

Macdonald wins mile in 4:01.4

LOS GATOS — Menlo Park's Duncan Macdonald, establishing meet and field records, won the invitational mile in 4:01.4 in Saturday's All-Comers track and field meet at Los Gatos High School.

Macdonald, a graduate of Stanford University, defeated Joe Fabris of the Aggie Running Club and Steve Crowley, the ex-Stanford and Gunn High School standout.

Woodside High product Mike Greggans won the Open Division 100 meters in 10.5 and the 200 in 21.9. The University of California's Ross McAlexander and Foothill College's Ralph Preiman each cleared 16-6 in the pole vault.

Rod Green of Palo Alto High won the prep 400 meters in 50.7, and Menlo-Atherton's Ricky Galvez won the pole vault at 12-6.

In the women's division, Stanford freshman-to-be Margaret Demorest from Buchser High won the 100 meters and tied for first in the 55 low hurdles.