

Paly ties Woodside in cross-country

Bill Respini outkicked Woodside's Ed Wells for first place to pull Palo Alto High into a tie for first with the Wildcats in a triangular cross-country meet at Gunn Thursday.

Woodside and Palo Alto both totaled 29 points to 82 for the host Titans.

Larry Chenault of Woodside took first place honors, but Palo Alto swept the next seven places in winning the junior varsity race; Alex DeGrassi led Gunn to victory in the sophomore competition, and Terman Junior High stopped the Woodside freshmen.

VARSITY

Respini (P) 10:14, E. Wells (W) 10:18, Coleman (P) 10:24; Ting (W) 10:32, Rensham (P) 11:05, D. Wells (W) 11:09, Hoffman (W) 11:12, Moses (G) 11:14, Hafkenschiel (P) 11:15, Butler (W) 11:17.

SCORES: Woodside 29, Palo Alto 29, Gunn 82.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Chenault (W) 11:49, Allen (P) 11:51.

SCORES: Palo Alto 20, Woodside 59, Gunn 59.

SOPHOMORE

DeGrassi (G) 11:00, Sullivan (W) 11:24, Daiss (P) 11:25, Salisbury (P) 11:30, Hart (G) 11:34, Scarborough (W) 11:52.

SCORES: Gunn 33, Palo Alto 44, Woodside 46.

FRESHMAN

SCORES: Terman 22, Woodside 31.