

Bearcats Blast Indians; Face Panthers Today

4/17/58

Coach Berny Wagner's San Mateo High School varsity track team tuned up for its all-important Peninsula League dual meet with Burlingame today by giving Jefferson a severe 76-37 beating Tuesday on the Indians' track.

THE BEARCATS and Burlingame meet today on the Panthers oval with the PL dual meet title at stake. Neither has lost a league meet this season.

Only double winner in the varsity meet was San Mateo's Ed Castine, who took the 100 in :10.6 and the 220 in :23.2.

JEFFERSON'S Dennis Marc and San Mateo's Steve Dunbar turned in the day's outstanding individual marks. Marc high jumped 6 feet, 4 inches, one of the top marks in Northern California this year. Dunbar ran a 4:36.4 mile, besting Jeff's Don Snyder in a torrid duel.

In the Class B meet, San Mateo's Gus Amarillo won both hurdles, while Steve Cisler captured the broad jump and 330. Dom Sanchez paced the Bearcat C team with wins in the 75 and broad jump and a second in the 150.
