Plato Yanicks was not surprised that his Menlo-Atherton High School boys' track team defeated East Bay power Berkeley Thursday at M-A.

However, Yanicks was surprised by M-A's 84-50 margin of victory.

"I was expecting a close meet, one I thought we had a chance to win before the mile relay," Yanicks said. "I knew they had sprinters and distance runners, but they didn't have the hurdlers or jumpers I thought they would have.

"I've been talking this meet up all season. We've had posters calling attention to the meet and we did compete really well today."

Victor Hudson gave M-A depth by running into the strength of the Berkeley team. He was second to Yellow Jackets' ace Darren Minor in the 100- and 220-yard dashes and to Charles Adams in the 440.

M-A's Colin Rudolph won the high hurdles (15.82), high jump (6-0) and triple jump (38-7½). Rudolph also was second in the jumping events.

M-A's Roland Anderson took the shot put (53-8½) and discus (153-10), and teammate Chris Moura won the 880 (2:04.36) and 330 intermediate hurdles (42.52).

The boys' two-mile was the most competitive race, with junior Chris Berger of Berkeley outkicking Aaron Lopez of M-A to win, 9:59.0 to 9:59.2. It marked the first time in six years a runner had broken 10:00 at M-A.

In Peninsula Athletic League meets, Carlmont beat Woodside, 99-34; Sequoia defeated Menlo School, 63-32; Mills beat Burlingame, 102-28; San Mateo defeated Hillsdale, 80-50; and Capuchino beat Aragon, 87-50.

Carlmont's Ben White won the 100-yard dash in a wind-aided 10.1, and the high jump with a life-best 6-8. White also took the long jump at 21-2.

Mills sprinter Skip Johnson kept intact his PAL unbeaten streak in the 100-yard dash, winning in 10.8.

Mills pole vaulter Tino Hernandez won at a life-best 14-0, and teammate Rich Scramaglia took the long and triple jumps.

Capuchino's Matt Gough won the 880 and the mile, while teammate Sam Finau took the shot put and discus.

San Mateo's Gordon Hunt had a life-best triple jump of 40-1.

PAL girls

M-A also won the girls' meet by a surprising 100-27 score over Berkeley. M-A also was a convincing winner over Valley Christian (San Jose) and Redwood Christian (Castro Valley) in a separate triangular meet.

Sara Hageboeck, a junior, won both hurdles races and the 880 to lead M-A to its 31st consecutive dual victory.

M-A had excellent exchanges in the 440 relay to edge Berkeley in 51.50 compared to the Yellow Jackets' 51.9. Katie Ashley led off for M-A and was followed by Angi Daniels, Sandra Griffin and Tina Whatley.

In other PAL meets, Carlmont beat Woodside, 99-26; Aragon defeated Capuchino, 71-55; Mills beat Burlingame, 91-36; San Mateo defeated Hillsdale, 73-53; and Sequoia beat Presentation, Mercy, Menlo School and Sacred Heart in a five way meet.

Lisa Jones was a triple winner for Carlmont, taking the 110 hurdles, long jump and triple jump.

For Mills, Yolanda Swindell won the 220 and 440, Jennifer Dankwerth took the mile and two-mile, and Buffy Sexton won the shot put and discus.

Jennifer Ruff won the shot put and discus throw to lead Sequoia.

Betsy Mahe, Dorothy Anderson and Melanie Neal were double winners for Capuchino.

San Mateo's Shelly Tilton won the 110 hurdles, the 880 and the 330 hurdles.
