A LACK OF EFFORT?

Seattle, April 14—He wins the race but is disqualified under the NCAA's "honest effort" rule?! That's what happened to Oregon's Kevin Willhite against Washington in the 4 x 100. The Huskies had false-started out of the race, so the Duck anchor took it easy and got red-flagged.

While a very strict application of the NCAA's rule might make the call seem like a good one, it certainly opens the door for a whole can of worms. How about a field eventer who gets a good one, then passes his last 5? How about people who intentionally foul a poor throw? Scary.

ARIZONA STATE NIPS CAL

Tempe, April 14—In a tight Pac-10 battle, 1st-places were the key for Arizona State, as a 13-6 edge in that department gave the Sun Devils a close win over Cal, which was without star hurdler Leonard Robinson, who is out with a pulled hamstring and may redshirt.

BRENNER BEATS LAUT

Los Angeles, April 15—Current UCLA star John Brenner handed UCLA alum Dave Laut, who happens to co-hold the AR, a defeat, with Laut coming out of the whole affair with a strain in his back. "I knew John would be going for it," said Laut, whose back was a bit sore from a squat workout. "I thought I could just relax and take it a little easier. So John hits 69-10½ on his first throw and that got the old competitiveness going in me; so I pressed it and just strained the strain." Laut could do no better than 68-2.

CRUZ'S BEST 1500 YET

Berkeley, April 21—The plan was for a 3:36, but Joaquim Cruz was still happy enough with his Brazilian Record 3:37.72 as he slashed the dual meet 1500 record for the third time this year. A 57.8 opener put him clear of the field, and that was that. "It's hard to run fast all by yourself," said Cruz. Teammate Jim Hill took over the collegiate 5000 lead with his 13:34.5.

Tempe, April 21—Unheralded Arizona senior Rod Barksdale opened lots of eyes as he blazed a half lap in a world-leading 20.35, leaving a quality sprinter like Kenny Robinson (20.92) far in his wake. Barksdale's previous best was 20.58(A). Barksdale also won the 400 in 46.18 as his team beat Arizona State 86-77. State's Ken Frazier was no slouch, taking the collegiate lead in the long jump (26-8½) and tripling 53-4 for 2nd.

COLLEGIATE DUAL MEETS

Slow starting is the best description of this year's collegiate dual meet season, particularly on the women's side. Too many Olympic-year red-shirts perhaps?

One runner not slow starting is Oregon's Joaquim Cruz, who has already twice lowered the dual meet 1500 standard.

TULLY TAKING IT SERIOUSLY

Los Angeles, March 11—Olympic years tend to bring out the best in people, especially veterans. Twenty-six-year old Mike Tully has been vaulting at international class for nearly a decade, but only once has he gone higher than the 18-8½ he cleared here today as a guest competitor. That was his ill-fated 18-8½ of 1978 which lost WR status on a technicality.

In the main portion of the meet, host UCLA crushed Cal State Long Beach and Cal State Bakersfield.

VILHJALMSSON BEATS PETRANOFF

Los Angeles, March 18—Defending NCAA champ Einar Vilhjalmsson took the measure of WR holder Tom Petranoff (competing as a guest) in the UCLA-Texas dual. It may not mean that much, as Petranoff, not wanting to peak too early, took only a partial runoff. "My first real competition will be the UCLA/Pepsi meet," he said. "I'll take a full run then on my last throw."

Riding the arms of its weightmen, UCLA won the meet 91-62, with unheralded Brian Muir arriving on the scene as a real force with his big 67-6¼.

CRUZ RECORD NOT ENOUGH FOR DUCKS

Eugene, March 31—Washington State and Oregon went 1-2 in our collegiate dual meet rankings last year. A convincing victory here today puts the Cougars a long way towards a successful defense.

The best individual performer, however, was a Duck, as Brazilian soph Joaquim Cruz sped to the fastest 1500 ever in a dual meet, 3:38.43. That lowered the 3:39.4 which he had turned in just the week before. Teammate Jim Hill showed a good turn of speed as he covered the last 440 in 52.0 to beat Peter Koeh in the 5000 in 13:53.77. Washington State got good double wins from Joseph Taiwo and Dimitrios Koutsoukis.

GOLDEN BEAR MEET OF CHAMPIONS

Berkeley, March 24-25—In the mid-'70s, Cathy Sulinski was one of the brightest young javelin hopes in the country, but injury kept her from achieving her potential. In 1982, in this meet, despite not being able to take all her throws because of torn elbow tendons, she handed Karin Smith one of her rare U.S. losses. In her first meet since then, she showed she still has something left, winning at 180-5.
