

AHS Places Sixth In X-Country

Traveling to the state capitol, Alameda high school cross country teams competed against some of the best distance runners in Northern California.

And Coach Bill Thompson's Hornets turned in creditable performances and showed real team depth as they finished sixth in the varsity, fifth in the junior event, and fourth in the sophomore race.

Alameda sophomores running in the open race for their class did well as Mike Rainey was 8th, Ricky Page, 20th, Dave Haber, 31st, Pete Ryan, 38th, and Bill McCauley, 59th.

On Wednesday Alameda and Encinal travel to Richmond in an ACAL meet.
