

Salinas Takes Coast Counties Track Honors

SALINAS, May 14.—Durable Don Wizener broke a league record and paced his Salinas Lettuce Pickers teammates to a second straight victory in the Coast Counties Track and Field Championships at Salinas High School today.

Wizener spun the mile in 4:34.3 to erase his own mark of 4:35 set in trial runs last week. The time in the trials broke a standard that has stood for 22 years—a 4:35.2 run by Santa Cruz' Les Vorhees in 1935. Results:
