

Scots Host Area Track Powers

Much of the Bay Area's finest prep team track talent assembles tomorrow for the 10th annual Carlmont Relays at the Scots' Belmont oval.

Carlmont coach Loren Lansberry has lined up an extremely tough field for the all-relay classic, co-sponsored by Carlmont and the Belmont Rotary Club. Field events begin at 9 a.m. with track events an hour later.

Defending champion Berkeley,

Carlmont, Los Altos, El Cerrito and St. Ignatius all are unbeaten in dual meet competition this season. They'll be joined by Burlingame.

Because of the great depth needed in a relays meet, tabbing a favorite is usually risky, but El Cerrito may have enough sprint, hurdle and jump strength to win. Fourteen events, including all six in the field, will be contested by four-man teams from each school.

Scot runners Steve Miller, Carl Cattarin, Bruce Sayre, Russ Black, Ed Barney, Chuck Oliver and Dana Carvey make Carlmont a big threat in the two, four and eight-mile relays.

Paul Dempster, Jack Lennen, Chris Willett and Jim Katches also figure to produce a pole vault relay champ for the Scots.

Los Altos' four-mile relay team should give Carlmont a tremendous challenge, with Dan Slavin (4:21), Chris Berka (4:22), Jeff Norton (4:22) and Clayton Lockhart (4:35) in tow. Only Miller (4:18.7) is under 4:25 for the Scot.

Led by Scott Overton, whose 195-4 discus throw is reportedly the nation's best this season, Los Altos also has a strong platter crew including Randy Patterson, Jay Pushkin and John Goodenough.

Other top talent includes Carlmont shot putter Paul Brandow and high jumper Ervin Brown, Los Altos hurdler John Foster (14.6), El Cerrito hurdler Steve Woods, sprinter Mel Watson, and 880 man Dale Scott (1:52.0), and Berkeley discus thrower Charles Jackson (174-0), long jumper Mark Leghorn (22-3) and high jumper Ed Shaffer.

Carlmont's Miller leads SPAL competitors in three events, according to the season's first list of loop bests printed below. Miller has a 1:57.4 in the 880 and a 9:14.0 in the two-mile as well as his mile clocking.

The Scots have the top SPAL mak in eight of 16 events. San Carlos' Bruce Veal leads with a 22.6 in the 220 and 22-1 $\frac{3}{4}$ long jump and also anchored the Dons' league-leading 3:27.4 mile relay team.
