Pursuing Victory With Honorsm

The CIF was formed, and had its humble beginning, during the 1914-1915 school year with only 65,927 high school students in California; it has been estimated that less than 8,000 boys were participating on their high school athletic teams. Today, California high schools boast over 1.8 million students and this past school year more than 800,000 students participated in education-based athletics in California.

During the past century, education-based athletics transformed from an important local community event to one that is frequently on broadcast television and the Internet with full-time websites dedicated to recruiting and blogging about teams, student-athletes and coaches. Most however, still refer to education-based athletics as the last "true amateur sport" venue in America, because our mission and value system is based upon the core foundation of student participation, sportsmanship and fair play. While professional sports, collegiate athletics and even most youth programs have moved toward a business model where finances, income and winning is the sole mission, education-based sports still remains dedicated to providing opportunities for kids to compete in a safe and fair environment.

Sports add richness to a school culture by providing opportunities for any student who wants them. It is the largest "elective" program on any high school campus. Nationally, and here in California, participation by students in high school sports programs is at its highest level in history proving the desire and need is vast. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics (Number one reason kids play sports: Fun), our students are learning life-long skills that help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extra-curricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom, and have less behavioral issues at school; lower dropout rates and lower alcohol and drug abuse rates, than students who do not participate. The data and the lists of participation benefits are endless.

It is true that we occasionally see acts of poor sportsmanship and behavior by a player or a coach, but the overwhelming majority of school contests reflect the positive elements of Pursuing Victory with Honorsm. True, the goal is always to win the contest, but education-based athletics, when done correctly, places the value of life lessons, character and sportsmanship ahead of winning. It is this ability of education-based sports leaders to keep athletics in its proper perspective that helps separate us from the rest.

It is vital that as parents, fans and education-based sports leaders that we remember that less than 2% of our participating students will go on and compete in college athletics. Kids participate in sports because it's fun and the athletic fields and gymnasium classrooms our schools provide gives adults the opportunity to teach valuable lessons that might not be learned in any other environment. Creating life-long skills and helping create better citizens through participation in education-based athletics is the greatest gift we can give to the future.

We acknowledge that education-based, high school sports are enhancing students' lives, and ours, in ways that few other activities could. And we agree that, regardless of what side of the field we sit on, attending a high school sporting event is an uplifting, enriching, family-friendly experience for all of us. We would be remiss if the CIF did not thank our CIF family of corporate sponsors who contribute and allow for all of us to experience the joy of education-based athletics.

Help us create an atmosphere where the students of California gain a love of competition and personal growth that will help them mature into productive and caring citizens through their participation in sports. As you enjoy these Championship contest, please help by teaching and demonstrating respect. Displays of good sportsmanship will say positive things about you and your school community, and hopefully remind us all that in the end, sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance also.

2018 Meet Preview

Centennial Celebration of America's Finest Track & Field

State Meet Takes Center Stage This Weekend in Clovis!

By Rich Gonzalez
PrepCalTrack.com Editor
@PrepCalTrack

Quite simply, it's truly an extra special time for an extra special meet.

The CIF-State Track and Field Championships, which have produced more national records and more Olympians than any other state meet in America over the years, turns 100 years old this weekend!

Showcasing scores of prep all-time greats, the season-ending blockbuster owns a rich tradition and history beyond compare to any other state meet.

Skeptical? Just look at some of the names gracing the event ever the years...

In the dashes, one starts with the likes of such uber-talents as Olympians Allyson Felix (six-time gold medalist) of Los Angeles Baptist, Gail Devers (three-time gold medalist) of Sweetwater, Quincy Watts (two-time gold medalist) of Woodland Hills Taft, Steve Lewis (three-time gold medalist) of American, Angela Williams (the first 4-time NCAA 100m champion) of Chino, Bryshon Nellum (silver medalist and World Juniors gold medalist) from Long Beach Poly, Marion Jones (formerly a three-time gold medalist) at Rio Mesa and then Thousand Oaks, Monique Henderson (two-time gold medalist) of San Diego Morse, Vista Murrieta's Michael Norman (two-time World Junior Championships gold medalist) and high school legends Henry Thomas of Hawthorne and Obea Moore of Pasadena Muir in the modern era, prep superstars who followed the lead of such trailblazers as Pasadena's Charley Paddock (pictured at right, the first human to be termed "Fastest Man Alive" and a two-time Olympic gold medalist in the 1920's), Glendale Hoover's Forrest Beatty (equaled the world record in the then 220-yard dash as a high school junior in 1961, back when the event was contested entirely on a straightaway), sisters Denean and Sherri Howard (both Olympic gold medalists), Lemoore's Tommie Smith (Olympic gold medalist), Miramonte's Dixon Farmer (two-time state 400m champ, pentathlon national record setter, and this weekend's infield meet announcer) and Glendale's Frank Wykoff (pictured below at left, three-time Olympic gold medalist), many of whom were literally of world-class caliber when competing as much as half century or more earlier!

In the distances, California boasts prep luminaries Michael Granville of Bell Gardens (national 800m record holder and senior-, junior-, sophomore- and freshmen-class state record holder in the event), Julia Stamps of Santa Rosa, Eric Hulst at Laguna Beach, Kim Mortensen from Thousand Oaks (former 3200m national record holder), Rich Kimball at Concord De La Salle (set state meet record for two full miles in the 1974 state meet, then returned just over an hour later to run second-fastest full-mile time in state meet history back when the order of those two events were flipped compared to the modern schedule), Amy Weissenbach of Harvard-Westlake (2:02.04 for 800m as a HS junior, a national federation record as it was in a high schoolers-only meet), German Fernandez from Riverbank (the stunning 4:00.29/8:34.23 1600/3200 double at the 2008 state meet), Jordan Hasay (four-time state 3200m champion from 2006-2009) of Mission College Prep, Mark Schilling (won the 1972 full mile 4:05.4, a meet record that would last for three decades) at Garden Grove, Polly Plumer (former national record holder in the mile) of Irvine University, Berkeley's Pete Richardson (national record of 1:47.31 for 800m way back in 1981), Burbank's Jeff Nelson (famed more for his longstanding record on the Mt. SAC cross-country course, but a two-time state champion at 3200 during the sport's first prep distance running boom in the 1970s), Woodbridge's Christine Babcock (former national record holder at 1500m with excellent range), Belmont's Roman Gomez (only male to sweep the state 1600/3200 titles in successive years, the ultra-rare 'double-double'), Stockdale's Blake Haney (three-time state champion during the nation's newest spectacular distance-running boom) and Cooper Teare of St. Joseph Notre Dame (capped a stellar 12-month stretch with a 3200m title in one of the fastest state meet times in the last three decades) in more recent history, preceded decades earlier on the state championship scene by such megatalents as Torrance's Louis Zamperini (Olympian and POW survivor), Chula Vista's Tim Danielson (only Californian to break the four-minute mile as a high schooler), Cathedral's Bob McMillen (dropped the meet record in the mile down to 4:24.0 in 1946), Orange's Dale Story (pushed the meet record in the mile way down to 4:11.0 in 1959, back when dirt tracks were used) and Whittier Sierra's Richard Joyce (smashed the national record at 800m in 1:48.8 back in 1965).

The hurdles? Do you really want to try to compare against California's pedigree when we boast the likes of former national and/or state record holders such as Muir's Jerry Proctor (swept both races along with a 25-foot-plus long jump in a memorable 1967 state meet), Long Beach Wilson's Lashinda Demus (the former national record holder in the 300mH until New Jersey superprep Sydney McLaughlin came along), La Sierra's Reggie Wyatt (the national record holder in the 300m IH), Vashti Thomas (the former national federation record holder in the 100mH), Jeshua Anderson (formerly the national record holder at 300IH), Pomona's Janeen Vickers (meet record setter and eventual Olympian), Cabrillo's George Porter (the former national record holder in the 300IH) and Agoura's Tara Davis (the do-it-all jumper/hurdler) in our cupboard?

Jumpers? Really care to compare against the full collective set comprised of Walnut's Juliana Yendork (a 44-foot triple jumper well before her time), Pasadena's Joe Richardson (near 52 feet in the triple jump way back in 1984), Clovis' Latrese Johnson (the dominant state record holder in the high jump), Anaheim Canyon's Rachel Baxter (the Pan Am Juniors champion and national federation record holder in the pole vault), Compton Centennial's Charlie Dumas, Woodside's Wendy Brown (set a triple jump national record and meet records in the long jump and high jump to go along with a silver in the 100m hurdles, single-handedly scoring 38 points and win the team title for Woodside in 1984), and Tulare's James Stallworth (meet record 26-04.75 in the long jump way back in 1989)?

Throwers? How about Suzy Powell of Modesto Downey (former national record holder in the discus throw), Brent Noon of Fallbrook (crushed the all-time meet best by five meet and won by nearly 12 feet with his still-standing meet record 74-04.75 in the shot put in 1990), Natalie Kaaiawahia of Fullerton (four-time state shot put champion who unleashed the greatest single-day throws double in history at the time), Oxnard's Clarence "Bud" Houser (still has the record for most boys individual state titles with six, three apiece in the shot put and discus throw when he continually annihilated the meet records in the 1920s), Shafter's Anna Jelmini (four-time state champion in the throws and the meet record holder in each) and Huntington Beach's Scott Moser (former national record holder in the discus throw)?

Or how about perhaps two of the greatest eventual athletes of them all, Olympic decathlon champions Rafer Johnson of Kingsburg and Tulare's Bob Mathias ?????!

When you combine the performers and performances across all event areas, it's clear that the history of the CIF-State Championship meet is without peer.

These are literally just a small sampling of the Who's Who talent and thousands of state champions to grace the straightaways, runways, rings, and aprons at the richest annual Olympic sport-related scholastic event in America!

The 100th edition could offer up historic moments as well, with meet records coming under clear attack in the boys pole vault, the boys 100, the boys high jump, with an outside chance of something historically magical playing out in the girls 3200 as well.

Regardless, one thing is assured: Golden State athletes will put on another great show this weekend, competing on a first-class venue and in a first-class community that has embraced this event for each of the last 10 years, and hopefully for the next 100 more!

Here's our breakdown of the action for this weekend's highly anticipated two-day affair:

BOYS VERTICAL JUMPS

Clear-cut favorites stalk both the vault runway and the high jump apron as two of the greatest aerialists in state history - albeit in contrasting fashions - will be on full display in what could become the "Sean and Sondre Show."

Sean Lee is no stranger to year-end battles at Buchanan, making his annual trip up Interstate 99 and now seeking to become the first high jumper in state history to win either a gold, silver or bronze medal in four consecutive years! The reigning state champion is unbeaten during a 2018 outdoor campaign that has seen him clear seven feet on an astonishing six occasions, including a career-best 7-3 in his season opener to move into a tie for seventh place on the all-time state lists. On Lee's "To Do List" this weekend will be breaking both the state meet record (7-03.25) and the all-time state record (7-04.50). Lee's task for winning a second straight state title became considerably more likely when Vista Del Lago's/SJ Jake Grimsman sustained injury in mid-season and did not advance to the state meet; Grimsman, the only Californian to deal defeat to Lee in the last two years, cleared a Sac-Joaquin Section record 7-03 earlier this season. It would appear almost miraculous for someone else to win the event: Enter Liberty/CE of Bakersfield senior Seth Krauss, who knows a bit about miracles. After sustaining severe leg burns in an accident sustained four years ago, the attending surgeon at the time indicated there was a possibility Krauss would never walk again. Two years later, he not only was able to walk again, but took up the high jump, where he has literally risen from the ashes to clear a career-best 6-11.00 and arrive here as the Central Section champion! Juniors Daylon Hicks of Clayton Valley/NC and Beau Allen of San Marcos/SS each own bests of 6-10.00 to lead the remaining contenders.

While Sean Lee is a very familiar annual figure here in the high jump, Sondre Guttormsen rates more as a "one-and-done" type of athlete. The Davis/SJ senior gained CIF eligibility partway through the school year after moving from Norway apart from any foreign-exchange program. Since earning eligibility, he has made the very most of his limited window on the American prep scene. "Air Sondre" has bettered 17 feet on 10 occasions this season, including an electrifying 18-02.50 clearance on the national stage at April's Arcadia Invitational, breaking the state record and the Norwegian Junior National record in the process! He's primed to shatter the state meet record (17-03 by Las Gatos' Nico Weiler in 2008). Should "Air Sondre" become grounded this weekend, San Diego Section talents Kevin Ward of San Dieguito Academy (16-05.00 personal best last weekend) and Jacob Rice of Rancho Bernardo (16-03.00) along with Harvard-Westlake/SS senior Tiber Siereeni (16-02.00) are among the ones to watch.

BOYS HORIZONTAL JUMPS

Of the 16 boys events on the weekend docket, only one features the nation-leading mark and it occurs in the long jump. St. Ignatius senior Alex Enos stretched his frame out to 25 feet even to win the CCS Top 8 meet, a mark that remains atop the U.S. wind legal charts this spring. Enos has been the consistent headliner from the Central Coast, but C.J. Stevenson of Great Oak/SS and Malcolm Clemons of Berkeley St. Mary's/NC have each twice dealt him setbacks, coming at both the Stanford and Arcadia invitationals. Then there's senior Jalyn Jackson of Eastlake/SD, unbeaten since Arcadia and red-hot after soaring a slightly wind-aided 24-10.00 last weekend. If you're trying to find the event that's most difficult to predict in order across six places, you've certainly found it.

The scenario isn't quite as cloudy in the triple jump as Stevenson and Jackson - the top two state meet placers in that order last year - size up as the main combatants. Stevenson has backed up last year's state win by bounding beyond 50 feet at three meets this season, including a personal best 50-06.75 effort that ranks #3 in the nation this year under wind-legal conditions. Jackson, who improved by nearly a foot at last year's state meet, has already bounded 49-10.25 this spring and is just inches away from breaking a 21-year drought of 50 footers in the San Diego Section section. Namir Hemphill of Upland/SS and the previously cited Clemons are a pair of sophomores seeking to disrupt the form charts and place on the podium's top step.

BOYS THROWS

Bakersfield Liberty/CE junior Daniel Viveros is on the threshold of closing out an unbeaten campaign after demonstrating stellar consistency, including eight meets this spring with winning tosses over 60 feet! Viveros arrives here fresh from a career-best launch of 63-10.75 at this same venue two weekends ago, with last year's state meet bronze medalist chasing down a strong year-end performance peak yet again. But Ventura/SS junior Carlos Aviles courts aspirations of recording an upset, and for good reason; while Viveros has an array of quality marks, Aviles is the only competitor in the field who has put the 12-pound shot over 63 feet at separate competitions. Esperanza/SS sophomore Jeff Duensing, who defeated Aviles head-on to win their sectional Masters Meet last weekend, has recorded the best two performance marks of his career over the last two weekends.

In the discus throw, Aviles owns the best mark in the state while downing all rivals to win the Arcadia Invitational in 194-01 in early April. However, he's not been within 17 feet of that tape-measure performance over the last month, including a pair of losses during that span. While Aviles remains the favorite, Viveros (184-02) and Buchanan/CE hometown hero Christian Johnson — who nailed a 191-09 performance under ideal conditions at season's start — also loom as title threats. It should be noted that among the top eight throwers in the event this year, only one - Southern Section Masters victor Clifford McMullen of Hart - has achieved his best toss within the last month!

GIRLS VERTICAL JUMPS

Action should be thrilling along the girls' pole vault runway as the two lone returning state medalists from a year ago are poised to duel while a prodigious ninth-grader leads those aiming for an upset! Clovis West/CE pole vaulter Elizabeth Funk, sixth here last year, holds the best chance among the local contingent to win a state title this weekend while boasting a pair of 13-foot clearances in her two most recent outings. Funk could have among the largest cheering sections this weekend; she's also seeking to join Clovis West alum Anginae Monteverde (2011) as a state champion, which would make it only the second school in meet history to have multiple champions in the event. But among those standing in her way is Santa Catalina/CC junior Laurel Wong, who has already cleared 13-00 eight times in her career (including a career-best 13-03 in un-sanctioned competition in mid-February) and is the top returnee after placing fifth a year ago. Westlake/SS frosh Paige Sommers (13-00.50) has made quite an immediate splash on the prep scene, becoming only the second 9th grader in state history to soar higher than 13 feet! Isabella Grant of Presentation/CC and Kelly Kern of Carondelet/NC are additional 13 footers in an event where 7 of the state's top 8 performers will return next year!

Coaches and spectators alike should be prepared for another white-knuckle episode at the high jump apron, where defending champion Abigail Burke (Riverside Poly/SS) leads four returning podium placers from a year ago, but where none of the four are considered the favorite! Long Beach Wilson/SS sophomore Rachel Glenn slinked over the bar a state-leading 5-11.00 in the first month of the season, highly impressive considering she only did the event in dual meets last year as a freshman and never showed much prowess during those outings. She also has a 5-10 performance on her ledger this year, a height matched by ultra-dangerous Coronado/SD junior Alysah Hickey, whose explosive "leg spring" and body awareness has 6-foot potential written all over it! The aforementioned Burke has yet to duplicate her levels of a year ago, when her career-best 5-8 netted the state title, but she came within an inch of that while recently winning her league final. Katie Hurst of Fortuna/NC, last year's silver medalist, nailed a season-best 5-06 two weeks ago while returning bronze medalist Chinenye Agina of Sanger/CE cleared that same height on the same day at her own state-qualifier meet. Senior Delaney Peranich of St. Ignatius/CC is the latest to emerge in the title picture after winning her sectional Meet of Champions with a career-best 5-09.00 head-turner a week ago!

GIRLS HORIZONTAL JUMPS

Talent abounds in the triple jump, where 3 of the top 4 from last year's meet return, including Blossom Valley Athletic League rivals Arianna Fisher of Silver Creek/CC and Hawa Kamara of San Jose Leigh/CC. Fisher leads the state with a best effort of 42-09.00 this season, but her lone loss came to Kamara - the most improved among the title contenders - at their league final. Top returnee Kali Hatcher (second at state last year) of Berkeley St. Mary's/NC took fourth at Stanford but has been unbeaten since. Allannah Lee of Castro Valley/NC, the 2017 bronze medalist, has been a steady performer this year with 40-foot-plus efforts at seven different meets. Micah Fulton of Pasadena Muir/SS is a dark horse worth noting, having unleashed a wind-aided 41-10.50 effort and a wind-legal 41-05.00 performance, each coming in meets where she was undertaking four events; she'll be focusing on just the horizontal jumps here.

Shearer is the lone long jumper with 20-foot credentials, but has no other meets on her record with marks over 19 feet this spring. Colorado's Alysah Hickey has exceeded that plateau in three of her last four meets while Carson, which powered to the Los Angeles City Section team title on the strength of its horizontal jumpers, checks in here with four-year state meet veteran Jo'non Young and teammate Indiah Turner. Consistency has been an issue for several of this year's contenders, leaving the door open for new faces to emerge.

GIRLS THROWS

Attractive showdowns are beginning to take shape in the throwing rings as Northern and Central California's leading talents are beginning to raise their game. In the discus throw, state leader Erica Grotegeer of Wheatland/NO has whirled the platter out to 168-11 while Central Section super junior Jocelynn Budwig dug down for a season-best 165-6 in her last outing, but also owns a best of 169-10 from last year. Grotegeer and Budwig, who have split their only two meetings this year, rank 20th and 21st, respectively, in state history in the event. Age-group prodigy Faith Bender of Bakersfield Liberty/CE let loose for her freshmen-year best 160-07 in her most recent competition, with Suzy Powell's state frosh record (162-11) within reach at the disc-friendly confines of Buchanan High. James Logan/NC senior Hannah Sophia-Hall (158-00) already has three state Top 10 finishes in the event to her credit, aiming to improve on last year's career-best sixth-place finish. In terms of sheer depth, the discus throw is considered among the meet's best field events as eight entrants rank among the top 100 in state history in the event.

Over at the shot put, Budwig has literally distanced herself from the competition in recent weeks, including a career-best 47-07 at her section Area final to arm her with four meets with winning marks superior to the seasonal best for state #2-ranked Faimalie Sale of Los Alamitos/SS, who has made as much news with her goodwill of late as with her throwing; she recently organized a medals drive to collect and present award medals to sick children in hospitals. CIF-SS Masters Meet champion Natalie Ramirez of West Ranch, with a best of 45-09.50 on two occasions, leads the contingent from the south.

GIRLS HURDLES

All you might have to do to win the state title in the 100-meter hurdles is run 13.53. That's because state leader and unbeaten star Jada Hicks of Upland/SS has been somewhat stuck on 13.54... achieving that time on four different occasions this season. What are the odds of that?? Hicks, who won the bronze medal last year, assures she's ready to get over the hump in Clovis, which makes the task tougher for all others. That said, keep your eye on Stockdale/CE burner Aaliyah Wilson, who has shifted into high gear in recent weeks. Courting the state lead in the open 100m as well (11.49), Wilson has ridden that speed to a wind legal 13.70 over the barriers in breaking the Central Section record. If she can harness that horsepower over barriers, she can become the section's first champion in the event since 1979, when the event was conducted across 110 yards and when the cross boards were three inches lower than today. If she can pull off the 100/100HH sweep, Wilson would join eventual Olympic medalists Gail Devers (1984) and Janeen Vickers (1987) as the only California athletes to achieve the illustrious double!! Temecula Valley/SS senior Danae Dyer is perhaps the next biggest threat this weekend with several strong showings in 2018 after placing eighth in the state final last year. Explosive all-around talent Allie Jones of Santa Barbara San Marcos/SS, fellow state meet returnee Breanna Bernard-Joseph of Roosevelt/SS and versatile superstar Nikki Merritt of Santa Margarita/SS are additional prime entrants featured in an event that sizes up as the meet's deepest on the docket!

Last weekend was Kyla Robinson-Hubbard's turn to grab the Southern Section spotlight in the 300-meter low hurdles, with the Calabasas/SS junior claiming the state lead with her 41.82 clocking at the Masters Meet. SS athletes lay claim to the top six performers in the state this season, including newly minted Orange County record holder Nyree Brown of Segerstrom and top state returnee Bernard-Joseph of Roosevelt (fourth last year). Sadye Peschke of Bella Vista/SJ and Alia Scott of Vista/SD, state meet finalists from a year ago, and the ever-dangerous Merritt are also in the loaded mix!

GIRLS SPRINTS/RELAYS

Reigning double sprint champion Ariyonna Augustine is back... and her challenge to repeat could require greater speed and more toughness than she's ever had to produce before. The LSU-signed talent from Long Beach Poly has yet to lose to California competition in the 100 this year, but did experience defeat across 200 late last month. That said, Augustine summoned newfound levels of speed at this meet last year to emerge as the "Queen of Sprint" in leading the Jackrabbits to a record 15th California team title and would love nothing better than to lead the storied program to its "Sweet 16th" title this weekend. Aforementioned Stockdale/SS senior Aaliyah Wilson holds a slight advantage over Augustine on this year's state 100m list (11.49 to 11.56), with the fast-improving talent and University of Washington signee primed to make history. Fellow speedburners Jazmyne Frost of Serra/SS and De'Anna Nowling of Calabasas/SS have each clocked 11.59 recently. Nowling actually overtook Augustine in their Mt. SAC Relays showdown across 200m, when pesky crosswinds hobbled their times. In the longer of the two sprints, NCS Meet of Champions winner Tierra Robinson-Jones was lightning striking twice as she delivered a pair of meet records, the first being a 52.69 eye-popper at 400 meters that ranked as the fastest by a Northern Californian in 49 years! In the 200, she whirled a career-best 23.56 while battling a slight headwind! Robinson-Jones, last year's silver medalist in the one lapper, stands as the clear favorite in the event after last weekend's scorcher. El Toro's Maliyah Medley, the 2017 bronze medalist, and Newark Memorial's/NC Alexis Surrell are other top names assembled here.

When 4x100 state leader Upland/SS failed to advance from its section divisional final, a dose of uncertainty was thrown into the event. Leave it to perennial sprint powers Serra and Long Beach Poly to be among those to swoop in fastest in positioning for the state title. Serra, led by Frost, garnered top honors at the SS Masters Meet with its yearly-best 45.88 performance, but Augustine-anchored Poly also advanced and courts 45.97 credentials. Sheldon/SJ, with bookends Imani Dupree and Tai McDonald on board, and Los Angeles City Section champion Carson are also coming on well.

Bonita/SS turned heads with an impressive 3:44.92 solo effort in winning the CIF-SS Division 2 title by a couple of seconds to loom as the pick here. The Bearcats feature three girls clocked in sub-57 for the open 400, aiming to keep familiar SS foes Quartz Hill, Serra, Chino and Roosevelt at bay. Sheldon and Woodcreek/SJ are top entries from the north after sub-3:51 showings at their state qualifier meet.

GIRLS DISTANCES

There's one event where California truly leads the nation in terms of sheer quality this spring: the 1600-meter run. With Davis/SJ senior Olivia O'Keeffe torching the oval in a state-leading 4:42.71 at the Sac-Joaquin Masters, it capped a stunning six-day stretch in which Golden State athletes swarmed the national leader lists. With the dust now having finally settled, Golden State athletes account for 14 of the top 25 spots on the latest Track & Field News national leaders list! O'Keeffe held the national lead in the event for just a few hours but will be in great position to regain the spot this weekend. Saugus/SS senior Mariah Castillo has toyed around with pace in recent outings and holds perhaps the best leg speed in the field, making her a favorite. Sisters Maddie and Elena Denner of Oak Ridge/SJ continue to dazzle at superb levels as well, with the former returning as last year's champion and the latter matching her stride for stride in recent weeks. When it comes to pedigrees, show respect for La Costa Canyon's/SD McKenna Brown and Redwood's/NC Gillian Wagner, the latest talents to emerge from their respective powerhouse programs. Superpower Great Oak features three entries in the event (!), with the seedings projecting all three to be in the same heat so team tactics could be fun to witness here! How about the fabulous freshmen! The three fastest ninth graders in America will be on display here as Jacqueline Duarte of Chino Hills/SS (4:45.54), Mia Barnett of Village Christian/SS (4:46.77) and Audrey Suarez of Mayfield/SS (4:47.83) aim for storybook finishes to their inaugural prep season. In a two-heat prelims (top four in each heat, plus next four-fastest times advance to the final), the second heat typically has the advantage in knowing what pace is needed to advance, so Heat One better be aggressively on its toes!

In the 3200, defending champion Claudia Lane of Malibu/SS saw her season halted by injury, so top returnee Maddy Denner of Oak Ridge (second last year) will be gunning to be the first female to sweep the 1600/3200 titles since Sara Bei turned the trick for Montgomery in 1998. But Saugus' Castillo might have those same aspirations as well, ripping a state-leading 10:06.47 in winning her section divisional two weekends ago. In reality, several girls are in position to sweep, making the task all the more difficult! Capistrano Valley's/SS Haley Herberg and Great Oak's/SS Tori Gaitan are among the leading talents focusing on just this event here, offering an advantage over doublers needing to also run the prelims/finals in the four-lapper.

Just when it seemed California High of San Ramon's Alyssa Brewer (state-leading 2:08.99 this year and a 2:06.86 career best as a sophomore) was primed for a three-peat title in the 800, a foot injury surfaced in the final month to cast uncertainty on her sharpness. The injury was contributing factor in her loss at last week's NCS Meet of Champions, her first setback in the event against Golden State competition since May of 2016! With both her and state #2 Mari Friedman of Santa Cruz/CC being dealt losses last week, this one's surprisingly taking more of a "wide-open" feel. Concord's Rayna Stanziano (2:10.06), who topped Brewer in their MOC showdown last week, Los Alamitos' Delaney Sanacore (2:10.12 PR to win SS Masters), CCS champ Charlotte Tomkinson of Menlo and Del Oro/SJ star Cathilyn McIntosh also grace this loaded field.

BOYS HURDLES

With the top two high hurdlers in the state shelved by either injury (Aidan Jackman of Clayton Valley/NC sustained a hamstring problem at the Stanford Invitational that never fully healed) or disqualification (Jamar Marshall of Berkeley St. Mary's/NC false-started at his sectional), the possibilities here are intriguing. Merrill West's/SJ Warren Williams owns the top time among qualifiers in an event where experience is somewhat lacking as all nine finalists from a year ago have since graduated. Upland/SS junior Caleb Roberson will be going to the well here as he undertakes a grueling triple (110HH/300IH/4x400). Central Section champ Caleb Foster and Central Coast Section star Masaki Wada-Law are also on the cusp, with Simi Valley's/SS Riley Hunt emerging like gangbusters down the stretch in search of the school's second title in four years (Alex Billing won in 2015). Perhaps the most dangerous entry of all is Sac-Joaquin Section power pack Sondre Guttormsen of Davis/SJ, the overwhelming favorite to win the pole vault crown. Guttormsen has been a quick study in the hurdles of late, storming to a career-best 14.15 effort last weekend.

With Jackman also out of the 300-meter intermediate hurdles due to injury, a swath of Southern Section entries are in the mix for the top spot. King's Reyte Rash pulled off a surprise win in clearly his biggest race to date at last weekend's

2018 Meet Preview

SS Masters, rolling to victory in 37.50. Santa Margarita/SS senior Blake Hennesay (with 10.57 speed for 100m) and Harvard-Westlake/SS junior Brayden Borquez (also 47.76 in the open 400) were left in Rash's wake but will be eager to avenge that outcome this weekend. Clovis'/CE Jake Woods purred to the Central Section Masters title on this same track two weeks ago to gain a mild sense of home-track advantage while Rancho Bernardo's/SD Joshua Farmer - America's top decathlete this season - will focus on just one discipline here in search of new-found levels of excellence over the barriers.

BOYS SPRINTS/RELAYS

The most jaw-dropping California performance this season occurred almost in the blink of eye as Yucaipa/SS senior Asani Hampton missed breaking the state record in the 100-meter dash by just 0.01 at his league championship meet, sending reverberating shock waves across the nation. Unbelievably, though, he might rate as only a slight favorite in the event and as the underdog in the 200.

When he's on, Hampton (fourth at state in the 100m last year) is uncanny good in getting out of the blocks, making him extremely tough to run down. But Murrieta Mesa's Christian Shakir-Ricks harbors Carl Lewis-like closing speed, and used that while still falling 0.01 short of Hampton in their 100m encounter last weekend. But having twice the distance in the 200 was more than enough real estate for Shakir-Ricks, who blew past Hampton in their late-meet rematch at SS Masters. Add in two of the top dashers in San Diego Section history in Mt. Carmel's Quoi Ellis (the bronze medalist at 200m last year) and Madison junior Kenan Christon (an exceptional footballer), TCU-sigbee Blake Hennesay of Santa Margarita/SS and late-season surprise Kazmier Allen of Tulare Union (a 10.32 shocker at the Central Valley Masters Meet, but aided by a brisk 3.4 meters-per-second tailwind) and Clovis could turn into "Speed City" this weekend!

Remember, the state all-time record is 10.25 (by Hawthorne's Henry "The Heat" Thomas was back in 1985) and the state meet record is 10.30 (San Diego Southwest's Riley Washington in 1992). Maybe, just maybe, we'll see those historic marks finally fall!

The one-lap dash has more of a wide-open feel to it as late-season surprise Cameron Reynolds of Clayton Valley/NC stormed to a state-leading 47.09 effort at his league final, only to be overtaken on the Northern California hierarchy by NCS MOC champion Max Glasser of Marin Catholic. Glasser, a two-sport standout (soccer as well) has been busy sharpening his speed across shorter distances over the last month and arrives here as a slightly inexperienced yet highly dangerous long dasher. Monterey Trail's/SJ Zachary Larrier and La Costa Canyon's/SD Karson Lippert (second here last year as a sophomore) also seek a championship peak while SS stars Matthew Okonkwo of Murrieta Mesa, Solomon Strader of Trinity Classical and Parris Samaniego of Vista Murrieta also seek to prevail.

Southern Section schools lay claim to the five fastest 4x100 times in the state coming in, but amid the frenetic flurry of action in the exchange zones each year, dropped batons, DQs and drama are nearly a given. State leader St. John Bosco/SS (Level Price, Trent McDuffie, Titus Toler and Colby Bowman) overwhelmed the field at the CIF-SS divisional finals, but Great Oak (41.14) led several squads closing down that gap in a head-on race a week later.

For a majority of the season, the Southern Section has virtually dominated the meet-ending 4x400 relay, typically boasting 9 of the 10 best marks in the state much of the way. While the section's strength has continued, one North Coast Section team forged itself into the picture last weekend. Topping the list is SS Masters winner Aliso Niguel (Isaiah Garden, Trevor Williams, Andrew Koesel and Michael Phillippy), which posted a state-best 3:14.71. But Long Beach Wilson (Jordan Wiemer, Steven Camacho, Andrew Richards and Emari Bennett) is a well-seasoned group primed to make this weekend's rematch an absolute thriller! Murrieta Mesa/SS courts as much raw speed as any quartet on the track while Clayton Valley/NC threw down a 3:15.87 last weekend.

BOYS DISTANCES

Redwood/NC of Larkspur junior Liam Anderson is aiming to become only the third non-senior to sweep the 1600-/3200-meter titles in the 100-year history of the state meet (Stockdale's Blake Haney in 2013 and Belmont's Roman Gomez in 1984 both turned the turned as high school juniors, with the latter doing so again in 1985 to record the only "double-double" in that event combo in meet history). Anderson (4:11.43/8:52.74 seasonal bests) is a very savvy racer, but will he hard-pressed by a deep Southland contingent in the four lapper, including Burbank Burroughs/SS senior Jagdeep Chahal, West Torrance/SS senior Rory Abberton and High Tech/SD senior Jaden Rosenthal. The challenge will be even steeper in the 3200, which would be a third distance race in less than 28 hours for Anderson, with ultra-dangerous closer Xavier Court of Mira Costa/SS, Granada's/NC John Bennett (8:57.33), Liberty Ranch's/SJ Collin Ullrich (9:02.73), Jesuit's Matt Strangio (9:00.20) m El Camino Real's Justin Hazell (9:00.60) and several others waiting in the wings!

In terms of all-around progress, there's been perhaps no distance runner making more inroads this spring than Mater Dei/SS senior Sam Van Dorpe, but will put be enough to overtake savvy veteran and defending champ Jett Charvet off Brentwood/NC? Van Dorpe has put on clinic after clinic on how to race this spring, experimenting with his long kick and exhibiting improved mental maturity to secure a series of quality victories, including a state-leading performance (1:51.44) at last weekend's Masters Meet. Charvet stunned many by winning the crown in 1:51.07 last year, with the top SIX placers from that race all expected to return this year. Instead, one failed to qualify and two others opted to focus on the 1600, leaving Charvet to battle Van Dorpe and returning medalists Jason Gomez of Westmont/CC (fourth last year at 1:52.22/1:51.86 indoors this year) and Ian Irish of Palos Verdes (sixth last year at 1:52.81) among others.

While there are multiple recipes for success in securing the CIF-State team championship, the main ingredient almost always involves speed. In 18 of the last 20 boys team championships, victory has been predicated on scoring more points in the 100/200/400 and relays than in any other event areas. The formula has been not quite as dramatic on the girls' side. This year, Great Oak/SS seeks to rely on speed (4x100), endurance (3200), hops (long jump and triple jump), craziness (pole vault) and muscle (shot put and discus throw) to unleash an ultra-balanced attack at Murrieta Mesa's speed-based (100, 200, 400, 4x100, 4x400) scoring machine. Amazingly, these co-favorites compete in the same league (Southwestern)!

The girls battle involves Southern Section foes Long Beach Poly and Serra as the co-favorites, each relying on the short dashes and relays for points; Poly also has a key entry in the long hurdles. Oak Ridge/SJ (distances) and Silver Creek (hurdles and jumps) are among the potent teams within striking distance.

By Jerry Soifer

In 1948, Pete Rozelle, then a young public relations man from Compton, attended the CIF State Track and Field Championships at Edwards Stadium on the UC Berkeley campus.

Rozelle, the future commissioner of the NFL, went to watch Compton High's Jerome Walters compete in the one-mile run. Walters, the champion in the 880 in 1947, took second in the mile.

Beyond the mile, Rozelle and his friend and driver, Al Franken, saw the state meet at its best, a commencement exercise for some of the greatest athletes in the United States.

They saw Bob Mathias, a senior from Tulare, win the 120-yard high hurdles and the 180 lows and take fourth in the shot put. Mathias went on to make the U.S. Olympic team in the decathlon and won gold in the 10-event competition in the 1948 Games in Helsinki and the 1952 Games in London.

Rozelle and Franken saw Los Angeles Jordan's George Brown win the state long jump. He would make the U.S. Olympic team in 1948 and 1952.

They saw Ollie Matson, a sprinter from San Francisco Washington, take third in the 100 and the 220. Matson won bronze and silver medals at the 1952 Games before becoming a star running back in the NFL.

Franken, who became a track and field promoter said, "We had a nice time. We did not realize at the time the great things ahead for the athletes we saw."

The CIF holds its 100th state meet June 1-2 at Veterans Memorial Stadium in Clovis. The first state meet was held in 1915 and was canceled for four years during World War II, thus the 100th meet not coinciding with the 100th anniversary.

If there is one high school event that celebrates the wealth of athletic talent in California, it is the state high school track and field meet. It might have the richest history of any state championship in any high school sport in America.

If there is one event that symbolizes the excellence of the athletes in the CIF meet it's the 1970 long jump. San Mateo Serra's Lynn Swann leaped 24-feet 2 3/4 inches to edge Fresno Edison's Randy Williams by 1/4 inch. Pasadena Blair's James McAlister was third at 23-9 3/4.

Swann would go on to be the MVP of Super Bowl X for the Pittsburgh Steelers and a pro football Hall of Fame selection. Williams would win the gold medal at the 1972 Olympics and the silver in 1976. McAlister had the world's leading long jump of 27-0 1/2 in 1973, still a UCLA school record.

The one event that epitomizes the frequent dramatic competition was the 3200-meter run in 2016, won by Cooper Teare, of Alameda St. Joseph-Notre Dame by a hair over Cole Spencer, of Temecula Great Oak. Both were given the same time of eight minutes 8:51.85 seconds, with Teare winning by two-hundredths of a second.

The meet celebrates the winners in the individual events more than the team champion at the end. The team scores rarely come down to the final relay. However, the 1960 meet is probably the most exciting on record. Pre-meet favorite Los Angeles Jordan lost star sprinter Hubie Watson to injury when he took third in the 100. Sophomore Lawrence Bonner came out of the stands, donned Watson's uniform and pole vaulter David Bludso's shoes, and ran the second leg as Jordan took fourth in the 4X200 relay, enabling it to win 15-14 over Oakland Castle-mont.

The CIF State meet is the pinnacle for many high school athletes. "The state meet was the most important thing in my life when I was in high school," said Anaheim Loara grad Ralph Serna, a three-time state meet distance runner, now 61. "I ran internationally as a teenager. I ran against the Russians. Those were strangers. At the state meet, I ran against people I knew inside and out. They knew me inside and out."

The meet has been supported by enthusiastic fans who have traveled as far north as Oroville and as far south as San Diego before the meet settled in Clovis in 2009. The fans have been so enthusiastic they have been known to race to the prime seats at the finish line once gates open.

Pasadena's Charley Paddock was the first state meet performer to go on to Olympic glory. He won the 100-yard dash at the second state meet in 1916. He won two gold medals and a silver at the 1920 Olympics and participated in two more Games.

Nearly 80 men and women from California high schools have won Olympic medals in track. Two more have won volleyball medals. Many more have made the U.S. Olympic team and teams from at least five other nations.

Others have gone on to college track and football, the NFL and the pro football Hall of Fame, the NBA, MLB, boxing and pro wrestling, pro soccer, politics, musical stardom, the Broadway stage, television drama, high school coaching and one extraordinary war hero.

Torrance's Louis Zamperini, the winner of the mile in 1934, ran in the 1936 Olympics and is best remembered for his heroism as a POW of the Japanese during World War II. He was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and a Purple Heart.

Renowned singer Johnny Mathis, of San Francisco Washington, tied for sixth in the high jump in 1952. He had records go gold and platinum and has been inducted into the Grammy Hall of Fame.

Hanford's Cornelius Warmerdam (pole vault), Compton Centennial's Charlie Dumas (high jump), Santa Monica's Parry O'Brien (shot put), Covina Edgewood's Mike Powell (long jump) and Los Angeles Jordan's Florence Griffith-Joyner (sprints) and Kevin Young (400 hurdles) set historic world records. Young's, Powell's and Griffith-Joyner's marks still stand.

The history of the state meet is marked by athletes who weren't in such a hurry to leave high school early, get to college and be drafted by the pros.

Tom Casacky and Bill Peck have published a compendium of the results from 1915-2006. Names such as Mack Robinson, Jackie's brother, and Richard Sherman, the loquacious NFL cornerback, jump off the pages. Jackie qualified for the 1936 state meet but apparently did not compete. It did not stop his Pasadena Muir team from winning the title.

Tulare's Bob Mathias was a four-term congressman from the San Joaquin Valley.

Berkeley's Robert Culp cleared 12 feet 3 inches to tie for second in the pole vault in 1947. He went on to an acting career, most prominently in the "I Spy" television series.

Newport Harbor's Misty May-Treanor, the second-place finisher in the high jump in 1993, became a three-time Olympic gold medalist in beach volleyball. She remembers being pleased about jumping a personal best of five feet 10 inches at the state meet in 1993, the same height as winner Tracy Lawyer, of Cate of Carpinteria. May-Treanor said, "Without track I don't know I would have been as successful in volleyball." She went on to say that track gave her the mental discipline to succeed in volleyball. "It's mind over matter," she said.

Laguna Hills' Tayyiba Haneef-Park won the 1997 high jump and went on to play on two U.S. Olympic volleyball teams that earned silver medals in indoor volleyball.

Bakersfield Foothill's Lonnie Shelton took third in the shot put in 1973, played basketball at Oregon State and had a 10-year career in the NBA.

Los Angeles Jefferson's Woodrow Strode took second in the shot put in 1933. He went on to play football at UCLA, serve in the U.S. Army in the South Pacific in World War II. He was one of the first African-Americans to play in the NFL. He wrestled professionally and was cast in many major movies including "Spartacus."

San Jose Santa Theresa's Keri Sanchez placed in the 100 and 300 hurdles and triple jump. She went on to play soccer at the University of North Carolina and professionally in the United States and Japan for about 15 years.

San Diego High's Charlie Powell, who placed in the shot put in 1950-51, played in the NFL and boxed professionally as a heavyweight, losing to Muhammad Ali (then Cassius Clay) in 1963, defeating Cuba's Nino Valdes, then ranked No. 2, and ended his career with a 25-11-6 record.

Newport Harbor's Jim Neidhart won shot put in 1973, competed for UCLA, gave pro football a try and became a professional wrestler with the nickname "The Anvil."

Fullerton's John Raitt had a strong voice and stage presence and a strong arm. He won the 1935 state meet shot put and the football throw with a still-standing record of 220 feet. The event was discontinued after 1937. Raitt starred on Broadway in musicals such as "Carousel" and "Oklahoma" among others.

Anaheim Savanna's Steve DeBerg pole vaulted 14 feet 10 inches to take second at state in 1972. He went on to a 19-year career as a quarterback in the NFL.

Some like Randy Williams made it big right out of high school. It took Ventura's Mike Larabee 12 years go from seventh in the state 220 in 1952 to Olympic gold medals in the 400 and 4X400 relay in 1964.

Monrovia's Johnny Lindell won the 120-yard high hurdles and took third in the long jump in 1935 before going on to a 12-year Major League career that saw him play in three World Series for the New York Yankees.

Riverside Poly's Bobby Bonds won the long jump in 1965 and went on to a 14-year Major League career.

Los Angeles Washington's Hugh McElhenny won the high hurdles and the low hurdles and the long jump at the 1947 meet. He would go on to a career in the NFL and would be joined in the San Francisco 49ers million-dollar backfield by Pittsburg's John Henry Johnson who won the discus in 1949. They are two of at least five state meet alumni to be inducted into the pro football Hall of Fame.

San Fernando's Charles White, who won the 330-yard hurdles in 1976, was awarded the Heisman Trophy for his 1979 season at USC. San Diego Helix's Reggie Bush won multiple state meet medals before winning and losing the Heisman Trophy at USC.

Some state meet participants are remembered for their support of social causes, including Tommie Smith, the 1963 state winner in the 440, won the gold medal in the 200 meters at the 1968 Olympics and everlasting fame for his black power salute during the national anthem on the victory stand. Smith's action lives on 50 years later with Michael Norman, the Vista Murrieta sprinter who won the 400 at state twice and the 200 twice in 2015-16. "Most people know (Smith) from his impactful statement he made on the Olympic podium in the 1968 Games," said Norman, a USC sophomore. "Having my name on the same list as Tommie Smith demonstrates the rich history of California's state meet."

Rafer Johnson, of Kingsburg in the San Joaquin Valley, won the 120 high hurdles champion at the 1954 state meet. He was SI Sportsman of the Year for 1958 and Olympic decathlon champion in 1960 and runner up in 1956. He lit the Olympic torch at the opening ceremonies for the 1984 Games. He helped capture Sirhan Sirhan, Bobby Kennedy's assassin, at the scene of the crime in June 1968. And Johnson has been an advocate for Special Olympics for years.

The 1962 meet is an example of the meet's connection to future glory. Los Angeles Fremont's Willie Crawford handed the baton to anchorman Richard Stebbins who brought his team home second in the 4X220-yard relay. In 1964, Stebbins won gold in the Olympic 4X100 meter relay. In 1965, Crawford played for the Dodgers in the World Series.

While professional and college track and field have declined in popularity, the high school level of the sport remains popular at the state meet. Fire marshals had to close the gates at the 1981 meet at Cerritos College because the stadium was full.

Since the meet was moved to Clovis near Fresno in 2009, the meet has averaged nearly 16,000 per year for the two days.

CIF State Director Brian Seymour said Clovis is an ideal location because of its central location and the immense effort put on by volunteers to stage the meet. He said track and field is less affected by student transfers that has torn asunder balanced competition in other sports

Track expert Jack Shepherd said the early June heat of Clovis precludes record-setting performances. Michael Norman, who led Vista Murrieta to team titles in 2015-2016, did not mind going to Clovis. "Each year, the trip up to state was interesting and entertaining," Norman said. "It was a change of scenery. The high energy atmosphere created from the fans made each time I competed at the state meet memorable."

Norman's coach at Vista Murrieta, Coley Candaele, the 1600-meter champion at the 1990 state meet, keeps the medal he won. He remembers the pain he felt running the second half of his race "as the worst I endured in my track career." Candaele fine-tuned the schedule of Michael Norman so that his best races came between at the 2015 state meet and at the 2016 Olympic Trials, after the state meet which Norman and Vista Murrieta won again.

The 2016 season is an example why modern high school athletes don't make the Olympic team the way Mathias, Brown and others have in prior years. Because track is now professional, older athletes are sticking around in the sport longer. Norman took fifth in the 200 at the Olympic Trials. He was beaten for a spot on the U.S. team by a pair of thirty-somethings, Justin Gatlin and LaShawn Merritt, who were kept in the sport by opportunity to make a living unlike the old amateur days.

The state meet is ever changing, adding girls competition in 1974 and shifting from yards to metric races in 1980. The 180 low hurdles became the 300 intermediate hurdles. The 200 is run around one curve now and the 400 two turns. The 220 used to be on a straightaway and the 440 around one curve. Dirt tracks have given way to swift, artificial surfaces. Saw dust pits have been replaced by foam. Pole vaulters have progressed from bamboo to metal to fiberglass.

For women, the state meet has become a proving ground for future Olympic gold medalists such as Gail Devers, Joanna Hayes and Allyson Felix. The latter is the most decorated American woman in track history.

Retired USC coach Ron Alice, who was the head coach of the USA team at the 2016 world indoor championships, sat with the track "nuts" when scouting athletes at the state meet. In 1995, he saw San Diego University City's Felix Sanchez take third in the 300 hurdles. Alice said watching the athlete's performance is more important than his result. He stayed with Sanchez, who also wrestled in high school and had to go to junior college and recruited him to USC. Sanchez won a conference title in the 400 hurdles and Olympic gold medals for the Dominican Republic in 2004 and 2012. Alice said the state meet is an important part of the history of the sport, not just as a high school event. He said the population base, the weather and the presence of on-campus coaches willing to share athletes with other coaches contributed to the success of track and the state meet. Alice calls the travels of track fans to the state meet, "a pilgrimage that's a must-see event on the calendar."

The 100th state meet will be the 50th for North Hollywood grad Hal Harkness, who will be the rules interpreter at Clovis in June. Harkness, 79, took fourth in the mile at his first state meet, 1956, at Chico State. Harkness remembers the meet, the biggest he had ever been at, and his race well. He had the lead with about 60 yards remaining but didn't have the speed to kick with the first three finishers. Harkness has been a coach, an official and meet director at 49 subsequent state meets. Harkness said girls make up 50 percent of the competitors but are responsible for more than 50 percent of the pleasure of being involved in the meet because they compete so well in the sport. He said the pole vault is an example of how much the girls have contributed to the meet; first he did not think they would do well in the pole vault because of the upper body strength required.

Melissa Price, of Kingsburg, won the first state meet pole vault with an American record of 12 feet six inches in 1995. Anaheim Canyon's Rachel Baxter won in 2017 at 14 feet, a week after setting a national high school record of 14-4.

By way of contrast, the girls high jump has declined, probably because basketball and volleyball players are concentrating on their club teams in the spring. Clovis' Latrese Johnson set the still-standing record of 6-2 in the high jump in 1985. Riverside Poly's Abigail Burke cleared 5-8 to win the high jump last year.

Another change in the state meet has been the decline in the participation of football players. Many are tied up in weight lifting, spring practice and seven-on-seven leagues. When track and football participation was more closely aligned, the state meet served as the combine for one NFL general manager before there was a combine in Indianapolis. San Diego Chargers general manager Johnny Sanders, once the coach at North Hollywood High, attended the state meet during the 1970s. Sanders would watch the sprints for potential running backs and wide receivers and the shot put and discus for prospects for linemen. Encino Crespi's Randy Cross and Roseville's Tedy Bruschi were state meet shot putters before becoming three-time Super Bowl winners.

Few have participated in prep sports at its high point in two states like 2017 Vista Murrieta graduate Javelin Guidry. He played in two state championship football games in Texas. He won the 100 meters two times in Class 5A in Texas before moving to Murrieta for his senior year in 2016-17. He was the CIF state champion in the 100 last June in 10.13 seconds which was better than the CIF State meet record but does not count because it was wind aided. "There is nothing like Friday Night Lights in Texas," said Guidry. "Football is everything out there. The two state championship games were played in NFL stadiums. That was a phenomenal feeling especially since I'm working to play professional football. But the California state meet felt better because I was able to win where I grew up...It was great to have the opportunity to compete with the best athletes in both states but California was more meaningful because of the record time I made and it was the best of the best in the state."

Harkness said the one-class nature of the state meet which brings together athletes from all sizes of schools, public and private, is a compelling aspect of the meet. He said the state meet prospers because it has never been touched by scandal unlike higher levels of the sport. "It's pure athletics," said Harkness. "I can't think of any incident before or after the meet that has a negative image. It's two days of good competition." Harkness said the greatest individual performance he saw in 49 state meets was Los Altos' Rick Brown who won the 440 and 880 and anchored his 4X440-yard relay team to victory.

Rick Smith, the retired media relations chief for the Los Angeles/St. Louis Rams and the San Diego Chargers, wears his Super Bowl ring for his work with the 1999 Rams to the state meet in Clovis where he assists journalist Steve Brand. Smith, a San Diego Lincoln student, rode all night with four others in a Ford station wagon to watch his first state meet in Berkeley in 1957. He's been to 40 since then.

Los Angeles-area professional photographer Kirby Lee gave up a credential to a Kings-Rangers Stanley Cup final game in 2014 to cover state track. Other years, he's covered the Steve Prefontaine meet in Eugene, Ore., in the early afternoon, driven to Portland, caught a plane to Fresno and arrived in time in Clovis to photograph the state meet. Lee said, "I enjoy track and field at all levels whether it is high school, college or professional. It's particularly satisfying to see the number of athletes that I have seen in high school go on to become NCAA champions, USA champions and even World or Olympic champions...The state meet is track and field at its purest level."

CORPORATE CHAMPIONS

Through the CIF Corporate Champion program, these companies provide a direct, positive impact on the opportunities afforded to more than 831,000 CIF student-athletes each year. These corporations are dedicated to emphasizing the role of athletics in interscholastic education by supporting CIF programs throughout the year. So, on behalf of the CIF and our student-athletes, we'd like to extend a big thank you to our Corporate Champions for being a vital part of the CIF family.
