Carlos won outstanding athlete award

Greene had good pick-up; started evenly; halfway turned on, held off Carlos rush

200--Carlos ran turn like only Carlos can; Norman said he caught me at same place as in Olympics; 6-7 yds into stretch

Burentt challenged James

HH--Coleman way well, Dav held lead by 4th; very close; Hall's spike caught Dav left hand, needed 4 stitches;; Hall dropped off suddenly may have been that; received NY Track Writers award for outstanding indoor athlete 68-69

Savage went out in 53.0 as he said he would; Murph took lead after $\frac{1}{4}$, led until middle of last turn; German had most left

Liq, Mason had no trouble

Bachaeler was most impressive; 4.30 1st mile, Bach just kept right on going; over 80, just looked so easy

DT- Oerter had several unmeasured throws around 200'

LJ and TJ and PV--all headed into wind; didn't help jumpers
