Oct. 23, 1974 CROSS COUNTRY

Chico State University cross country harriers will entertain the University of California, Davis team this weekend in their final home meet of the season beginning at 11 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 26 at the Bidwell Park course.

The Wildcats will bring their top runners out of resting for the event. These individuals include Tom Brown, Jaak West, Toni Ruggle, Pat Finn, Tim Stone, Greg Griffin and Tony Webb. Other possible runners will be George Rodgers, Mike Fornicari, Dave Shram, Mike Pick and Dan Tronson. Coach Larry Burleson will be looking for his power to come from the top seven harriers listed above.

Last week the powerful UC Davis squad registered a 15-45 win over San Francisco State. Top individuals who will compete for the Aggies will be Matt Yeo, Mike Sweeney, Joe Taxiera, Ed Schlegle and Angelo Martinez. Yeo finished first last weekend with a 24:33.1 clocking and the others finished no lower than tenth or with a time of 25:15.

The Wildcats competed in a three way meet last weekend at Hayward and finished last. Stanislaus State ran first with 26, Chico State had 46 and Hayward registered 76.

Next action following this home meet will be at 11 a.m. in San Francisco Sat. Nov. 2 against the S.F. Gators.
