THE CIF: Doing the Job for Prep Sports Since 1914

In 1914, as high school athletic teams began crossing district lines to compete with neighboring schools, the CIF was established to provide consistency in sports rules and a safe, rewarding environment for young California athletes. Since that beginning, with fewer than 20,000 athletes, the organization has grown to become the largest youth agency in the state, serving over 500,000 young student-athletes each year.

During dynamic growth years, the CIF saw participation in high school sports double (for both boys and girls) between 1965-1975, and, although since 1978 some leveling-off has occurred in numbers of students participating, indications are that such a trend is due more to a lack of available school programs rather than to a lack of interest or desire on the students' part.

Few Californians realize that the CIF, the sole administrative body of interscholastic athletics, is an independent organization that has been carefully structured to provide needed services to the youth of the state without placing unfair burdens on the public education system. Athletic programs conducted in all 1200 secondary-schools in the state do not exist simply because students desire to participate in sports. The CIF utilizes the volunteer services of over 10,000 persons who are charged with the task of ensuring effective athletic programs for all of the public, private, and parochial high schools of the state.

As a result of effective planning, sound program administration, and a determination to support the philosophy that all student-athletes in our state should be provided with equal participation opportunities, the CIF has propelled California into uncontested leadership in the nurturing of outstanding athletes. Former and current California high school athletes hold more national records than do students from any other state – and our youngsters continue to be highly recruited by top-notch universities across the country. Many of the names are legend – Amy Alcott, Rick Monday, Bill Walton, Pat Haden, John McKay, Scott McGregor, Ron Cuccia, Jill Sterkel, Sherri Howard; all former CIF athletes, all outstanding men and women of whom Californians can be proud.

Although the CIF has been serving California youth for nearly 70 years and can boast of having over four million "alumni," many are unaware of the diversity of CIF administrative responsibility. Day-to-day activities of the CIF state office in Fullerton include enforcing regulations, establishing state calendars of events, arranging and supervising state championships in four sports, maintaining individual and team sports records, providing publicity to the media, publishing the State News, and maintaining legal and insurance services which ensure the very existence of prep sports. In addition, 10 section commissioners throughout the state maintain full-time schedules to ensure that prep athletic events in their areas are operated effectively, safely, and consistently.

The support of the California public has been responsible for the success and expansion of California athletic programs for 68 years. With the continued cooperation and dedication of school superintendents, principals, and athletic directors, as well as the keen interest of over one-half million students and their families each year, the future of prep sports would appear to be bright and healthy. The CIF urges you to lend your support to our young student-athletes by attending high school sporting events in your community on a regular basis. The CIF welcomes you to this championship event; a showcase of some of our finest young California athletes – our nation's future leaders.

CIF LOS ANGELES SECTION DIRECTOR OF INTERSCHOLASTIC ATHLETICS JAMES CHEFFERS SERVES AS HONORARY REFEREE OF TODAY'S 66TH ANNUAL STATE TRACK & FIELD CHAMPIONSHIPS

By JERRY WEINER

Sports Information Director, CIF Los Angeles Section

James Cheffers, Director of Interscholastic Athletics for the CIF Los Angeles Section for the past 12 years, is being honored today as Honorary Referee for the 66th Annual California Interscholastic Federation High School Track and Field Championships. Cheffers, 61, has long been recognized as one of the outstanding leaders in California high school athletics and has been recognized with a considerable number of distinctions.

Born in Cornwall, England, Cheffers came to the United States at the age of two, attended Huntington Park High School, where he lettered two years each in football (2nd team All-Eastern League tackle), and baseball (outfielder). He attended Compton Community College for two years, playing tackle, and earned his bachelor's degree in physical education at Whittier College, where he was a 2nd team All-Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference tackle after completing a stint of military service during World War II. He also holds a master's degree, obtained from University of Southern California in 1956.

He began his teaching career at Mark Twain Junior High School in Venice in 1950, transferring to Roosevelt High School in 1951, where he remained until assigned to the Interscholastic Athletics Office in February, 1963. After one year as Bee football coach and three as varsity assistant, he took over as head varsity coach in 1955, winning an Eastern League championship in 1959 and producing numerous title contenders. In his eight-year stay, he developed such later college backfield stars as All-American and Heisman Trophy winner Mike Garrett (USC) and Almo Thompson (UCLA).

Following 9½ years as consultant and specialist in the Athletics Office, Cheffers was named to succeed retiring Guy Wrinkle as director in July, 1972. Since he has been chief architect of the nation's second largest one-city program, girls' athletics has proliferated, boys' wrestling, soccer and volleyball have achieved popularity and wide acceptance, and the partitioning of football, basketball and baseball into 4-A, 3-A and 2-A (football) has increased the number of teams involved in post-season playoffs.

A past president of the Los Angeles Coaches Association, vice-president for athletics of CAPHER (California Athletics, Physical Education, Health and Recreation), Cheffers has been on the Football Rules Committee of the National Association, has served on the Federated Council of CIF, and is current chairman of commissioners. He was formerly Commissioner of the Southern California (Community College) Conference and a Pacific-10 Conference official (umpire, field judge, back judge).

Cheffers and his wife of 31 years, Shirley, reside in Whittier. They have three children, Lynn, Carl and Beth.

SIX-MEDAL GAL — Fullerton's Natalie Kaaiawahia won the shot put and discus throw in the 1983 State CIF Championships to become only the second athlete in meet history to win six first-place medals in her high school career. Only other to accomplish that feat was Clarence (Bud) Houser of Oxnard, shot put and discus (1920-22).

CIF CONGRATULATES TORCZON AND KERKORIAN

AMY TORCZON
Taft Union High School

MICHAEL GARY KERKORIAN
San Joaquin Memorial High School

It is with great pride that the State CIF salutes Ms. Amy Torczon and Mr. Michael Kerkorian, the 1983-1984 Scholar-Athletes Of The Year. When the CIF established the award it was agreed that the one young woman and one young man selected would be those two who had best attained their full potential as both student and athlete, and whose high school scholastic and athletic records indicated a bright, productive future.

To qualify as a candidate, the student-athlete was required to have maintained a 3.70 overall grade point average, have played varsity-level sports in California for at least two years, have a record of good citizenship and possess a high degree of personal integrity. Candidates were also required to submit recommendations from a coach, an athletic director, academic counselor, principal and a brief essay on "The Value of Participation in High School Athletics."

We at the State CIF salute the 1983-1984 candidates, finalists and winners and wish them every success in their continuing pursuit of academic and athletic excellence.
