

Second Place Vault

Lifts Unbeaten Leigh

3/4

Roger Martin heads the Central Coast Section in pole vaulting, and Friday he won his specialty with a 13-0 vault.

But it was Mike Oliver's 12-6 second place finish in the event which was the deciding factor as Leigh posted a 66-65 victory over previously unbeaten Camden.

The triumph kept the Longhorns in a first place tie with Westmont, which ran past Saratoga 82-64 in another of the top meets of the day.

Both Leigh and Westmont have 3-0 WVL records and moved them closer to the May 1 showdown that could be for all the marbles.

Leigh's Rick Miller was the meet's only double-winner. He flashed to a 22.9 clocking in the 220 and came back later to capture the long jump with a leap of 21-2.

Westmont, meanwhile, showed power in the field events—winning them all to outdistance the Falcons.

In one of the best individual performances of the day, Mount Pleasant's sophomore high jump sensation, Joe Wyrick, turned in the season's second best jump—6-4.

On his attempt to clear 6-6, Wyrick was three to four inches above the bar, but knocked it down with his hand on the descent.

"This kid has all kinds of potential," Mount Pleasant coach Rick Kennealy said after the meet in which the Cardinals beat Bellarmine 94-42.

In the Santa Teresa League Relays, Live Oak came out with the team title, amassing 56 points to Leland's 54.

The day's top mark in the unique meet was Val Lopez 45-1 mark in the triple jump.
