

Dons, Camden WVL champs

To no one's surprise, Del Mar (and Bert Tardieu) and Camden (and Ann Regan) stood out in Thursday's West Valley League track finals.

Del Mar took the boys' title after a tight battle with Leigh, and Camden easily won the girls' half of the meet, leaving second-place Prospect 46½ points behind.

Leading their respective teams to championships were Tardieu and Regan, two of the meet's brightest stars. Tardieu won the low hurdles and the pole vault, going 16-0 in the latter, while Regan took the girls' 440, 880, mile and anchored Camden's winning mile relay, which broke its own Central Coast Section best by one-tenth of a second with a 4:02.4.
