Dulong, Connecticut Retain New England Harrier Titles

BOSTON, Nov. 10 (AP)—Art Dulong of Holy Cross captured his second straight individual title and Connecticut retained the team prize today in the 57th New England Intercollegiate cross-country championships at Franklin Park.

Dulong covered the muddy five-mile course in 24 minutes 15 seconds, beating Connecticut's John Vitale by 21 seconds.

Connecticut won the team championship with 46 points as Craig McColl was third in 24:45, Rick Spurling fourth in 24:48 and Steve Flanagan eighth in 25:22.

Providence was second with 75 points and Holy Cross third with 77.

Art Dulong of Holy Cross and the University of Connecticut retained their championships in the New England Intercollegiate Cross Country championships at Franklin Park yesterday.

Dulong navigated the muddy five-mile course in 24 minutes and 15 seconds for first. Veteran observers described the course conditions as probably the worst in 40 years.

UConn chalked up the team title by finishing second, third and fourth. John Vitale nosed out Craig McColl for second by four seconds, registering a time of 24.41. Rick Spurling took fourth in 24:48.

In the freshman meet, the University of Massachusetts emerged as the team champions while Dan Moynahan of Wesleyan, formerly of Malden Catholic, took the individual title with 15:45 timing over a 3.1 mile course.
