NEWPORT BEACH — The sailing Seaver family of Newport Beach completely dominated the 29th Flight of the Snowbirds Sunday, taking home a majority of the major trophies.

Winner of the small boat classic and the Dr. Albert Soiland perpetual trophy was 16-year-old Chris Seaver. In second place but not too close behind was Chris' younger brother, Pat, 14.

But the Seavers were not content with just the top spots. Carlton Seaver, 18, finished eighth to be among the top 10 trophy winners and Richard Seaver, 42, father of the tribe, won the award for the oldest skipper to finish.

So much for the male contingent of the Seaver family. There was yet another, 9-year-old Martha, who recorded her name for the third consecutive year on the Harry Welch perpetual for the youngest girl to finish. First 10 finishers:

1. Chris Seaver, 1:09.45; 2. Pat Seaver; 3. John Scruggs; 4. Leslie Messinger; 5. Doug Weber; 6. John Gamble; 7. Raymond Wilder; 8. Carlton Seaver; 9. Jim Laws; 10. Chris Lipscomb.

OTHER WINNERS
FIRST GIRL TO FINISH (Insley Trophy) — Leslie Messinger; YOUNGEST BOY TO FINISH (A.B. Rousseau Trophy) — Tony Watkinson; 7. FIRST COUPLE (Newport Harbor C of C) — Mr. and Mrs. George Holstein (Newport Beach).
