Cherokee JV Runners Win

Sequoia High's junior varsity cross country team took top honors Saturday afternoon in the Terra Nova Invitational meet in Pacifica. 11/3

The Tribe beat 15 other schools with the low score of 50. Junior Mark Daniel led the Cherokees by placing first over the 2.3-mile hilly course in 10:53. Teammate Noe Vigil, despite an injured foot, finished fourth.

Following these two were Cherks Al Thompson (10th), Mike Oates (17th) and Frank Cortez (18th).

St. Ignatius placed second with 90 and Mt. Diablo third with 120.

In the freshman race, Sequoian Chris Vigil placed sixth
