Blockhus, Clark run CCS bests

Gunn's Bunnell near 60 feet in shot put

By Glenn Reeves
Special to the Times Tribune

LOS GATOS — Mountain View High School's Craig Blockhus and Shannon Clark won distance races in Central Coast Section season bests on a night many Peninsula athletes starred in the Top Eight Invitational track and field meet Saturday at Los Gatos High.

Blockhus ran a 65-second third lap to open a 20-yard lead on the way to a CCS-leading 9:16.0 in the two mile.

"I planned on staying with the pack through the first mile," Blockhus said. "I thought the first mile would be around 4:30, but the pace was slow, so I picked it up on the third lap."

Blockhus ran 70 seconds on the fourth through seventh laps, then ran 65 seconds on the final lap.

Clark set a fast pace in the 880, pulling away from the field on the first lap. Gunderson's Laurie Chapman was right behind Clark, but Clark never allowed Chapman to take the lead as Clark won in a CCS-best 2:12.8.

mile champion who is headed for USC next fall, viewed the 880 as speed work for the mile.

"I'm real pleased to gain a personal record," Clark said. "I beat a good runner."

Clark finished third in the mile in 4:59.6, behind Chapman and Presentation's Mary Mendoza.

Mountain View's Kim Schulman gave the Spartans another first place with a victory in the girls' high jump at 5-3.

Meanwhile, Gunn's Scott Bunnell uncorked a life-best 59-10½ to win the boys' shot put.

St. Francis' Matt Comfort finished second to Bunnell with a life-best 56-7½ and Bellarmine's John Zilinskas was third with a life-best 55-9.

St. Francis freshman Rosalyn Mack won the 400 in 56.62, beating Mitty's Andreen Alvarenga. Alvarenga defeated Mack earlier in the season.

JAMES LOGAN INVITATIONAL (Fremont winners only)

Girls
3200 meters — Phuong Sites (Fremont, Sunnyvale) 11:52.83.
1600 meters — Phuong Sites (Fremont) 5:27.9.

"I was really looking forward to running against Alvarenga," Mack said. "I wanted to set a good pace and keep it up. I'd like to break 56 by the end of the season."

The Lancers won both the 400 relay (48.16) and mile relays (3:58.5).

In the mile relay, Mack took the baton in second place, five yards behind a Los Gatos runner. Mack overtook the lead runner in the first 180 yards and opened a five-yard lead going into the final turn. The Los Gatos runner made up two yards down the stretch, but Mack warded off the challenge.

"I was getting tired at the end," Mack said. "But I heard someone yell, 'she's dying,' so I dug down for a little extra."

Castilleja's Katy McCandless ran away with the girls' two mile, opening a 15-yard lead over the first two laps and holding it the rest of the race. McCandless, a sophomore, ran a personal best of 10:52.

"Happy? I'm ecstatic," McCandless said. "It felt very good. I just had a good time today against all these good runners here. I'd like to finish in the top three at the CCS and go to the state meet. There are so many good runners though, that if I don't make the state, I won't be too disappointed."

Monta Vista's Gary Worrell won the 300 intermediate hurdles in 38.94, his life best. Earlier, Worrell ran a life best in the 400 of 49.33.

Track

The WCAL trials will be held Tuesday at 3 p.m. at Foothill College, followed by finals Friday at 4 p.m. Bellarmine is expected to earn the league title, with strong competition from St. Ignatius.

The DAAL and SCVAL complete their final round of league meets Thursday.

TRACK

M-A has a chance to win the boys' and girls' PAL titles this week. M-A's girls travel to Aragon on Wednesday, and M-A's boys meet Mills on Thursday at M-A.

"At the start of the season I wanted 50 in the 400 and get in the 38s in the hurdles," Worrell said. "Now that I've reached both goals, I want to go to the state meet — whatever it takes to make the top three at the CCS meet. The Independence runners will be my top competition. I want to run next year, but I'm not sure where I'm going to college."

Mills' Buffy Sexton won the discus (126-7) and placed second in the shot put (40-7). Wilcox's Chip Vargas was awarded second place in the 100 meters despite having the same time — 10.86 — as Riordan's Donald Miller, who was declared the winner.

Lynbrook's Pete Kolotouris won the 110 meter high hurdles in 14.55.
