All-Comers Meet

by Conrad Lopez
March 1, Bud Winter Field, San Jose State University.

Bruce Kennedy, filled with aspiration representing the United States a Moscow, set a stadium record with a ifetime best of 269-8 in the javelin lifetime best of 269-8 in the javelin Mark Murro of Mesa Junior College on May 4, 1968.
Kennedy's record-breaking heave was the highlight of the meet, which appeared o be nothing more than a tune up for the against the University of California.
Turning in fine performances for the Spartans were sophomores Essodina Atchade and Felix Bohni. Atchade was an easy winner in the long jump leaping $25-11 / 2$, and Bohi cleared $17-4$ to take the pole vault.
The meet, which included members o the Icelandic Olympic team, had a pair o ouble winners in Vernon Sallez and Bar and 800 in 1.52 .2 and Williams captured the 400 in 47.2 and 200 in 21.6. Both runners competed unattached.
Adding fine marks in the weights were Burns (UNAT) in the discus with best of 194-0 and Ken Stadel (UNAT) won the shot put at 59-7.

March 3. Stanford, San Jose State, Cal State Hayward at Stanford.
By the reaction of San Jose State coach that his Spartans had just lost their firs two dual meets of the season. But they didn't; they won, defeating a surprisingly strong Stanford team 85-77 and over powering Cal. State Hayward 113-49.
"We're not a good track team righ now. We are much better than what we showed today," said Bullard dejectedly. showed today, said Bullard dejectedly.
Meanwhile Stanford coach Brooks Johnson, making his debut as the director of son, making his debut as the director of the squad, was elated. "We basically won every event on the track beyond the 100 every event on the track beyond the 100 meters," said a jubilant Johnson. "W are delighted at the results. We were in every race. And we had no right to expect to be this productive so early in the season," he added.
Stanford had a shot at defeating the Spartans with only the discus remaining But San Jose State finished 1-2 to seal the win behind the efforts of Paul Bishop Hardly intimidated by the Hardly strong Spartans, the characterist captured seven events. Sprinter Gordon Banks took the 400 in 48.05 followed by victory in the 200 in 21.42. Darrin Nelson appearing fully recuperated from his tendon injury of last season, claimed second in 21.44. In the 300, Stanford's John Schaer won in 1:49.7 with teammate Tom Lobsinger finishing in a new mee record $3: 48.8$ in the 1,500 . The Cardinals other winners included Bill Gail in the 5,000 (14:36.6), Rick Buss in the in the with a meet record launch of 198-0 and Gary Shumway in the intermediates (52.47). Despite Bullard's dismay the Spartans were not without their bright spots. Ken Thomas won the 100 in 10.75 with Willie Jackson tying for second with Nelson in
