I was skeptical all along, but from all of my checking through Monday, it seemed illegitimate. Turns out now that the Wenatchee 220 (20.9 and 21.1 for Spokane JC runners) was 214 yards. On ~~100~~ ⁴⁰⁰ yard track, they started them from intermediate hurdles staggers, not 220 start. This wasn't discovered until high school JV runner ran 23.6 on Wednesday and they started getting suspicious.

Again, sorry. I should have followed my ~~own~~ hunches and waited a week longer -- but the 20.9 was worth the national lead.
