Tommie Zips Past Lee; Two Records

By FRED MERRICK
Mercury-News Sports Writer

Super-star Tommie Smith made his farewell appearance as a collegian at Spartan Field a smashing one Saturday.

The tall, talented Spartan senior smashed world marks in both the 400 meters and 440 yards to highlight the San Jose State Invitational track meet. Smith hit the tape at 400 meters in 44.5 and 440 yards in 44.8.

His performance shattered the previous world standard of 44.9 for both distances. Adolph Plummer of Arizona State set the 440 mark in 1963, while Otis Davis established the 400 meter record in the 1960 Olympics at Rome. It later was tied by C. Kaufman of Germany, Plummer and Mike Larrabee.

Smith, who now holds seven individual world records and shares in two relay marks, whipped teammate Lee Evans by two yards in their heralded duel. Evans was clocked in 45.3 for the 440 yards, the fifth fastest time on record.

Evans led through the first 220. The 1966 AAU champion was timed in 21.5 at the Halfway mark to Smith's 21.7. They were all even at the final turn, but Smith pulled away in the final 110 yards for a clean-cut decision. It was the first ever meeting over this distance for the two Spartans.

Drawn by this race between two of the class quarter-milers in the world plus a field of other outstanding athletes, a crowd estimated at 5,000 turned out for this final meet at the old Spartan Field, which will give way next season to a new all-weather Tartan track.

Weather conditions were perfect for the record try with a hot sun and only a faint breeze.

"We worked hard all week," said Smith. "Neither one of us was completely aware of who would win. There is no animosity between Lee and me."

Smith said the fact that he started behind Evans in the staggered start which put Tommie in the third lane and Lee in the fourth probably was to his advantage. "I had something to run for with Lee out in front, and I always run better from behind," he stated.

"This is not the ultimate," Smith replied in answer to a question on whether he thought the record would stand. "I may run the quarter a couple of more times this season it all depends," he added. "But I prefer the 220."

Evans was satisfied with his 21.5 for the first 220 and said he thought he could outsprint Smith in the stretch. "I figured he'd be right there, but felt that if I could convince myself that I wasn't tired that I could hold him off." Lee stated. He added that it didn't make any difference to him that he started in front of Smith. "You still have to run 440 yards anyway," he remarked.

Smith and Evans will join Ken Shackelford and Bob Talmadge for a shot at the world mile relay record Saturday night at the California Relays at Modesto. "I know we'll get the record," said Smith, "It's just a question of when." Shackelford and Talmadge were the other members of the Spartan quartet which set a world 880 relay record last week at Fresno, and an American record in the mile relay.

Although he appeared completely spent after the 440, Evans came back later to win the 220 in 21.0 and ran a lap on the Spartan mile relay team.

Another top performance was turned in by Tom Dooley, a San Jose State Student, who set American records for 1,000 and 2,000 meters enroute to victory in the 3,000 meter walk. Dooley was timed in 4:19.7 for the 1,000 meters and 9:03.2 for 2,000 meters.

Chris Papanicolaou of San Jose State set a new field and Greek pole vault record when he cleared 17 feet 1 inch, and Menzies Campbell of the Athens Club and Scotland posted a new United Kingdom mark of 10.2 for the 100 meters.

Tracy Smith, one of Americas top distance runners, not only failed in his bid for a 4-minute mile but failed to win the race. Ed Dean, a former Notre Dame runner competing for the Athens Club, burst past Smith in the final 220 yards to win in 4:02.8. Smith was second in 4:03.3. Wally Mattingly of the California Frosh took fourth place in 4:11.3, breaking the old Cal yearling mark of 4:11.5 set by Don Bowden.

SPORTS NOTEBOOK

Smith Can Run Faster

By LOUIS DUINO - Sports Editor

Tommie Smith and Lee Evans "called" a world record quarter mile race Saturday afternoon at Spartan Field with Smith taking the heralded meeting of the two San Jose State sprinters in this time of 44.8. Tommie added frosting to the cake by also beating the world 400 meter mark in the process.

"It's like Babe Ruth's famous World Series home run call only greater," exclaimed coach Bud Winter. "Everything had to be right for a record to be set and everything turned out that way. Even the weather man cooperated and gave us perfect conditions." Winter reveals that a portable wind break had been prepared to help cut down the wind resistance on the back stretch, but it wasn't needed.

"This is not a good 440 track," Bud said. "The wind is a big factor, but today there wasn't enough wind to make a difference."

The Spartan coach said that the pressure on both Smith and Evans was terrific. "They've known for two weeks they were going to run head and head in the quarter," the coach revealed. "It was a terrific job just setting up for the athletes all tied up. It's a shame that more people couldn't have seen it."

Once more, this great athletic event pointed up the lack of facilities in Santa Clara County. The crowd count wasn't anything like those at football games, but when the seating facilities are as slim as those at Spartan Field it was amazing that so many people would show up to just stand. There were people everywhere, even on the roof tops.

Taylor OKs '67 Pact

NEW ORLEANS (AP —) Jimmy Taylor, one of the mainstays of the Green Bay Packer backfield for nearly a decade, has agreed to play for the New Orleans Saints, it was learned Saturday from a highly reliable source.

Earlier Saturday, the New Orleans States-Item, in a story by assistant sports editor Peter Finney, said Taylor signed a contract reportedly worth $500,000 to play for the Saints. The signing took place Friday, the story said.

"We're denying it," said Don Smith, public relations director for the Saints. "I won't say we won't sign Taylor but that's not true at this stage."

However, it was learned that Taylor's agreement is a personal services contract with John W. Mecom Jr., majority owner of the Saints. Taylor's official signing of an NFL contract with the Saints probably won't come until after the league meets this coming week in New York.

"I'll have the story for you when we get back from New York," Larry Karl, another Saints official, said.

Taylor became a free agent May 1 after playing nine years college football under Paul Dietzel at LSU and makes his home in Baton Rouge.

Tommie Smith received official's congratulations after world record 440 Saturday while tired teammate Lee Evans, who finished second, sat and recuperated.

A Flying Finale At San Jose

By Darrell Wilson

There'll never be another track meet on old Spartan Field and perhaps it's just as well.

The San Jose State trackmen said goodbye Saturday with one of the great head-and-head races in 440 history. Senior Tommie Smith caught sophomore Lee Evans at the head of the stretch and led him home to set two world records, 44.5 in the 400 meters and 44.8 in the 440 yards.

Evans himself clocked 45.3, the fastest 440 of his life by five-tenths of a second.

head of the stretch.

As the crowd roared to see such speed, Smith poured coal down the long straightaway to win by four or five yards.

After the race, Tommie said he felt he would have had better time if he'd covered the first 220 in 21 flat. "I'd have died in the stretch," he said, "but I know the race would have been faster."

Evans said, "I wasn't too tired coming in to the straight, and I thought I could stay with him. But I couldn't."

A few thousand fans jammed Spartan Field's rickety facilities, many standing and some sitting four-deep in camp chairs. (A new all-weather track will be completed at a new location by next year and it is hoped there will be room for some 8000 fans, each of them sitting down.)

This is how it was when the big race came up at 2:45:

The fans, who had been gabbing all day, were completely silent as starter Tom Moore gave his instructions.

Evans, a guts-and-pride runner with good speed and rare endurance, crouched in lane four.

Smith, in our opinion the fastest man who ever lived — once clear of the blocks — was in lane three, wearing the same shades (dark glasses) he had worn while setting seven previous world records in open and relay events.

There were other fine runners in the race, but Smith and Evans had all the attention as they sought to better 44.9, world record for both the 400 meters and 440 yards.

The pressure was tremendous on both men. Evans, a few yards ahead of Tommie in the staggered start, knew that the big speed was behind him.

He knew that he must run blind (without being able to watch Tommie) to the limit of his endurance. He was afraid that sometime, somewhere the flying Smith would pull shoulder to shoulder and it would be a gut-up battle between his own strength and Smith's fabulous speed.

Tommie knew that he couldn't give Lee, rated the world's top 440 man last year, too much yardage, but he still had to save something for the stretch. Actually, Smith hasn't competed in many open 440s and he couldn't be certain when he would reach the bottom of the well.

Evans ran the first 110 in 10.7, Tommie, always slow out of the blocks, had 11.0. Evans passed the 220 in 21.5, Tommie in 21.7.

This, if ever, was the time for Smith to lower his ears and fly.

Evans, his head bobbing as he fought the track, went by the 330 in 33.8. But Smith was right behind, and he pulled even at the

As is usually the case with proud runners, Evans seemed to take the loss very hard. However, he is a much better runner than Tommie was as a soph. If Lee continues to work as much and run as hard as he has in the past, he should eventually break any record Smith sets. Evans came back Saturday to win the 220 in 21.0.

Smith prefers the 100 and 220, and he's not certain he'll go in the 440 again this year. We believe on the right day, on the right track, he could approach the high 43's in the 400 meter and the low 44's in the 440 yards.

Tommie's a rare breed. There have been fast men before, but their speed came so easily — as did Tommie's — that they were unable to go through the drudgery of preparing for great 440 times. Obviously, Tommie has done so.

At Eugene, Oregon swept the 880 and mile and went 1-3-4 in the steeplechase while getting 129 points to upset USC, 107, and UCLA, 89, in the Pac-8 conference meet. California had 48 and Stanford 32.

USC's Lennox Miller won the 100 in 9.3 and the 220 in 20.6; Neil Steinhauer put the shot 66-4/4; California's Paddy McCrary won the biggest race of his life by upsetting USC's Geoff Vanderstock in a 50.9 intermediate hurdles, and Stanford's Bud Walsh, coming through as always, took the broad jump at 24-6/2.
