

Carlmont Runners Get The Birds

Carlmont High runners won eight of the 19 turkeys given away Friday in the annual Carlmont-to-San Carlos Turkey Trot between teachers and students at the two schools.

A total of 83 runners competed in the 4.6-mile run through the hills from Carlmont to San Carlos, with turkeys given to the first teacher to finish, the first cross country runner to finish and the first non-cross country boy and girl in each class.

Fastest in the whole field was Central Coast Section champion Hans Templeman of Carlmont in 26 minutes, 49 seconds, while the top teacher was Carlmont's Phil Arnot, a perennial winner in this race although he is over 40, in 30 minutes flat.

Other noteworthy results saw San Carlos cross country coach Jim Luttrell finish in 37:40 to beat his Carlmont counterpart, Loren Lansberry, 39:35, and Central School eighth grade student Terry Roberts finish in 36:47.
