Fields, Gross star in CSM track win

The men from College of San Mateo recorded their first victory in Golden Gate Conference action Friday by edging Chabot 70-65.

In the women's meet, Chabot topped San Mateo 69-45.

Omar Fields earned wins in the 100- and 200-meter dashes with times of 11.0 and 23.1 seconds.

Jarrod Gross, in his second meet ever and after just 1½ weeks of practice, sailed 21-4 in the long jump, good enough for first place. Gross also jumped 40-5 for second in the triple jump.

Chris Fipps also had a good meet for the Bulldogs despite strong winds with a first in the 5,000 meters (16:16.2) a second in the 800 (2:16.2) and a third in the 1500 (4:21.1) — just one second behind teammate Jason Maintzer and 1.3 seconds off the winning mark.
