Awalt High, with five selections, dominates the All-Santa Clara Valley Athletic League varsity cross-country team released today.

Dave and Larry Chamness, Chris Kane, Rick Hart and Tom Verette represent Awalt on the 11-man team. Larry Chamness, a sophomore, is the lone Spartan underclassman. The others are seniors.

Los Altos and Homestead each picked up two spots with the Knights' Dan Slavin the other sophomore on the team. Los Altos junior Chris Berka and Homestead's Steve Church and John Marshall were also honored.

Cupertino had one varsity selection in Mark Lima while Santa Clara also grabbed a varsity berth with Russ Goodman being honored.
