

Lincoln 2-Mile Team Sets Hollister Mark; Bowden Runs 1:57.1

Lincoln High School's Don Bowden anchored his two-mile relay team with a sparkling 1:57.1 performance to establish a new record yesterday in the Hollister Relays.

The Lincoln quartet comprised of Frank Wulfange, Rich Huerta, Mary Gross, and Bowden, easily bettered the previous best time of 8:38.4 with an 8:15.9 clocking. Willow Glen was third in the same race, a team of Rich Carrillo, Steve Scott, Jack Marden, and Walt Swarthout, and they too broke the record with an 8:29.0 eight-lapper.

Willow Glen took second place behind Poletechnic of San Francisco in the broad jump relay with a distance of 79 ft., 4 in. Poly's quartet did 80 ft., 4 $\frac{3}{4}$ in.

Coach Morry Goldner's Rams placed ninth in the meet with 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ points after Bob Walrath tied Pittsburg's anchor man in the 440-yard sprint relay, while the Lions were 11th. San Jose entered a pole vault relay team but failed to score.

Salinas High School broke five varsity records for the meet to take first place with 63 $\frac{1}{2}$ points, far ahead of Washington's 20.

Lion 2-Mile Relay Breaks Mark

Paced by Don Bowden's anchor leg of 1:57.1, the Lincoln two-mile relay team Friday night established a new meet record in the Hollister Relays. The Lions negotiated the distance in 8:15.9.

The Lincoln quartet was made up of Frank Wulfange, Rich Huerta, Marv Gross and Bowden. The old mark was 8:38.4. Willow Glen was third in the event. Ram runners were Rich Carrillo, Steve Scott, Jack Marden and Walt Swartout. They were clocked in 8:29.0.

The Rams were ninth in teams scoring with 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ points. Salinas won the team crown with a total of 63 $\frac{1}{2}$ points. Washington of San Francisco was next with 20. The Cowboys set five new meet standards.

One of the top efforts was a 150 ft. 1 in. discus toss by Watsonville's Bob Collier.

Willow Glen took second place in the broad jump relay with a distance of 79 ft. 4 in. Poly of San Francisco was first with 80 ft. 4 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. The Ram sprint relay team tied Pittsburg for first place.
