Trailing by 30 yards starting the last lap, Villanova's Marty Liquori passed fading Olympic champion Kip Keino midway through the stretch to win the 1,500-meter race at the second annual Martin Luther King Games Saturday at Villanova Stadium.

Liquori upheld his ranking as the world's best at 1,500 meters as he finished 10 yards ahead of Keino, who almost came to a stop 30 yards from the finish and then picked up enough speed to last for second over Villanova's Chris Mason, Byron Dyce of United AA, New York, finished fourth.

Texans Triumph

Liquori was timed in 3:42.6 with Keino, the police sergeant from Kenya, running the distance in 3:43.8. Mason's time was 3:44.1 and Dyce's 3:44.3.

Texas A&M's 440 and mile relay teams won impressively in the meet honoring the memory of Dr. King, the late civil rights leader.

The only individual double winner was sprinter John Carlos, who took the 100-meter dash in 10.1 and the 200-meter event in 20.4.

Olympic champions Bob Beamon won the long jump with a leap of 25 feet, 5 3/4 inches; Lee Evans the 400 meters in 45.6, and Willie Davenport the 110-meter hurdles in 13.5.

The big event, however, for a crowd of 10,500, was between Liquori and Keino, who won the 1968 Olympic Games event with Liquori limping in last on a game leg.

The Kenyan's strategy was to steal a big lead and let the others catch him.

Texas A&M and Villanova put on a thrilling mile relay duel, the Aggies winning by a stride in 3:08.3. Villanova was a tenth of a second away in 3:08.3 as A&M's Curtis Mills overtook Villanova's Larry James in the home stretch. Mills ran a 45.4 anchor leg to 45.7 for James.
