

Diablos Beat Heat, Smog for CCAA Title

Cal State (LA) overcame the heat, the smog and an outstanding performance by Cal Poly (SLO) speedster Cecil Turner to win the CCAA track and field championship Saturday at Valley State College.

The Diablos, winning their second league title in history, finished with 63½ points to 47 for SLO and 41 for Cal State (LB), which wound up a surprising third.

The championship gave CSLA coach Jim Crakes a perfect ending to his seven-year career as Diablo coach.

Crakes, who has resigned to become track coach and athletic director at Cal Western University, was a happy man after the Diablos had clinched the title.

One-Two in Mile

"We really got a lift with that 1-2 finish in the mile (Jim Peabody won in 4:15.9 and Bob Blanchard was second in 4:16.9) and then Alvin Young's fourth in the 100 and Bill Lomen's all-time best of 6-4 in the high jump (tie for second) were pleasant surprises. But everybody contributed—it was a real team victory."

Turner, who is from Washington, D.C., where he went to high school with basketballers Dave Bing and Ollie Johnson, was easily the outstanding individual performer with 15 1/4 points.

He won the 100 in 9.6, the 220 in 21.3, finished second in the long jump at 23-11 and brought the Mustangs from behind on the final leg with a 41.4 win in the 440 relay.

Turner attended Pratt JC in Kansas for one year, transferred to Hancock last season where he had a 9.5 best but was hurt and did not compete in the State meet and has done 9.3 this year.

"I'm looking forward to the college division and university championships," he said. "The weather and the smog really made it tough out there today. It was awfully hard to breathe."

Turner is a flanker on the football team and indicated he would like to pursue a pro football career. "I played in high school and have one more year at Cal Poly," he said.

There were no records set in the 85-degree heat and Turner was the day's only double winner. However, the man who probably enjoyed things the most, along with the Diablos' Crakes, was "Walt," who had a monopoly on ice cream, pop-sicles and soft drinks and was doing land office business.
