

Carlmont wins cross-country title in PAL

11-4-57

Coach Phil Arnot's Carlmont High School harriers won the third annual PAL cross country meet held yesterday at the Stanford Golf Course.

The winners barely edged out the defending champion Palo Alto team.

Ron Larrieux of Palo Alto was the individual winner and set a new course record with a 10:10.4 clocking.

Carlmont also captured the frosh-soph competition while Paly took nine out of the first ten places to cop the novice meet.

James Lick took the title in the SCVAL varsity championship meet.
