2 Al Baeta (4:19.4) 4:23.4

Frans Doelman (4:30.2)

THE RACE—This appears to be a three-way battle for first place among King and Strong of the Cards and Baeta of the Bears. King, who returned to Stanford this season after two years in the service, is the logical favorite, and Strong may be held out for the two-mile. Baeta showed lots of courage against UCLA two weeks ago and could conceivably upset King here.

2 Bob Warwick (48.5) 48.5

3 Bill Knick (49.5) 49.5

THE RACE—The first two places in this race appear to be all sewed up. Stanford's Garrett may be the best quarter miler on the Coast, and he should win easily today. The improving Warwick is a fine competitor, and while not in Garrett's class, seems to have a firm hold on second place. The fight for third should be terrific, with Ince, Easter, and Hollister of the Cards and Knick of the Bears in contention.

CALIFORNIA

2 Jim Plessas (10.1) 9.8

Duane Bailey (10.4)

John Stellern (10.5)

THE RACE—While Saras and Brownsberger have the superior times, Plessas, the Bear captain, is a fine competitor and could pull an upset. His chances for a victory appear better in the 220 and low hurdles, however. On the basis of past performances, the Indian sprinters rate 1-2, but this could be one of the finest races of the day. Saras, Brownsberger, and Plessas are clearly the top men in the field.

THE RACE—The first three finishers in this race are clearly defined. Nelson, a young sophomore, has proven a consistent performer and is easily the top man in the field. Luttrell, a junior, is better in the lows but still rates a solid second in this field. White of the Bears has beaten teammate Battelle in every race except one this season.

THE RACE—This race stacks up as possibly the most exciting of the day. Although Hersh has the best mark going into the meet, he has yet to win a race this season. Carlson has shown week to week improvement and nipped Hersh in their last outing. King is an excellent competitor and could conceivably win here. However, he will have run the mile already and probably will be running for second place only.

THE RACE—The Stanford sprinters again have the better marks, but you can't count Captain Plessas of the Bears out of it. If Plessas is to upset Brownsberger and/or Saras it's more likely to come in the 220 than 100. Plessas has a strong finish, while the Indian stars are both better in the shorter race. The Indians' Spicer is also a threat, but he has been nursing a leg injury and may not be in the best of condition.

CALIFORNIA

Jim Maddox (9:38.0)
Bob Leslie (9:49.8)

THE RACE—Another solid favorite for the visiting Indians is Strong, who ran his excellent 9:25.1 against Occidental. However, he could run into trouble against Maddox of the Bears if he chooses to run the mile earlier in the day. King, who is entered in the mile and 880, probably will pass up this event, but would be a second-place choice if he entered the race in top shape. Assuming King will pass up the eight-lap chore, Bob Leslie of the Bears could sneak in for the third-place point.

CALIFORNIA

Jim Plessas (23.9)

Mike White (25.4)

THE RACE—Again California's iron-man captain, Jim Plessas, has his work cut out for him. He'll be the underdog to Stanford's Luttrell, who is a stronger low hurdler than a high-stick man. If Plessas isn't too weary from the 220-yard dash he should make a real race of it. The third place point should go to Stanford, with either Nelson or Roldan grabbing it.

CALIFORNIA RECORD—3:09.4 (John Reese, Fay Froom, Clarence Barnes, Grover Klemmer), Big Ten-PCC Meet, Los Angeles, 1941.

To be selected from Walt Garrett, Charles Ince, Myron Hollister, Bob Hyde, Bill Rupp, Keith Brownsberger, and Larry Spicer.

CALIFORNIA

To be selected from Bob Warwick, Bill Knick, Jim Johnson, Al Carlson, Al Baeta, and Ed Hersh.

THE RACE—Although the Indians have lost two meets this season because of a defeat in the relay, they are much stronger than the Bears in this event. With Walt Garrett anchoring, Stanford has an excellent 3:17.1 clocking, while California's best is 3:19.2. Stanford should be in the lead when Garrett grabs the baton, and the Card captain should be able to hold off Bob Warwick, the Bears' best.

THE COMPETITION—The Bears' Seed is a solid choice to win this event, although Flint of the Indians is improving with each meet. Seed appears to have the potential to threaten the UC record, but he has been slightly inconsistent to date. Jack Weiershauser, the Stanford coach, feels that Flint is ready for a 14-foot effort. Whalen of the Indians looks like a sure bet for the third-place point.

THE COMPETITION—California appears to have a sure eight points in this event, with Kahnert and Stellern placing 1-2. In fact, the Meet Record of 55-3 by Stanford's Otis Chandler could be threatened. Between Cheney and Brabyn, the Cards should pick up the third-place point, but Paul Magistretti, Bear soph, has shown tremendous improvement in recent weeks and could stage an upset.

THE COMPETITION—The Indians possess the strongest dual meet javelin group in the country this year and loom as a cinch to pick off the first two places today. In fact, they could sweep the event, with their third man, Hank Roldan, edging the Bears' best, Hal Norris. Roldan's best mark is a foot better than Norris', but the latter does have a foul throw of 215 feet. With Kimball and Bugge in the competition, however, the best Norris can hope for is a third.

THE COMPETITION—Herrmann has been a pleasant surprise for the Indians. This soph has been consistently well over 23 feet and hit 24 feet last Saturday. The battle for second is between Fremouw of the Cards and Celestin of the Bears, with Fremouw rated the favorite. In fact, Celestin will have to be sharp to hold off Sorensen of Stanford for the third spot.

THE COMPETITION—Eric Murray, improving California junior, has been around the 150-foot mark all year and should grab the first place today. The battle for second should be extremely close, with Truher and Kimball of the Cards rating slightly ahead of Kahnert of the Bears. Kahnert is a novice in the event and could conceivably explode with a toss good enough to give the hosts a 1-2 in the event.
