VICTOR REPEATS HIS 1967 TRIUMPH

Walsh Finishes 2d to Pace Villanova to 4th Straight Team Championship

By MICHAEL STRAUSS

Art Dulong of Holy Cross, who won the I. C. 4-A cross-country crown as a sophomore and was the runner-up as a junior, regained the title yesterday as a senior.

The Crusader captured the colorful Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America event by a convincing 125 yards, covering the five-mile Van Cortlandt Park course in the Bronx in 24 minutes 6.8 seconds. He missed by 2.4 seconds the record he posted two years ago. Donal Walsh of Villanova was second.

As expected, Villanova, paced by Walsh and heavily fortified by its foot cavalry from England and Ireland, took team honors for the fourth straight time.

The Wildcats' top five finishers accounted for a total of 60 points toward a lopsided 78-point margin over second-place Harvard.

Second Double for Star

In the college division Ron Stonitsch, the lean C. W. Post ironman, retained his title as he won by 100 yards. The triumph rounded out an impressive double for the second straight year for the junior, who successfully defended his National Collegiate crown last Saturday with a 65-yard triumph over a snow-covered course in Chicago.

More than 550 runners representing 67 schools at the varsity and freshman levels took part yesterday on a course that was muddy in its hillier sections. Villanova, which will defend its N.C.A.A. crown at Van Cortlandt next Monday, had been the favorite in the university division.

The Wildcats of Jumbo Elliott more than lived up to their advance rating. Walsh was followed across the line by three teammates—Dave Wright, who finished fifth; Chris Mason, sixth; Des McCormack, 21st, and Marty Liquori, the Olympian, 30th.

Leg Still Ailing

Liquori, the only American in the Wildcats' top five, still convalescing from a long-ailing leg, was a late entry. He was in the last half of the pack as it swept past the three-mile mark.

"Better put some hustle on!" shouted Elliott to his crack distance star. "We need you for that No. 5 scoring spot."

As it developed, the coach had little cause for worry. Harvard, rated a top threat in view of its superb clockings in winning the recent heptagonals at Van Cortlandt, did not provide much competition. The Crimson's first finisher, Keith Colburn, was third, trailing Walsh by about 15 yards. But as a fifth scorer, Erik Roth was only 75th.

In regaining his title, Dulong did not follow his prerace strategy. Instead of allowing others to make the pace for 3½ miles, as he had planned, he replaced Walsh as a leader after only 1½ miles. He had no trouble maintaining his advantage thereafter.

"I felt I was running comfortably," he said in explaining the switch in plans, "so I saw no reason to lag. I just moved into the lead naturally. I'll admit, though, I was tired at the finish."

three-mile event was taken by another Villanova import, England's Phil Banning, who beat Jim Allahand of Penn State by 110 yards. Banning comes from the town of Andover in the county of Hampshire. Villanova's Walsh and McCormack are from Ireland, while Mason and Wright are English.

University Defeat Lone Blemish

Revenge for Ron?

By BERNIE BEGLANE

Ron Stonitsch, Post College's premier distance runner, and Roy Chernock, the Pioneers' coach, have one race they want to forget . . . NCAA University Division cross country championships of 1968.

In that one, Stonitsch, only a sophomore, finished in 74th place for his lone setback in hill and dale competition since he entered the Brookville school.

"Things are going to be different this time," said Chernock yesterday after his prize pupil breezed to a 150-yard victory for a second consecutive IC4A College Division title at Van Cortlandt Park, the Bronx.

"I take the blame for that one I'm a year older and a lot smarter now. Last season I told Ron to stay back in the field and then make his move after two miles.

"He isn't able to do that. He has to run in front. Another thing, we didn't really train for that race last year.

"Our whole schedule was based on the NCAA and IC4A College Division meets. By the time the NCAA University Division came around, Stonitsch was starting to cut down."

Yesterday's triumph, gained in 25:03.3 for the five miles, was the second major title in three days for the 20-year-old junior from Long Beach.

On Saturday, in four inches of snow in Chicago, the 5-9½ harrier took the gold medal in 24:53 in the NCAA College Division. He was sixth in that event in '68.

Stonitsch, undefeated in 28 dual meets with the Pioneers, won the Lehigh University, Albany State College and Collegiate Track Conference crowns earlier this campaign.

And now comes the NCAA University Division next Monday at Van Cortlandt.

"I'll only run about 50 miles in training this week," said Ron, who usually does between 80 and 100. "I got back from Chicago late Saturday night and when I woke up Sunday I went out and jogged six miles around the track at Long Beach High School.

"My goal is to finish in the top 20 next week. I'm ready this time."

In yesterday's University Division competition, Art Dulong, a senior at Holy Cross, was the gold medalist in 24:06.8 as he regained the title he won as a sophomore.

The Crusader, second last year, fell short of the meet record of 24:04.4 he established as a soph.

Villanova, led by Donal Walsh, a sophomore from Ireland who was runnerup to Dulong by 125 yards, took the team title for the fourth straight year with 60 points.

Harvard, the Heptagonal titlist, was next with 138, followed by Penn State (154), St. John's (163) and Connecticut (176). The fourth-place finish was the highest ever for the Redmen. Their previous best was a seventh in 1957.

Terry Mcuade paced Steve Bartold's team with a 10th place in 25:10. Don Rowe, another Johnnie, was 11th and Manhattan's Ed Walsh of Rockville Centre was 12th.

The College Division team crown went to Lehigh with 36 points.
