

Dons, Vikings cross-country winners

TWO LOCAL TEAMS claimed cross-country championships last week — De Anza college winning the small school division of the Mt. SAC meet and Lynbrook high claiming the varsity title at the Coyote park Center meet.

De Anza's fine grouping was led by Paul Frederickson, third at 20:31, followed by: Greg Eger, 13th in 21:08; Hank Lawson, 16th in 21:19; Matt Church, 25th in 21:42; and Ron Lewis, 33rd in 21:52. Top time in the four-mile race was 19:33 and De Anza scored 90 points while second place Hancock had 93.

Lynbrook was paced by senior, star

Chris Hulburd, who won the individual title by covering the 2.9-mile Coyote park course in 14:59. Marty Cochran finished fourth for the Vikings in 15:22.

The local school scored 48 points to outdistance second place Mt. Pleasant, which tallied 73.

The Viking junior varsity took second place in its meet with Lynbrook's Mike Early claiming individual honors in 16:08. Pat Hyland finished fourth in 16:19 and Ron Ferguson was ninth in 16:55.

The JV's scored 48 too, but Carlmont won with 39.

The frosh team finished fourth with still another Lynbrook runner, Pat McDowell, claiming first place in the individual championship. McDowell was timed in 16:15 while Ron Wright recorded 16:22 for ninth.

Lynbrook scored 105 points while Silver Creek had 91, Woodside 102 and Sunnyvale 103.

The sophomores claimed a third place team finish with 88 points behind Leigh's 18 and Silver Creek's 72.

Jim Stewart was the top Viking finisher with a 16:57 for 12th. Bill Brandon was 16th in 17:18.

Freeze along in GGC

Friday, October 25, 1974

THE TWO victories increased the Dons' season record against other junior colleges and Jayvee squads to 13-0. The Dons have lost only one, and that was against the Stanford Varsity on Saturday by a score of 10-2.

League contests of interest that are left will be against CSM on November 1, and Diablo Valley on November 15.

Improved harriers head for Mt. San Antonio run

La Voz

Page 7

Cross country action moves to Mt. San Antonio College as the De Anza Dons will be competing in the Mt. SAC Invitational at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

De Anza goes into the meet after coming off a successful showing in their last league race Oct. 17.

IN THE THREE-team meet which pitted De Anza with the state's third-ranked team, San Jose City, and lowly Laney College, De Anza placed five runners in the overall top ten. The Don's Paul Frederickson turned in the invitational's best time of 22:23. Just six-tenths of a second behind in second place was James Shawn of SJCC with a time of 22:39. SJCC, which placed five runners in the top ten, bunched a pair of its runners in the third and fourth spots, Gary Sanchez, third at 23:03 and Gil Brooks, fourth at 23:04.

ROUNDING OUT the top five was Greg Eger of De Anza, 23:06.

After the contest, the SJCC coach called De Anza "The most improved team in the state."