Trials

MOUNTAIN VIEW —

Strength in the field events helped host St. Francis High qualify 19 men for Saturday's West Catholic Athletic League track championships in the trials here Wednesday.

The 19 qualifiers for the dual-meet champion Lancers is seven more than Bellarmine and eight more than Serra.

In true trials fashion, the times were not outstanding as seedings and heats combined to limit the competition.

St. Francis

Grabs WCAL

Track Title

Host St. Francis High used superior depth to hold off a tightly packed field in the West Catholic Athletic League Track and Field Championships yesterday.

The Lancers took five first places — three of these in field events — while rolling up 72 points to second place Riordan's 59. Serra finished third with 47½ and Bellarmine fourth at 44½.

Two Riordan Crusaders broke league marks. Junior phenom Carl Braboy clicked off a record 19.5 in the 180 low hurdles and Dennis O'Sullivan rewrote the 220 standard with a 22.6. Braboy also won the century in 10.0.

Serra three-sport star Lynn Swann won the long jump with a 22-6 leap and placed second in both hurdles.
