who placed yesterday and the locals four milers and relay team will all be seen in action at the PAL finals next Friday.

Lincoln's Lions, hot favorites in the varsity division, led with 21 qualifiers. Paly's 17 followed, San Mateo had 16, Burlingame 9, San Jose 6, Sequoia 4, South City 3, and Jefferson 1.

Weightman Rudy Feldman, Hurdler Speck Mitchell, and Sprinter Rich Douglas placed in two events each for the locals. Dave Cochran in the 880, Pole Vaulter Danny Allen, and Bob Shipkey in the 440 qualified as expected. The other members of Coach Hod Ray's crew who placed were Skip Crist and Phil Casaroli in the 100, John Anderson in the shot, Al Lynch in the pole vault and a trio of highjumpers, Rex Brush, Johnny Vipham and Roy Ahrens. The mile was not run, but the Vike's Paul Bowen is almost a certainty to win in the finals.

Paly lightweight trackmen qualify

Trackmen quality

Three Paly lightweight trackmen placed in six events in the PAL 20's and 30's trials, run off yesterday at Angel Field, Stanford. They will next compete in the finals on May 6.

Floyd Kumagai was the big gun for the locals. He led the broad-jump qualifiers with a 19'4" leap, and took third in his heats of the 75 and 150. Loren Sorenson won his heat of the 75 in :08.5, and added a third in the 150, and Joe Ikeda took an impressive second in his section of the 330. These lads will be joined by Ole Holsti in the 1320 and the relay team of Kumagai, Sorenson, Ikeda, and Bernie Leung in next Friday's finals, where the Li'l Vikes should gather around Li'l Vikes should gather around 15 points.

Coach Hod Ray's lightweights were crippled by an edict issued by a few rival coaches, which prevented Jordan ninth graders from participating. Thus John prevented Jordan ninth graders from participating. Thus John Stewart, ace high-jumper, Jim Ferrell, in the 660, and husky Jim Malinoff in the shot-put were ruled ineligible and the locals lost around 10 points, and all charges for the loss to any and the loss to the loss to a point. all chance for the league crown.

Larry Broeron, ace Sequoia

smashed the PAL record in the 660 with a 1:27.3 effort. ### Paly Shunted to Third in PAL performances by Come-through Skip Crist and Spec Mitchell highlighted Paly's showing in the re-cent PAL track meet on Angell Field out at Stanford. The Vikes rolled up 28 5/6 points to take third behind Lincoln and a surprising San Mateo. Coach Lee Cox of Lincoln again proved himself the outstanding prep track coach of the Peninsula as he guided his Lions to their sixth league title, this being re-markable as Lincoln did not open its doors until 1942.

Crist puffed to a tight second in the 100 and turned in an excellent lap in the relay. Mitchell missed a second in the high sticks by inches and took a surprise second in the lows. Other outstanding outstanding point getting performers included Danny Allen's 12' pole vault to take that event; Paul Rowen's dead heat with a Lincoln 1320 light-weight in the mile at 4:42.3; Rudy Feldman's putt in the shot and fourth in the discus, and a surprise showing in the relay which turned bad as the Vike third man was tripped, fell and a close battle for first turned into a fourth.

The 30's rolled up a stupendous point total (3) which was garnered by Fumagai's third in the broad jump and a fourth in the relay team. Burlingame took the 30's crown, San Mateo's' the 20's, and San Jose dominated the 10's.
