Portland, Ore., Jan. 30 /from Bob Forbes/--The Oregon Invitational upheld its tradition as one of the finest long-distance meets in the country as ~~Steve Prefontaine blasted an~~ 8:31.6 two-mile, equal sixth-fastest undercover effort ever. Following the early pace-setting of Gerry Lindgren, Pre ssion shook all challengers, passing the mile mark in 4:15 and the one and three-quarter-mile post in 7:29. Completely annihilating the classy field, Pre lapped both Lindgren and Ken Moore, and left second-placer Arne Kvalheim far in arrears at 8:48.6. After the race, a grinning Pre said, "Yah, I might as well admit it, I was shooting for the world record." Talk is rampant now in Oregon of a Pre-George Young conforntation.

~~Chapter four of the Randy Matson-Al Feuerbach show~~

Scene four of the Randy Matson-Al Feuerbach show was no less exciting ~~as~~ <sup>than</sup> any of the others, as ~~the~~ the lead changed hands three times, with Matson again coming out on top, 68'2 $\frac{3}{4}$ " to 67'8". Feuerbach opened with 66'4 $\frac{1}{4}$ ", ~~which help~~ <sup>which</sup> up until Matson's 66'8 $\frac{1}{4}$ " toss in the third round. Displaying the great competitive spirit between the two, Feuerbach came right back with 67'3 $\frac{1}{2}$ " which Matson topped with 68'0". ~~Feuerbach~~ That decided the final outcome, but Feuerbach got his Best of 67'8" in the ~~next round~~ very next round. Matson's top toss of 68'2 $\frac{3}{4}$ " came in the last round.

Australina Peter Wright took the high jump at 6'9 $\frac{1}{2}$ " after Reynaldo Brown failed to negotiate that height in three atempts. ~~As Wright~~ <sup>officially</sup> As the ~~left-footed~~ right-footed Wright prepared for his initial attempt at 7'0", Brown suddenly bounded in from the left side, clearing easily, although out of the competition. ~~Announced Wright failed~~

Bouncy Moore finished behid Henry Hines in the long jump, 24'11 $\frac{1}{4}$ " to 24'6 $\frac{1}{4}$ ", but had three long fouls of 26'8" 26'0" and 25'10", <sup>in his first</sup>

Competition of the season.
