

Carrasco wins CCS x-country

Sophomore Carlos Carrasco of Mt. Pleasant High won the Central Coast Section cross country championship and Willow Glen captured the team crown in Tuesday's finals at Coyote Park in San Jose.

Carrasco clocked 14:11 to beat Willow Glen's Mark Stillman by 14 seconds over the 2.85 mile course. Bob Love of Carlmont was third in 14:27 and teammate Greg Mandanis placed seventh in 14:44 as the Scots finished second in the team standings.

Terry Boynton and Dave Avila of Cupertino ran ninth and 10th, respectively. Gary Thurston of Menlo-Atherton was 17th and Rick Sanchez of Sunnysvale finished 23rd to top Midpeninsula efforts.

Cupertino's 10th place finish was the best by an area school. St. Francis placed 13th.

Gunn's outstanding freshman, Jack Kurr, won the frosh-soph race in 15:11, 14 seconds faster than the runner-up.

Overfelt won the team title in the division with Carlmont third, Peterson seventh, Homestead eighth, Lynbrook ninth and Sunnysvale 11th.
