

BRUIN SPIKERS MEET SAN DIEGO ST. TODAY

Exclusive to The Times from a Staff Writer

SAN DIEGO -National collegiate champion UCLA opens the outdoor track and field season here today against an undermanned San Diego State team at Balboa Stadium.

San Diego is a two-time winner of the NCAA College Division championship, but this year has been hurt by injuries and ineligibilities.

Don Shy, the No. 2 rated high hurdler in the world, is San Diego's big star. He should have little competition today as UCLA's Ron Copeland, the NCAA champion, will not hurdle because of a pulled muscle.

Shy's best time of 13.4 is only two-tenths off the world record.

The day's top race should be the 880, with San Diego's Rick Hermann (1:48.0) contesting the Bruins' Arnd Kruger (1:48.4).

A freshman dual meet will also be held concurrently with the varsity competition. First event is at 1 p.m.
