Wildcats Capture Aptos Meet Title

Watsonville, James Lick and Leigh High School were winners at the varsity level in the ninth annual Aptos Invitational Cross Country Meet Saturday at Aptos High.

For the second year in a row the Wildcats garnered top honors among the large schools (1,400 and above enrollment), scoring 61 points. Angel Vasquez paced the 'Cats with a 12:41 clocking over the hilly 2.5-mile course, good for second place.

It was Vasquez' second straight runner-up finish, despite trimming 11 seconds off his mark a year ago. Soquel's Rick Ifland placed fourth in 12:53.

James Lick didn't place a runner in the top five, but still managed to capture the small-school varsity crown with 62 points.

Santa Cruz' James Rembao was third in the small-school varsity competition, logging a 12:55 effort.

Terry Schneider of Santa Cruz won the girls' varsity race, covering the 2.25-mile course in 13:50. Aptos' Sally Weaver claimed fourth in 14:54.
