US/USSR JUNIOR MEET

June 29-30: Bakersfield Memorial Stadium:

Two southern California prepsters, Jeff West (Crenshaw) and Lee Balkin (Glendale) scored impressive victories at the USA/USSR junior dual meet. Their efforts, however, weren't enough to lead the American squad to victory, losing 201 to 190. The US men did come out on top 120 to 114, but the gals slipped to an 87-70 loss.

The combined victory moved the Soviets into a 4-4 tie with the Americans in the overall junior series, for men under 20 and women under 19. The US men extended their lead to 6-3, the Soviet women theirs to 6-2.

West was dynamic in his 1:48.2 800 meter victory. His legs cramped during the final meters, but he had plenty of room to breeze in.

Balkin, the 79 California prep state champ, leaped over 7-2 $\frac{1}{4}$ in the high jump and in the process beat all time prep high jump record holder Gail Olsen now of the University of Illinois who settled for second with 6-11 $\frac{3}{4}$.

The youngest athlete of the meet was 14 year old Denean Howard of San Geronio High School in San Bernardino. She didn't let her age hamper her as she placed second in the 400 with 54.25. behind San Francisco's Marion Franklin who ran 53.46 for the win.

Larry Cowling of Sacramento and Cal Berkeley was in good shape in the intermediates and looked to be a sure second place when he hit the eighth hurdle and did not finish.
