Giusto outruns field again

San Mateo High School's Matt Giusto showed why he is one of the favorites for the Central Coast Section boys' cross-country title when he easily outran his opponents in a meet Monday at Aragon High.

Giusto ran the second-fastest time ever recorded on the 2.6-mile course, 13:02, which is just four seconds off the course record set in 1973 by Aragon's Rob Barnett.

Aragon's Jesse Munoz finished second in 14:03.

Aragon defeated San Mateo, 25-30, and Hillsdale, 23-38, in the non-league double-dual meet. San Mateo defeated Hillsdale, 23-37.
