Ryun Drops Back to Distant Last on Second Lap Prior to Dropping Out; Eventual Winner Liquori Is Next to Last

Ryun Quits, Liquori Wins by a Mile

By LUTHER EVANS
Herald Sports Writer

World record holder Jim Ryun quit early in the AAU mile Sunday, then took a long walk toward what looked suspiciously like obscurity.

Villanova sophomore Marty Liquori, meanwhile, raced on to easy victory in 3:59.5 in the AAU National Outdoor Track and Field Championship and sudden recognition as new king of the nation's milers.

Ryun astounded a crowd of 10,000 spectators at Miami-Dade Junior College North Stadium by dropping back from second place to a faraway last on the backstretch of the second lap, then abandoning the race on the far turn.

The celebrated Kansas miler then picked up his wife of five months, walked a silent half-mile to his car and toolled away without heeding pleas of the media for a reason for his quitting.

Ryun returned to the stadium about 90 minutes after the meet concluded and conceded frankly:

"I just quit. It's just as simple as that.

"I was emotionally disturbed immediately afterwards and didn't want to talk to anyone."

He said he didn't know if he was going to quit running.

"I can't have too many more days like this," he said.

Just Saturday, the KU senior had conceded, "I can't be serious about track in 1969."

It was the second week in a row that Ryun failed to finish. After being upset by Liquori in the NCAA mile at Knoxville last weekend, he withdrew early in the three-mile run . . . understandable since it came less than an hour after that mile. Saturday he qualified in a lackluster 4:07.7.

Even Liquori seemed disappointed by Ryun's failure in their rematch. Obviously less exuberant than after winning the NCAA mile, Marty was asked if something was wrong.

"Yeah," he said. "Ryun was missing. I was set for Jim today, but he just wasn't there."

John Mason of the Pacific Coast Club was second

Jim Ryun's wife, Anne, laughed with eventual winner Marty Liquori, left, and husband before AAU mile, but trailing Ryun dejectedly dropped out during the second lap. It may have been his last race.

Ryun Quits for Year, May Retire

By Neil Amdur
New York Times

Miami

Discouraged by his mental collapse in the AAU one-mile run, Jim Ryun said yesterday he would cancel a European trip and all further track and field competition for this year.

"I haven't decided on retirement," the 22-year-old Kansan said, before departing with his wife, Anne, for her home in Bay Village, Ohio, outside of Cleveland. "But this could have been my last race. Right now, I think it's just better to go home and let the desire build up."

Ryun had planned to leave today for meets in Zurich and West Berlin. He had looked forward to the tour, he said, because it would be his wife's first trip abroad, and they had planned to combine the competition with sightseeing.

"We spent a lot of time last night discussing whether or not I should go," Ryun said at his hotel. "But I think, for the moment, this is the right decision. It will be the first summer I will have stayed at home or haven't trained in eight years. I'll get to know my wife again."

Ryun's decision followed the most agonizing day of his career and six months of mental and physical problems.

Running in the AAU national championships Sunday at Miami Dade Junior College, he dropped out of the file after completing less than half of the four laps.

It was the fourth time this year that the lean world record holder had walked off a track and failed to finish a major race.

Last week, in the NCAA championships at Knoxville, Tenn., Ryun had dropped out of the three-mile, an hour after finishing second to Marty Liquori of Villanova in the mile. When he quit yesterday, however, the reasons were mental, not physical.

"I was physically ready to run, but I suffered the same mental letdown that I had during the Drake Relays," Ryun said. "I can't explain it, but it just seemed that I wasn't running at the peak of my confidence."

Liquori, the 19-year-old

Olympian from Cedar Grove, N.J., won the AAU mile in 3:59.5. With Ryun withdrawing from competition, Liquori now moves from America's miler of the future to its man of the moment.

Ryun's problem was not learning how to win, but how to accept defeat. He was the first high school athlete ever to run the mile in under four minutes, and he made his first United States Olympic team while still a 17-year-old junior at Wichita (Kan.) East High School.

During the next three years, en route to world records in the mile, half-mile and 1500 meters, Ryun came to represent the same All-America symbol of quality in track and field that Don Schollander brought to swimming.

Ryun, a serious, sensitive athlete, never gave himself the opportunity for what Liquori calls "getting away from it all." And the mental strain tightened during this last indoor season when Ryun developed blisters, dropped out of the NCAA two-mile and was publicly criticized for failing to put forth full effort.

Some cynics have suggested that marriage, not injuries, moved Ryun away from his first love. To the contrary, at this point in his career Ryun's wife has been his strongest asset. If and when he returns to running, Mrs. Anne Ryun may be the person who urges him to renew the challenge.

"I'm discouraged because I've put a lot of work in," Ryun said, "but there are some things I'd like to do now. And one of these things is just to sit back and think seriously about my future."

While Ryun has abdicated his long-standing middle distance domination in obvious distress, his self-imposed retirement is probably prompted by injuries and illness.

About of mononucleosis kept him from competition much of last year and had much to do with his failure to win a Gold Medal in Mexico City, one of the major disappointments in his career.

Prefontaine

Runs Fourth

By KEN MOORE
For the Register-Guard

MIAMI — The two best three milers in the United States had just finished the National AAU 12-lap race in a near dead heat Sunday. Victor Tracy Smith congratulated Gerry Lindgren for a moment then they turned together and watched the future come charging up at them.

Marshfield High School's Steve Prefontaine, long hair flying and an eager grin on his face, stormed around Mexico's Benito Perez with a last lap of 60 seconds to claim fourth place behind Smith, Lindgren and Juan Martinez, the Mexican Olympic hero. Lindgren and Smith were caught in identical 13:18.4 clockings. Martinez had 13:35.6 and Prefontaine 13:43.0.

It was a fascinating race to watch. Jerry Jobski, Arizona State senior who went out too fast in Saturday's six-mile, again led early, but this time with restraint. The half was 2:16, the mile 4:32. Smith and Prefontaine were fifth and sixth in a closely bunched, jostling pack of 13 runners. Lindgren was poised on Jobski's shoulder and as the pace began to dawdle, he surged ahead strongly with a 65-second lap. Smith went with him and the half-way point the two Olympic veterans had forged a lead over the two Mexicans, who were followed by Oregon and Canada's Norm Trerise, Jobski and Prefontaine, who appear to be laboring. Then, Smith went by Lindgren and increased the pace further. He had a five-yard lead at two miles in 8:57 with a half-mile to go. Prefontaine passed Jobski, fading Trerise and set out after the Mexicans, while Lindgren closed the gap on Smith. At the gun lap, Gerry shot ahead but Tracy ran right with him. They stayed that way until the last curve where it looked like Smith was cracking. Lindgren drew within three yards, then five with 60 to go. But he stopped gaining and Smith roared back at him. Tracy threw himself at the tape several feet clear of the Washington Stater.

"It was my fault," said Lindgren. "I faded. But it feels great to be running well for a change." Gerry's problem stomach and injured achilles tendon appeared to be under control.

Smith said, "I couldn't believe it in the stretch. I thought he had me for sure."

Prefontaine, who may get a chance to take on the best of the Russian and British Commonwealth runners in Los Angeles in July if Smith is running in Europe, said, "It was hot and my feet hurt and that is an awfully long race, but near the end I thought, I can't come all this way without giving everything, so I took off. I was surprised I had that much left especially since I got knocked around so much in the first mile. Those Mexicans are plenty tough Jose's."

Let it be recorded that Steve gave as good as he's got.

The steeplechase was a picture of the barrier event at its roughest. Oregon graduate student Mike Manley, running for the Southern California Striders, won with a sprint that overpowered Bob Price of Oakland's Athens Club. Bill Norris was pushed into a hurdle after the mile, injured a foot and could not finish. The same fate befell interservice champion Chris McCubbins.

Steve Savage, the Oregon record holder with 8:45 in last week's NCAA, was seventh here, 10 seconds slower than last week, and had his share of flying elbows and knees.

"That's the hardest steeple I have ever run," he moaned afterward. "Bill Norris and I practically held each other up for awhile there. I was exhausted after three laps."

Manley's technique over the water jump was the key to his win. He allowed Price to pass him three times in the last mile and each time repassed him over the water, gaining at least five yards a jump. He was elated over his 8:36.6, a personal record.

"I wasn't thinking of the time," he grinned while soaking his feet in the water jump. "I felt bad with about 280 to go, but after the last jump I dropped my arms and felt better. Then I thought, 'okay Price come get me!'" He powered smoothly away from Price all the way to the tape.

Les Tipton and Gary Knoke both picked up fifth places. Les got his javelin out to 258 feet 3 inches, his best of the year while Gary hit hurdles all along the way to his 50.9 in the intermediates. He was last into the stretch but came up strongly to pass Geoff Vanderstock and Ron Whitney, both Olympians.

"Too tight yesterday, too loose today," said Gary. "I started three moves, but each time I banded the hurdle."

Davenport, Coleman Run Dead Heat in A.A.U. Meet

Saturday

By NEIL AMDUR

Special to The New York Times

MIAMI, June 28 — Ivory Crockett, a 5-foot-6-inch sprinter, ran like a giant today and upset John Carlos for a national title in the 100-yard dash.

In his first major test against top-ranking competition, the 19-year-old Crockett posted the fastest performance of his career, 9.3 seconds.

Carlos, nine inches taller and co-holder of the world record at 9.1, settled for 9.3 and second place today after leaving the starting blocks in last place. Charlie Greene, another Olympian and the defending champion, was third.

Crockett's performance typified a hectic opening day of the 81st annual Amateur Athletic Union national track and field championships at Miami-Dade Junior College North campus.

Some Surprise Victors

A crowd of 8,800 watched such surprise victors as Tom Gage in the hammer throw and Neal Steinhauer in the shot-put and such victims as a pair of Olympians, Harold Connolly and Randy Matson.

There was an unusual dead heat between Willie Davenport and Leon Coleman in the 120-yard high hurdles final and a thrilling duel on the final lap of the six-mile run between Jack Bachelier and Juan Martinez.

Davenport and Coleman were timed in 13.3 seconds and shared the national crown. Erv Hall, third member of the American Olympic trio, was a close third.

Bachelier Wins By 4 Yards

Bachelier and Martinez ran 24 laps around the all-weather track. On the 24th lap, the two runners began a sprint that lasted until the final straightaway when the 6-foot-6-inch American caught and passed his shorter Mexican rival for a 4-yard victory. Bachelier's time was 28 minutes 12.2 seconds. An early evening starting time and occasional wind gusts provided some relief for the athletes in the six-mile. But the sunny 89-degree tropical weather had its effect on many of the competitors and spectators.

By the end of the day, the crowd had consumed every available Coke (some were even charged 25 cents for a cup of ice), and the athletes had emptied all of the large Thermos jugs of thirst-quenching drinks, Gatorade and Sportade.

18-Foot Vault Elusive

For the second consecutive week, Bob Seagren flirted with the elusive 18-foot mark in the pole vault.

John Pennel, the pending world record-holder, and Casey Carrigan, the Washington schoolboy, failed in three attempts at 17-6 after Seagren cleared the crossbar on his first attempt.

Seagren, who won the National Collegiate title, made two strong attempts at 18 feet 3/4 inches. But, just as he did at Knoxville last week, Seagren cleared the crossbar only to brush it with his jersey and watch it fall into the portable pit.

Seagren's frustrations continued on his third attempt when he kicked off the bar on his ascent and was brushed across the mouth by the bar on his descent.

Despite the failure, however, Seagren showed that the 18-foot barrier is within reach, that timing and finesse at the top are as important as strength and swing at the bottom.

It would be ironic if Seagren or Pennel achieved track and field's version of outer space on the same weekend that man lands on the moon.

The next major meet will be a triangular meet among the United States, the Soviet Union and the British Commonwealth on July 18-19 in Los Angeles. United States astronauts are scheduled to land on the lunar surface that weekend.

Crockett Fast Starter

The tipoff to Crockett's talent came two weeks ago during the United States Track and Field Federation championships in Lexington, Ky. Crockett won the 100, showed unusual strength for his size, and looked exceptionally quick off the starting blocks.

A product of Webster Groves, Mo., Crockett will attend Southern Illinois University in the fall. He was ineligible for the N.C.A.A. meet last year. It was his first meeting with Carlos and will be an encouraging sign for the remainder of the summer when he joins Carlos for international meets in Los Angeles and Europe.

"I wanted this one bad today," Crockett said. "I needed this to prove myself, and I did."

Gage, a 26-year-old chemical engineer, needed the victory to win his way back into his house.

"My wife told me not to come home unless I threw 230 feet," the New York Athletic Club athlete said. Gage did not throw 230, but his 228-5 was the finest of his career and overpowered the performances of George Frenn, Connolly and Al Hall, the indoor 35-pound weight throw titleholder.

Liquori, Ryun Gain Final

Qualifying trials in the mile, half-mile and 440-yard dash went as expected, thus assuring three exciting finals for tomorrow's second day of national television.

Marty Liquori and Jim Ryun ran effortlessly in separate heats of the mile; Byron Dyce, Felix Johnson and Mark Winzenreid led the 880 field; Lee Evans and Larry James, the Olympic gold and silver medalists, respectively, will renew their duel in the 440, without Curtis Mills but with an eye on Mills's fresh 44.7-second world record set last week at the N.C.A.A. meet in Knoxville, Tenn.

An interesting aspect of the 880 were the performances of Brian McElroy and Marcel Philippe, two recent high school graduates and standouts from the metropolitan area.

Both survived their initial trial heats in the 880. McElroy from Massapequa, L. I., ran 1:50.8; Philippe, from Mater Christi High, was clocked in 1:51.6. But the pressure of running a semi-final two hours later proved too formidable, and neither reached the final.

Races Filled With Drama

The 100-yard dash and 120-yard high hurdles were filled with drama and excitement.

In an early trial heat, Carlos had fallen asleep in the blocks. But the starter recalled the runners and Carlos then moved out and won his heat.

Moments before the 100 final, a loud roar went up from across the track where a pole vaulter had just cleared 16 feet.

"That shouting distracted me," Carlos said afterward. "It shook up my concentration."

The cheering failed to disturb Crockett. As in the two earlier heats, he was quick off the blocks. Carlos, running in the farthest lane from the curb, accelerated strongly in the straightaway and began to close in on his younger rival about 30 yards from the tape.

But as they reached the finish line, Crockett still was driving and inches ahead.

"I was just trying to get a place," Carlos said. "I had to come from way back. I could barely hear the starter giving the commands."

The high hurdles race was the finest since Mexico City, when a United States trio, led by Davenport, finished first, second and fourth.

The pattern of today's final was typical of previous races: Coleman took the early lead, Hall ran consistently and Davenport drove from behind.

In 29 of his previous 30 races, Davenport had caught and passed his rivals. Coleman won the odd race earlier this spring.

Davenport reached Coleman and Hall halfway through today's race. The three ran side-by-side and crossed the finish in unison, Hall diving on the outside, Davenport driving and Coleman smiling.

Coleman grabbed the thin strand of twine used for the finish and waved it as a sign of victory. But even the Bulova Photo - Timer, after careful scrutiny for more than 30 minutes, could not distinguish between Coleman and Davenport.

Hall was inches back. He was awarded a time of 13.5, the same as Richmond Flowers. But Flowers was at least two yards back, and a 13.3 for Hall would have been more appropriate.

SEAGREN LAMENT: 'FELT I WAS OVER'

Vaulter Is Unhappy at Barely Missing at 18 Feet

Special to The New York Times

MIAMI, June 28—The wind was awful, the heat oppressive and his stomach hurt. But Bob Seagren came as close as humanly possible to pole-vaulting 18 feet today at the Amateur Athletic Union's national track and field championships.

The 22-year-old Seagren took only five vaults all day. His first was at 17 feet, and he cleared the bar. His next was at 17-6, and he made that one, too, to win first place.

Then the bar was raised to 18-¾ as more than 2,000 of the 8,800 spectators remained to watch, hopefully, history's first 18-foot vault.

Three times Seagren tried and three times he missed, but the first attempt was nearly it. He cleared the bar, he landed in the pit and was bouncing out when the bar fell, almost as an afterthought.

Seagren shook his fist at the bar. He jumped up and down in anger. He walked away, eyes down, shaking his head.

"I felt I was way over," he said. "I don't know what I hit the bar with—my arm, I guess."

The next attempt was close, too. The third wasn't. Seagren walked quickly away from the pit, hit his pole as if to punish it, then stretched out on the infield, his eyes shut, like a fighter who had been knocked out.

Within seconds the anger disappeared and was replaced by disappointment. For Seagren, a blond senior at the University of Southern California, is a soft-spoken, gentle young man, the antithesis of the beat generation.

"Aw, now I have to go to Europe," he said. "If I made 18 feet here, I was going to jump once more — against the Russians at Los Angeles — and then quit, maybe for a year and maybe for good. But now I'll vault in two or three meets in Europe, after the Russian meet, so I can get more chances to make it."

The wind hampered all the vaulters.

"It came from all directions," said Seagren. "It was horrible. I said I would talk myself out of it, but I really didn't."

A greater problem for Seagren was a pulled stomach muscle that has bothered him all season. After his first vault, he trotted to the trainers' tent for help.

"It felt like the muscle was pulling apart," Seagren said. "A doctor told me a month ago that I couldn't hurt myself permanently by competing with it, but it's distracting. It really breaks my concentration."

Seagren concentrated enough to win, but not enough to get what he wanted most. He has broken the world record indoors and outdoors nine times (John Pennel broke Seagren's world outdoor record a week ago with a vault of 17-10¼). He has won all sorts of A.A.U. and National Collegiate titles.

Gage Felt He Could Win—And Did

By FRANK LITSKY

Special to The New York Times

MIAMI, June 28—Between throws today, Hal Connolly walked under the hot sun, head down, telling himself over and over that a 10-time national champion should be doing better. George Frenn walked a different route, stalking like a caged tiger and trying to talk himself into improvement.

Tom Gage just stood in the shade, calm, almost disinterested. He was about to upset the two hammer-throw favorites in the Amateur Athletic Union's national track and field championships for his first national title. But you would never know it.

"I have a bad temper," said Gage, "but I'm not emotional. I came here thinking I possibly would win, but I don't get psyched up that much. I don't really know how to express my desire. It goes a lot deeper than just winning this meet."

Rash Words and Deeds

Gage looked relaxed. His track shoes had taken such a beating from three years of wear and exposure to rain that they had grown half a size. While Connolly wore a blue USA and Frenn a red AAU shirt, Gage wore a plain white T shirt over a mesh shirt.

Connolly and Frenn are individualists given to rash words and deeds. Hammer throwing is a passion with them. Not so with Gage. He competed in only two previous meets this season, the first with only three days of workouts and the second against little opposition.

"I'm a chemical engineer," said Gage. "In the last seven months, I have been moved from Billings, Mont., to San Francisco to Baton Rouge, La. I can't get to weekday meets. So I'm not strong enough and not in the best of shape."

Gage is 26 years old, 6 feet 2 inches and 225 pounds (a little paunchy," he says). At Cornell, where he received a bachelor's degree in 1965 and a master's degree in 1966, he was an Intercollegiate champion and proficient in every weight event, indoor and out.

In 1967, he won the Pan-American Games title. Last year, the day before the United States Olympic trials, his father died, and Gage flew home. So his international experience is limited.

By winning here, he qualified for the United States team that will face the Soviet and Commonwealth nations next month and then tour Europe. However, he said he would pass up the European trip because he could not take the time from work.

Gage's winning throw of 228 feet 5 inches was his best ever. Only two men in America (Connolly and the absent Ed Burke) and 13 in the world have ever done better.

Frenn's second-place throw of 227-2 was a career best, too. Until the end, his confidence never wavered. During the trials, he watched his rivals closely.

"Why am I watching?" he said. "To learn how slow they are and how fast I have to be. This event is all speed."

When Gage threw 221-6 on his second throw, the crowd cheered loudly.

"If they're happy with that," said Frenn, "wait till they see what I throw."

They waited, they saw and they liked. Frenn liked his distance but not his second place.

"This is the fourth time I've finished second in this meet," he said. "But at least I beat Connolly. Hell, I'll bet he's won this meet 30 times. It's ridiculous."

But the big prize went to Gage, a bear of a man with a bright future with the hammer and with his employer, the Humble Oil Company.

"You work for Humble?" a listener said. "I haven't paid them last month's gasoline bill yet."

"Neither," said Tom Gage, "have I."
