

Troedson wins x-country crown

MIKE
~~Jack~~ Troedson of Los Altos High won the Santa Clara Valley Athletic cross-country championship while Cubberley claimed team laurels in the league finals Wednesday at Foothill College.

Troedson, despite an injured foot, covered the three-mile course in 15:59 to beat runner-up Kobert Smith of Awalt by six seconds.

Cubberley, placing five runners in the top 10, captured the team crown with 34 points, the Cougars' first-ever title in the sport.

Martin Vavuris finished third in 16:08 to lead the Cubberley effort. Dave Wilson was sixth, Kyle Kashima seventh, Dave Clarke eighth and Fred Boyer 10th.

Andy Passell of Cubberley won the junior varsity race in 17:30, Jack Kurr of Gunn took the sophomore division in 16:07 while Matt Keehn of Gunn won the freshmen race in 17:35. Kelly Hintz of Buchser was the winner of the girls' two-mile-event in 13:07.

The top six varsity teams qualified for next Wednesday's Region II meet at San Jose's Coyote Park.
