Despite rainouts and mud, CALIFORNIA has had several impressive marks. The Arcadia Invitational showcased the best in the southern California area. Regina Jordan (Muir) won the 100 in 11.4 over teammate Brown (11.5). Barbara Moore (Royal) collected the 440 in 57.8 over CIF "team" champion Pam Curran (LaReina) in 58.8. Karen Moore (Royal) claimed the 880 in 2:18.1 over Laura Johnson (Esperanza) in 2:18.5, Debbie Porter (Simi Valley) 2:18.7, Kathy Chisam (Arcadia) 2:20.2. In the mile, Chris Troffer (Crescenta Valley) won in 5:19.0 to beat Porter (5:20.7) and teammate Fisanotti in 5:20.9. Muir took the 440 relay in 49.8 and Barbara Moore anchored Royal to a 1:49.9 medley win. Julie Lendl of Royal won the high jump at 5'4, Curran took the long jump at 17'3 $\frac{3}{4}$ over Arcadia's Barbara Sinclair (17'3 $\frac{1}{2}$ - but with a best of 17'11 $\frac{1}{2}$ this year), and Kay Ilertson (Valencia) won the 8# SP at 41'0.

At the Redondo Invitational, host Terri Anderson ran an 11:56.2 two mile to beat teammate Catie Cakebread (12:04.6). Palos Verdes won the mile in the mud in 4:14.0, six seconds up on second place.
