) ahead of her nearest competitor in this meet, as she stole the show from many fine performances by teenagers competing in the women's division.

DESIREE GRONWALD has apparently succeeded Susie Snider as the best allaround field event performer in the nation. The Boulder Cinderbelle phenom (age 17) pushed the 4 kg. Shot 42-7 3/4, jumped 5-7 and 18-7, and for good measure, ran the 60 yd Hurdles (33 inch) in 8.2.

WENDY KOENIG confined her usual prolific activity and ran a superb 440/ 880 double win in 56.6/2:12.0. Her Colorado Gold teammate JAN FOX had a very swift 220/440 twin win in the 12-13 group.

In all, fourteen teams competed in the districts championships of this rapidely improving track region. Age Group Results:

WEST VALLEY MARATHON

BURLINGAME, CA - FEBRUARY 11 - FROM LONG DISTANCE LOG

MITCH KINGERY continues to exceed the "possible" in the marathon. The 16 year-old Redwood City Flyer youth took the occasion of this popular annual 26 miler to run 2 hours 23:47 occasion of this popular annual 26 miler to run 2 hours 23:47 on this certified course. His effort was good enough to (1) place him second among the 176 finishers of all ages, (2) set a best performance for the age - Mitch held the old standard himself, nearly eight minutes slower and (3) establish the best on record by a high school boy, breaking the old mark held by Chuck Walker by over a minute - and Kingery is only a sophomore! Overall, there were twelve other runners under 18 years of age who bettered three hours. ALEX AGUILAR, 17, ran 2:33:54 for tenth place, while the top 15 year-old was BOB BARNETT who took 2:53:50 to complete the distance.

Perhaps as significant was the 3:03:56 of MIKE BOITANO, who has reached the ripe old marathon age of eleven! No one so young has run within 13 minutes of that time for the distance. Mike's sister MARYETTA, age 9, covered the course in 3:49:01, which was a little behind Kingery's sister LONDA, age 16, who finished in 3:47:57. Twelve year-old BILL TRACEY covered the distance in 3:22:15, ROBERT MARTINEZ (11) ran 4:00:40 and TOM OWEN, age 9, was close behind in 4:04:45. It was sumpthin'.

MOUNT SAN ANTONIO COLLEGE ALL-COMERS MEET

WALNUT, CALIFORNIA - JANUARY 27 - FROM BRICE HAMMERSTEIN

In what might be the finest set of doubles ever turned in by age -group athletes (until the next time they run) Il year olds CHUCK and FRANK ASSUMMA eclipsed existing age group bests in the mile and two mile. way. Both ran typical Assumma races, as they were well paced with splits being almost identical. Both outran Chuck's previous age group best of 4:57. In the "novice" two mile, the brother act again set fire to the track as Chuck and Frank ran 10:16.0 ans 10:21.6, respectively.

NEW JERSEY AAU AGE GROUP WINTER TRACK (BOYS HALF-MILE RUNS) METUCHEN, NEW JERSEY - JANUARY 28 - FROM GEORGE MILLER

In the second meet of a series at St. Joseph's High School, some fine early season distance performances were turned in by several of the 48 runners who finished the two age group 880 events.

Hometown boy MATT KELSH doubled back from his mile win of two weeks previous, to top the under-[4 division. This time he was pressed by JEROLD LAMBERT of Cranford, as they passed the quarter in tandem at 67.1. Lambert's teammate SCOTT GRAMLING came to run in the 14-15 race, as he passed the 220 in 28.4 and the lap in 59 flat, then withstood the challenge of several runners, to finish the victor.

Although the day was cold and windy, the results which follow, were good:

Debra destroyed the field and the meet record (by a full second) in running 10.6 for 100 yards, on a windless day. Renee, a 13 year-old, became a worthy successor to the traditions set by her Houston Astobelle teammate Renelda England, as she clocked a 58.4 for the one-lap event. She returned to win the 880 in 2:28.5 on the Butler Stadium .

Increased attendance brought the return of the usual depth of good performances in the third early season meet, at the all-weather faciperformances in the third early season meet, at the all-weather facilities of the College of the Canyons, directed by PHIL SNYDER.

There were several standout performances in the weight events, as KELLY ROBERTSON outdistanced the vanBENTHEM triplets of La Jolla in the 12-13 javelin. DENISE SHERRILL exceeded 150 feet in the open spear toss, and EMILY DOLE (now 15) shoved the 4 kg. Shot over 42 feet.

TECHNIQUE & TRAINING

(PART 3) BY BROOKS JOHNSON THE SPRINTER

This is the third and final chapter on the subject of "The sprinter".

In two previous issues (#14 and #19), Brooks Johnson, coach of the Sports International TC, discussed his views on the psychology of sprinters, the relationship of arm action to leg speed and leg span, as well as arm, hand and forearm actions.

Hopefully having made a case for the arms, I would like to point up three more areas of importance to sprinting.

ABDOMINAL MUSCLES

First, I think that the abdominal muscles are extremely important, because they keep the sprinter from hyper extending on his backward swing to some extent, but even more important is the fact that they are partially responsible for the amount of power and drive the sprinter can generate on his forward thrust of the arms. Simple sit-ups are adequate here to help strenghten this area.

"THIGH MUSCLES"

The second area of concern is the muscle system that lifts the knee, generally called the "thigh muscles". Too often these muscles are neglected and the sprinter becomes victim of "knee drag", which I feel contributes to pulls.

The body is generally moved by a combination of levers (bones) that are pulled and pushed by muscle tissue. Usually the muscles are in antagonistic sets, one working opposite the other. The thigh muscles are the cooperative muscles of the system we generally refer to as the hamstrings. If you lift the knee using the thigh muscles, the ham strings have a tendency to relax. This facilitates the contraction action that the hamstring system is going to have to execute later in the sequence.

Using the two systems (thigh and hamstring) properly we should have the systems alternating between stress (contraction) and recovery (relaxation). The problem with this is that usually the hamstrings are much more developed than the thigh muscles, and without proper attention and utilization they will take the majority of the stress of sprinting and thus are more susceptible to pulling. When the two systems are used to complement each other, which involves the thigh muscles taking on their relatively equal share of the burden, pulls are less likely because the work load is better distributed.

CALF MUSCLE & FOOT POSITION

The third area of problems is the poor utilization of the calf (gastrocnemius) muscle and foot position.

The sprinter should be well up on the ball of his foot for several reasons. First the push against the resistance surface (track) is better, thus resulting in better forward thrust. Second, the shock of coming into contact with track is lessened, resulting in less general leg fatigue and related injuries. Third, it places more stress upon the calf and forces it to work harder and take on a greater load in the overall running function.

But from the standpoint of pulls, I think that this (running high on balls of feet) helps prevent pulls because the calf muscles seem to cramp faster than the other muscles, forcing the athlete to stop running short of an actual pull that usually occurs from an overload of the muscles that pull before the athlete can reduce the stress enough to prevent the injury. I rather feel that perhaps it is nature's way of providing the body with a safety device against injury that a lot of sprinters don't take advantage of, because of their poor running technique and form.

IN CONCLUSION

As the opening sentence stated, what I have attempted to do is to put forth "certain ideas, opinions and facts" about sprinting.

I do not for a minute believe that this even aproximates the final word on the subject. I'm sure there are other approaches to the subject that are just as valid. But this article is an approach to sprinting that other might like, and further and even more important, here is a target at which you can throw darts of your own ideas at.

To the extent I have succeded in this, then the piece has been a success, and that is the real name of the game, SUCCESS.

> Why be too loose or uptight? Get a shoe that fits you right.

Most track shoes come w-i-d-e. Then you have a long lace operation to make them tight so they will give you some kind of fit. NEW BALANCE shoes are different. They come in exact widths. It's easy to get a comfortable, correct fit. The shorter lacing gives you a more flexible vamp for easier running action. Special design based on orthopedic principles gives you natural foot action which helps prevent foot, leg and knee problems. The Ripple* sole absorbs shock, reduces fatigue and improves traction. More real features than other track shoes. Find out for yourself.

HOUSE CALL

by DR. GABE MIRKIN

QUESTION: My older brother takes 17 pills a day (2 bone meals, 6 vitamin C, 4 vitamin E, 3 multivitamins and 2 mineral pills with iron). My father thinks he is crazy. My brother is a state 2-mile champion. Should I train like my brother?

DR. MIRKIN: I have been amazed by the number of pills that athletes are taking. I have seen so many side effects resulting from such indulgence. Lets take a look at some of those vitamins and what they do.

VITAMIN C

As it is known that large amounts of vitamin C are lost in the sweat, it was felt that athletes require higher doses. This is probably true. However, remember that high doses of vitamin C (ascorbic acid), over 1 gram per day, function as a drug not just as a vitamin. For example, it was popularized that vitamin C prevents colds. It does not. High doses of vitamin C function as an antihistamine to decrease nasal secretions.

Thus, it was erroneously felt that vitamin C prevents colds, when all it did was decrease nasal secretions.

High doses of vitamin C can cause kidney stones in people who are predisposed to gout. There is no evidence that C improves athletic performance, unless there is a pre-existing vitamin deficiency.

Also to be considered is the fact that excessive doses of body nutrients can make the body depend on much more of that nutrient. For example, years ago physicians used to give endurance athletes salt tablets when they exercised in the heat. We now know that this is wrong, because your ability to handle heat depends in part on your ability to conserve salt. People taking excess salt do not teach their bodies to retain salt and do not handle heat well.

I would recommend no vitamin C tablets, but a lot of fruit, particularly orange and orange juices.

VITAMIN E

It is well known that endurance athletes have lower levels of vitamin E in their blood. We do not know if this means anything. We also know that that vitamin E has something to do with the body's ability to handle oxygen.

There is no hard data to show that vitamin E enhances performance. It may be that when you take large doses of E, your body requires high doses of E for top performance.

I would recommend that you take 200 mgms. of vitamin $\ensuremath{\text{E}}$ the day before a competition.

I do NOT recommend taking it any other time. There is no scientific proof to deny or back this recommendation.

POTASSIUM

Tremendous amounts of potassium are lost with heavy exercise. It is wise to take potassium without piling on salt.

This can be accomplished by taking orange juice and dried fruits. I discourage potassium pills or liquid as they taste terrible to begin with, and they can cause intestinal ulcers.

BONE MEAL TABLETS

There is no evidence to support the use of bone meal tablets. Calcium deficiency in endurance athletes has never been reported and with our diets, it is virtually impossible.

Once Iron is taken into his body, the male has no way to get rid of it, other than frank bleeding. The female gets rid of iron by menstruation.

Iron in overdosage is a potent poison. Nobody should ever take supplemental iron, unless a physician diagnoses iron deficiency.

VITAMIN A AND D

Both of these vitamins are poison in massive over dosage. There is no evidence that athletes require more of these vitamins than their nonathletic counterparts.

For that reason, only a balanced diet with occasional fish and some enriched milk is necessary for ample supply of vitamin A and D.

PROTEIN SUPPLAMENTS

This is one of the biggest hoaxes ever perpetrated on the athlete. I am firmly convinced that most of this sheer dishonesty is spread by people who stand to make money from the sale of these products. There is no evidence to show that protein supplaments are of any value in our society.

Normal American diets contain much more protein than the body even knows how to handle.

I would recommend strict action against charlatans who push protein supplaments.

CONCLUSION

As we are a drug society with many of our ills coming from drugs, I would strongly recommend natural means of nutrition.

For example, all the trace metals can be obtained from nuts and leafy-green vegetables. High potassium-low salt foods such as citrus and dried fruits are ideal for an athlete. The only pill that may offer something is 200 units of vitamin E the day before a competition.

Dr. Mirkin is in the process of compiling material for a book dealing with track injuries.

He would like to hear from any runner who has had a chronic problem and how he feels he soved it. He also would be happy to receive comments and remarks from coaches everywhere, who certainly are not alien to such problems.

This book is much needed in age group track, and we urge you to contribute to your favorite sport by sending in letters to:
Dr. GABE MIRKIN, M.D., 9900 Georgia Avenue, Silver Spring, Maryland 20902.
