

Jim Reinhart

Last year's state cross country champion as a sophomore, Jim started running in junior high when his father began a jogging program. Now he's one of South Dakota's best distance men with a 4:18.7 best mile and should bring three straight cross country titles to Lincoln High.