

Fall All-SPAL Named

Now that all the Fall sports are over, the all-SPAL teams are in the process of being selected.

At the time of this writing, with all but the freshman football squad known, M-A has had 24 athletes chosen to either first and second team or on the honorable mention list of the various fall sports.

On the varsity football team, Burt Blackwell was chosen to the first team defense, while David Williams and Robert Rowland were chosen to the second team. Jim Watts, John Sphar, and Jim Smith were on the honorable mention list.

A number of J. V. footballers were on the lists including Bruce Bartlett (both ways), Mike Fink, Wyatt Jennings, Dick Bass, Bob Fennell, John Tondino, Ricky Julian, Randy Rhodes, Pete Singleton, Mike Sampson and Duane Wilkens. Bartlett was chosen defensive player of the year.

In cross country, John Barbour was named to the varsity first team, while Doug Yost made honorable mention. Mark Hausler was honorable mention Frosh-Soph and Pete Jones and Richard Eldridge was honorable mention.

For the C's, Andrew Johnson was chosen to the first team while Ronnie Clemons is on the second team. D players Edward Agront, and Jerry Bloodshaw were chosen to the first team.

The only varsity water poloist to be chosen was Warren Otto on the honorable mention list. For the championship Frosh-Soph water poloists, Brian Avery, Dave DePuy, and Glenn Procter were chosen to the lists.

All of these M-A athletes have been chosen all-league by the coaches for a job well done in representing their school.
