Holly, I had a hard time finding a place to write! As I have always contended in past years you are a complete nut but I like you very much (not anyway) you are a real Lucy and Helen and most of all Holly. The reunion at Terman was so fun!! You certainly have not lost your loud touch, I will see you in choir no doubt next year and we will have much fun without all the seniors (oh no!!) well we'll manage. Have a groovy summer and I'll check ya later next school year

Holly -
It has been nice knowing you in with you? Choir has been fun this year. I hope to see you in it next year.  Greg

Holly,

It's too bad we didn't have any classes together this year. You ~~and~~ always did keep a class 'gump'ing'.
Well, it's hard to write now. So good luck always! Bed. (mess)

Holly & hi!

You've been really fun - as much as I've known you, hope to get ^{to know} you better next year - sorry you didn't make it for pom-pom - I know lots of people who were sure you would - But I lost my soph. year ...in Sports too. So best of luck if you try - out when you're a junior. Happiness & luck always -
Judy

look fast - one of the few times you'll see Grady really on the ground. Be around next year for

Holly,

I was really surprised that you weren't elected Pom Pom Girl. But to tell you the truth you'll be really glad to have it as a senior rather than as a junior. It makes your last year a lot of fun. Good luck next year and be sure to try out for Pom Pom,

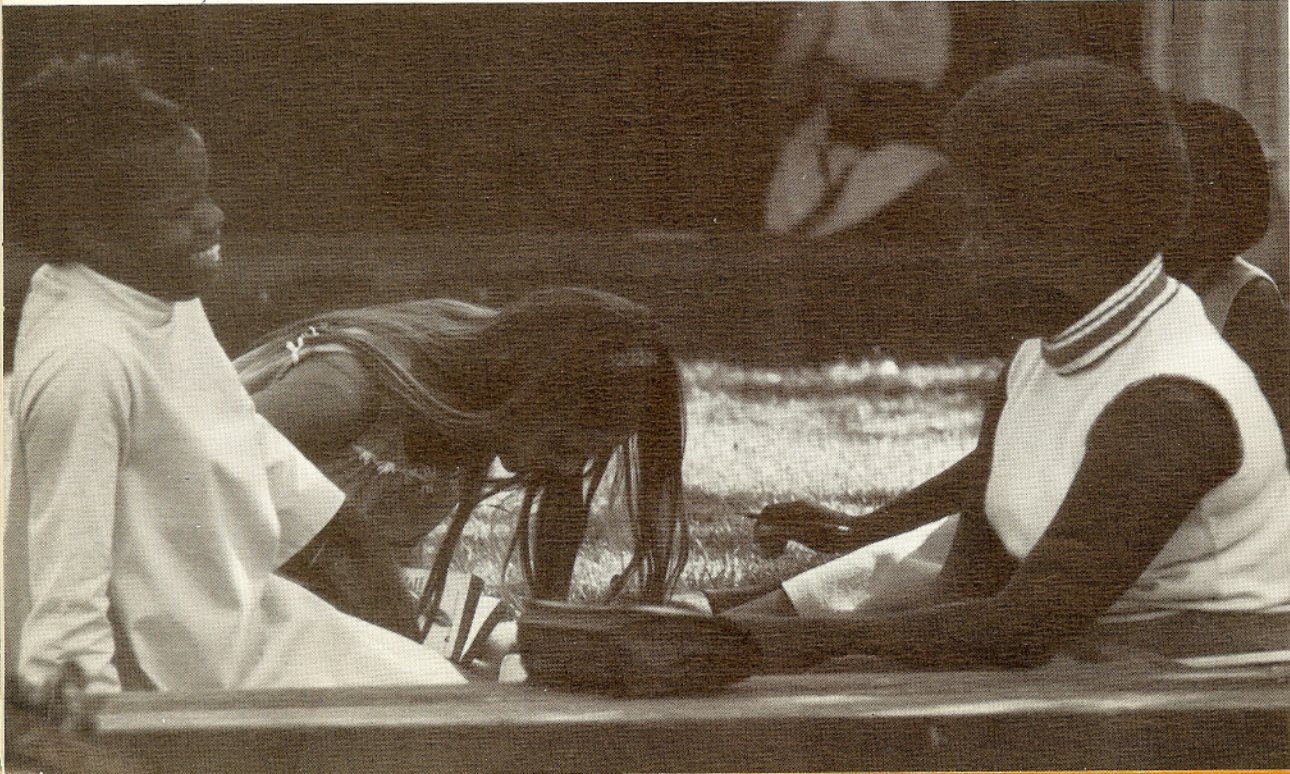

Love,

Joe

Holly: Next year you can fill the shoes of a pom-pom sophomore. Good luck with Fleming

Joe

Holy! I wasn't gonna write too much but I feel inspired, now. What I'd like to say I think I'll have trouble putting into words. I think this has been a special year. Pom-pom & Mike. It's too bad about pom-pom, but I would be a sure win next year. And you had pom now you wouldn't have much time for Mike. Boys are demanding - aren't they?
 Especially with him leaving on all...
 I'm so glad you found Mike, or rather he found you. I've been be-praying for you every since we've become friends, for good to send you someone to love and that would love you back. He

of the Gang granted my wish. Now you know the feeling of emptiness when he's not around and total contentment when he is. I know you have trouble putting across to me that your Love can't be defined, into words, that is. There are no words, and it's different for everyone. But I think the way it makes you feel inside and how it's written in your eyes and on your smile is universal. Enough on Mike but I want you to know that even though I don't express it, I am happier for you than words can say and envious more than words can say. Your just luck. It's not my Mike you talking about.

This has been a rough year and I wouldn't list it under one of the best but it's special because I've learned such a lot. I think you have too. I know we've never our fights and what a mess they were, but no matter how mean I am to you and I am mean to you, you'll always be a special friend.

we can still do all the things we wanted to do after High School. We've both done a lot of growing up and there's such more to be learned, but one thing that I've learned this year and my feelings on this can only deepen. I've learned that there's aren't many people in the world that you can let your intimate self come out to and when you've found one (and I have) don't throw that away (like I almost did) because if you can't find happiness and contentment in you and friends you won't be able to find it in anything else - be it pop-music or (popularity) or nice things. (I don't mean anything by it, only that my views have changed a great deal) The grass really isn't greener on the other side only a bit more frightening. You can't lose it, I hope I don't blow it and lose it. May you always find happiness and good smiling. It's good for the soul.

All my love & Dreams
Robin

Next year the school is all yours Do what you can in it.
I think you'd be a great candidate for AFS try out for sure.
Keep up with the work of Bart.
Spread love! Remember to love all in memory - Agape, Sue Margaret

Holly, I haven't really been avoiding you! You are one of the most interesting, fantastic, sweet and nice girls that I have ever known! I'm glad that we got to do all the crazy things like sitting in sewer pipes that and playing "kill the pelt" on Round-top that we did. I hope you had as much fun as I did. I hope to see you lots summer! Have fun. Love, Larry Holly!

Sorry I enjoyed Spanish so much - but as it was an easy-going class, I could learn something from no previous experience. (?) Oh well, Better days ahead - better boys too!

Dr. Robert McLean
Principal

While the current year has brought many questions and changes to society at large, it has also given us the opportunity to re-examine our environment.

The school's multi-cultural committee, composed of students, staff, and parents has endeavored to enrich our climate that recognizes the work and dignity of each individual and his role in our society. The committee's endeavors have reminded us that for our school to be what we want it to be, each of us must continue to serve as an individual multi-culturally oriented human being.

I welcome this opportunity to express my deep pleasure and appreciation of working with a Gunn staff and student body of which I am extremely proud.

Hello! I considered saying it's been a good year, our athletic teams did well and our academic achievements were many. But I question whether these things make it a good year. There are so many things happening that are much more important than football rallies and math tests.

Do what you have to do when you have to do it, but know what's going on.

Best wishes for many truly good years,
Art Willey

Near Holly,

Ever year I have a hard time thinking what to write in a yearbook but I shall try my hardest. → It's been a lot of fun knowing you this year and I hope you had a good soph. year. It's too bad that I didn't meet some of your friends but I guess that's good since we are moving in a week. (June 11th) Although I knew you from Fernway you (and I) have grown-up a little and since so I believe I shall remember you more when we move. I'm glad you met my brother as his disposition and personality improved notably as he got to going out with you. Oh well, I could say a lot more which you wouldn't care to read as so I won't write it. Good luck always and please don't think that I'm always in a bad mood.

Love, Rich

P.S. : Remember that an arrogant person is like unto a very tall tree that groweth and moveth very tall but bringeth forth no fruit.

P.S.

Here's the poem you didn't want me to write.

"When your gone I'm restless, lonely wretched, bored, dejected, only here's the rub my darling dear, I feel the same when you are dear!"

Now THAT'S FUNNY!

matter, for as complex as our language is, it is limited in its ability to express what one's thoughts are for another.

No one knows what love is but if love is looking at moon at night or a hawk gliding over a green meadow and wanting to be with you and hold you tight, then I think I can say I love you. If love is hitting a home run or catching a twelve inch trout and wishing you were there to share the joy I feel though-out then I love you fore this is how I feel.

At night, I dream of camping in the middle of natures splendor and God's wonder with you and you alone, to share the problems, thoughts, joys, and striffs of our lives. Where
